OVER THE WIRES.

The Civil Service Denounced by the Baltimore Republicans.

THE WHEAT MARKET WEAK.

Mrs. Maybrick in Prison Garb—Casualities at Seattle—Trial of the Cronin Murderers.

The HERALD's Special Dispatches.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 29.—Last night the federation of republican clubs of the third congressional district, which represents twenty-three associations, adopted the following:

Resolved, That we, as republicans, pledge ourselves not to support any one for office, either national, state or city, who is in favor of the present odious civil service, or its application in the distribution of public patronage, whereby the majority of appointments are awarded to young men fresh from schools and colleges while the active, intelligent, educated and deserving men of our own party are barred out on account of age, or have failed to answer foolish questions, not pertinent to the service in which they are seeking employment.

THE CRONIN MURDERERS.

With the Exception of Woodruff Must be Tried Together.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Judge McConnell this morning decided that all the defendants in the Cronin trial should be tried together, with the exception of Frank Woodruff, the young Californian. Judge McConnell said that in view of Woodruff's confessions it would be manifestly unfair to allow him to go to trial with the others.

All the defendants took exceptions to the ruling against the separate trial and were given twenty days to file bills of exceptions. All then said they were ready for trial.

How The Whipping Post Works.

New York Star.

"Our whipping post doesn't seem to take very well with your people up here," said Governor Biggs of Delaware shortly after he had made his great "short talk" at the Tammany centennial, I told him that there did seem to be something of a feeling in New York against the whipping post and other methods of 16th century punishment.

"Well," continued the old gentleman, "we are old-fashioned people down in Delaware, and I presume we are way behind the times in a good many things, and rather set in our ways, and that method of dealing with certain classes of criminals is one of our ways. Now I am not an apologist for the whipping post, because I don't believe that Delaware needs any apologies to be made for her people or her acts, and if I did they wouldn't come with very good grace from her executive; but I can tell you some facts.

"There is not in the State of Delaware to-day a single penitentiary. If a man beats his wife or sets fire to a neighbor's barn, or breaks into a house, he isn't shut up with a lot of other criminals with full time and opportunity to learn all their tricks of deviltry that he did not know before. As a preventative of crime the whipping post has a much greater terror than a term in the penitentiary, and I have never known of a man that came back for the second dose. He simply leaves the State. Maybe he comes to New York; I don't know. At any rate he seeks another home, and you may rest assured that if he stays in Delaware he lives a very quite life. To be sure it is a relic of barbarism, but it is our way."

CROOK COUNTY NOTES.

PRINEVILLE, August 24.

The Santiam road across the Cascades is now in good condition. W. W. Ray hauled a load of 1600 pounds over it with one span of horses last week.

Large quantities of wool are being hauled from Crook county to Albany, the price there being about 5 cents in advance of The Dalles market. A big trade will flow from Eastern Oregon into Albany as soon as the Oregon Pacific railroad reaches this region.

Ed Schmeer arrived from Albany last Sunday, having crossed the Cascades by the Santiam route. While crossing the mountain he says several times he was compelled to dodge trees that were falling in the road in the section where the forest fires were raging.

As harvest proceeds it becomes more evident that the yield of grain is better than was expected. Many of the farmers who have finished threshing say they have about half as much grain as they did last year, and a few have about the same as they had on previous seasons. But even this will not furnish enough grain to supply the demand for the country, and it is safe to say two thirds of the flour and one-fourth of the grain for feed will have to be shipped into the country.

Knox Huston states that five horse thieves from Gilliam county passed through the northern part of the county last Saturday, going west with fourteen head of stolen horses. Mr. Huston saw two of the thieves on Currant creek early Saturday morning with a pack mule and several horses. John Boggs, an ex convict, and two of the Breeding boys are said to be in the party. They were heard of this week encamped on the McKenzie river, and are supposed to be heading for Lane county, where Boggs' relatives live. Sheriff Sloan, of Lane county, has been asked to intercept them, and it is hoped he has them in custody by this time.

STATE GRANGE FOR WASHINGTON.

The following notice has been sent out:

Masters of granges and their wives, if matrons, will be the voting members of the organization.

All patrons who can do so are requested to attend this meeting, that they may become familiar with the principles and work of the order.

JOHN SIMPSON, Lect. of Ogn. St. Gr.
D. L. RUSSELL, Assistant.
F. C. YEOMANS, Deputy, Clarke Co.
La Camas, August 27, 1889.

Sixteen granges, the number requisite for organizing have been formed in the territory.

ON THE SIUSLAW.

WALTON, Lane Co., Aug. 28.

John Pettitt has returned from California, where he has been harvesting.

A general exodus to the hop yards will occur next week from this settlement.

Wm. Curtis Jr. of Harrisburg, is visiting our settlement the guest of the Whitaker family.

Geo. Soverns of California, is in our settlement and located a claim on Wolf creek, and is going to move over there in a short time.

The Walton school house was burned to the ground last Saturday. No insurance. It stood in too close proximity to slashing that was fired.

