EDITORIAL NOTES.

HERE's a pretty state of things from China: A dispatch to the Standard from Shanghai says: Pekin advices say that a number of high Chinese officials have petitioned Prince Chun to have all Americans employed in China expelled from the empire. It is reported that Prince Chun consents.

As an indication of what our import business amounts to the Manufacturer says that the chief articles of iron or steel, of which a larger amount was imported into this country in the year ending June 30, 1889, than during a similar period in 1888, were cotton ties and tin plates. The imports of the former in 1888 were 42,606,591 pounds, in 1889 they had increased to 71,654,638 pounds, nearly 75 per cent. of an increase. Of tin plates the amount imported in 1888 was 634,944,945 pounds, in 1889 it reached 735,737,990 pounds, an increase of about 17 per cent.

RUSSIA is considered the least progressive of the leading nations of the earth, but in some things she seems to take the lead. For instance it said that the Russians have recently improved on the sleeping-coaches of the railway and the perambulating schoolmaster of the rural regions. They have provided a school-wagon which is furnished with a room for the teacher, class-room or study, and a library, all suitably supplied with the necessary material. This wagon will be on the line of the Transcaspian Railway all round the year, remaining as long as may be deemed necessary at districts which are not provided with a school.

THE crime of the trusted bank cashier in defaulting with the cash of the bank, is not confined alone to the loss of the money to the bank. The greatest injury inflicted is on the unpaired public confidence. It is not to be estimated in its far-reaching effects, as it may destroy the habits of economy of hundreds of hard-working men and induce them to adopt the theory that it is better to spend their earnings than to let the crooked bank officials waste their coin. For this reason no leniency should be shown to this class of criminals. Every judge should give them the maximum sentence.

BUYING BONDS.

Secretary Windom recently purchased $5,395,000 of registered 4 per cent bonds, paying 128 for the same, being a premium of 28 per cent. These bonds do not mature until the end of 18 years from the 1st of last July, and by paying a premium of 28 per cent—equivalent to seven years interest—the secretary saves the balance of eleven years interest, and extinguishes a large slice of the public debt. That is certainly a most sensible and commendable way of employing the surplus.

The Chronicle speaking of this matter says that Secretary Windom was enabled to get such a response to his offer to buy bonds is due to his radical departure from the policy pursued by his predecessor, Secretary Fairchild. As is well known the national banks are the largest holders of the 4 per cent. bonds. Secretary Fairchild issued a call for the surrender of bonds, but at the same time relieved the national banks from any necessity for selling by feeding them from the surplus in the treasury, making them depository banks and dividing the surplus around among them. Of course they would not sell bonds while they could get as much money as they wanted from the treasury, and so the offerings were very limited. Mr. Windom, on the contrary, while he has not withdrawn the deposits, has declined to increase them, and the result is that some of the banks have to sell their bonds, and more will have to sell in the near future. An effort was made to induce Secretary Windom to increase the [illegible] purchase price [illegible] rate was maintained, and the result was a [illegible] holders of [illegible] purchase [illegible]

[illegible] shows the [illegible] of [illegible] force the price [illegible]. The treasury [illegible] the [illegible] can take their [illegible]

TEMPERANCE NOTES.

Contributed by the W. C. T. U.

San Luis Obispo is a town of 3,500 inhabitants and supports saloons.

Put sharp ballot teeth into your prayers, and then will they cut the life out of the saloon.

Sir Matthew Hale said in 1670 that eighty per cent of the crimes committed in England were due to drunkenness.

Saloon keepers' societies in Chicago to the numbers of nine, have declared themselves ready to stand by high license.

Minneapolis had prohibition on Sabbath Aug. 18. Both doors of the saloon were closed and the press reported "a quiet, orderly and decent Sabbath."

Kansas City boasts that fifty of her prominent saloon keepers have bound themselves to close on Sabbath and urge others of their business to do likewise.

In many places in Germany other English words are comparatively unknown; but English names of liquors are intelligible everywhere and American drinks universally advertised.

A Perfect Laxative should be mild, and prompt and pleasant, with no griping or purgative effects It should also incite the liver to action, aid digestion, and relieve the kidneys. Like nothing else, Paine's Celery Compound is a perfect laxative and cures constipation where all other remedies fail.

"As a gentle laxative Paine's Celery Compound is surely without a peer I think I ought to know, since I have tried remedy after remedy for about six years, and have found nothing that equals it in my case of costiveness." J. B. JENKINS, Teacher, Cloyd's Creek, Tenn.

"Paine's Celery Compound is prompt and pleasant. As a laxative it leaves little to be desired. I have great confidence in its merits."
ALBERT LEANARD, Asso't Editor Jour of Pedagogy, Athens, Ohio.