A railroad survey has been made through our settlement, and we expect to hear the iron horse prancing and snorting through the brush here almost any foggy morning.

The body of John Schwartz, the young man that was killed in a bear hunt, was taken up from its resting place near Florence and taken to the family cemetry near Monroe and reburied.

The grange that was organized at Walton is flourishing nicely. Bro. Nighswander came over and assisted in the first regular meeting. The Walton grange meets the 2nd. Saturday of each month at 10 o'clock a. m.

The body of Minnie Lucky was found and taken out to Eugene for burial last week. Miss Luckey taught school in the adjoining district to ours last summer and was engaged to teach a fall term but was prevented by the waters of the Siuslaw. I was out harvesting when the accident occured hence did not report. The body of young Wilson, the young man that was drowned with Miss Luckey, was found and taken to Eugene and buried some time since.

CROP WEATHER BULLETIN.

Following is the Crop Weather Bulletin No. 25, for the week ending Saturday, August 24, as reported by the Oregon State Weather Bureau, co-operating with U. S. Signal Service, Central Office, Portland, Oregon.

The temperature for the past week has been about or slightly below the normal, ranging from 40 to 90 degrees with the mean about 66 degrees.

Showers of rain fell in the Willamette Valley and along the coast on Sunday and Monday. In the southern part of Benton Co. the rainfall was very heavy on Sunday, accompanied by hale. In Linn Co. near Albany, hale about the size of a pea fell. There is no report of any rain in any other part of the state during the week. The showers were beneficial to the grasses and late garden products. Little of any damage was done to the sacked wheat or wheat stacks in the fields. The atmosphere was considerably cleared of smoke by the showers and they had a tendency to dampen the forest fires. The sunshine was about normal; the morning's in Western Oregon being cloudy or foggy for a few hours; in Eastern Oregon generally cloudless sky prevailed. The wheat harvest is about finished in all sections of the state and reports continue to be received "wheat is turning out better than was expected." The largest yield per acre is reported from Hubbard Marion Co. where 68½ bushels per acre were obtained, 60 bushels per acre were obtained in Linn Co. and near Weston, Umatilla Co. These are the the highest authentic yields so far reported. The Rogue River Valley has a much larger yield than was expected. The Umpqua Valley will export more wheat this year than last. The whole Willamette will have more wheat to export than last year, the same for the Grande Ronde, Indian and other valleys of Union Co. The wheat in these sections is of good quality, average sized grain and plump. Morrow Co. will export more wheat than ever before, though in quality slightly poorer, the increased acreage was very great there. Wasco, Sherman and Gilliam counties will have a greatly reduced yield and of very poor quality, though even here there are exceptions. Umatilla Co. has in places good yields, in others very poor. Some claim for this county that there will not be ever one-fourth the usual amount of good milling wheat. Future figures alone can determine that some fields were not worth cutting for even hay; some yielded 8 bushels per acre, but most fields averaged more. The total number of bushels of wheat produced this year in Umatilla county will most likely surprise those who have been predicting such a wonderfully short crop. The price of wheat is gradually rising, but little is being sold. 60 cents in Eastern Oregon (at Pendleton) and 65 cents in the Willamette Valley are at present the maximum prices offered by buyers for the wheat.

The present outlook for the hop crop places it at about 80 per cent. of an average crop, but better in quality. The fruit crop continues to yield enormously. Peaches, pears, prunes are very plentiful.

The hay crop is generally short in Eastern and extreme Southern Oregon. Good crops were had in the Willamette and Umpqua valleys, and along the coast.

The rivers are falling rapidly, water is becoming scarce in Eastern Oregon, even the Snake River indicate a failure. B. S. PAGUE, Observer, U. S. Signal Service.

Death From Tight Lacing.

St. James Gazette.

A verdict of death from tight lacing is, perpaps, still to be sought among the curiosities of law, but a Birmingham jury have come near it in a verdict of death from pressure round the waist. The victim was a poor servant girl, who died after a fright, and her death was attributed by the medical witnesses to the fact that she was too tightly belted to enable her to stand the wear and tear of any sudden emotion. She was a notorious tight lacer; her collar fitted so closely that it was impossible to loosen it at the critical moment, and under her stays she wore a belt so remorselessly buckled as to prevent the free circulation of the blood.

Disarming an Unseen Foe.

"This was sometime a paradox," as Hamlet says. Since, however, the people of America and other lands have been enabled to pit Hostetter's Stomach Bitters against that unseen foe, malaria, it is no longer a paradox, but an easy possibility. Whatever malaria evolves its misty venom to poison the air, and decaying unwholesome vegetation impregnater the water, there, in the very stronghold of miasma, is the auxiliary potent to disarm the foe and assure efficient protection. Fever and ague, bilious remittent, dumb ague and ague cake, no matter how tenaciously they have fastened their clutch on the system, are first forced to relax their grasp and eventually to abandon it altogether. But it is preventive force that should chiefly recommend the Bitters to persons dwelling in malaria-cursed localities, for it is a certain buckler of defence against which the enemy is powerless. Cures, like wise, dyspepsia, rheumatism, kidney and billious ailments.
