OVER THE WIRES.

Commissioner Tanner Resigns at the President's Request.

HE WAS OVER-TALKATIVE.

Late News Received from Stanley—Close to the Whitechapel Murder—Stems on the Atlantic.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—It was reported here this morning that Corporal Tanner had been removed, and that after today he will cease to be commissioner of pensions. The report is generally believed, but has not yet been officially confirmed.

WHAT CAUSED IT.

New York, Sept. 11.—A Washington special says that Tanner bid good bye to all the men in his office last night, and was not at his desk to-day. A special to a morning paper says that President Harrison said to a friend yesterday that Tanner would have to go out of the pension office. He said he was reluctant to part with him on account of the embarrassment it would place him in, considering the indorsement given the commissioner at Milwaukee, but he added it was altogether out of the question to keep him. The president said he had repeatedly talked to Commissioner Tanner and urged him to give his tongue less exercise but that everywhere he went and upon the slightest provocation he "put his foot into it." It is understood that the commissioner's resignation is at the request of the president, and it will be disposed of within a few days. If for ten days or more he simply brings a question of how to drop him without offending the soldiers.

The statement made in the dispatches from this city to the effect that Tanner was to take the place of General Rosecrans as register of the treasury is without foundation. Rosecrans will retire from his position, it is true, but it is not intended to give it to Corporal Tanner.

LATE NEWS FROM STANLEY.

He Has Conquered the Natives and Is Marching to the Coast.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 11.—The Godphige states that Henry Stanley is marching toward Mombasa, after working his way through the hostile country of the Unjoro and the Uganda tribes, and conquering the natives. He has, the paper says, established the authority of the East Africa company over the country from the Upper Nile to the east coast. The paper declares it is doubtful if Emin Pasha, to whose relief the Stanley expedition was originally sent, is accompanying Stanley to the coast.

Payment of Pensions.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—A statement issued by the pension bureau says: In July and August there was advanced to pension agents on requisition, $34,700,000, while the amount disbursed by agents in the same month was $11,486,000. More than half of the disbursements were in payment of cases allowed in the preceding fiscal year, and not paid then because of a deficiency in the appropriation, making it necessary to pay these claims out of the appropriation for the fiscal year. This accounts in every particular for the apparent increase in the payment of pensions during July and August.

A Wife's Confession.

EASTON, Pa., Sept. 11.—Mrs. Margaret A. Dillard, whose husband was murdered Friday, has confessed that William H. Bartholomew, her paramour, fired the fatal shot and that she gave him the signal.

The Whitechapel Murderers.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—The police have discovered no clue to the murder of the woman whose body was found in Whitechapel yesterday morning. The body has not been identified.

Another English Syndicate.

HOKENDAUFA, Pa. Sept. 11.—The stockholders of the Thomas Iron company, yesterday sold the plant to an English syndicate for $3,500,000.

ON LIGHTNING'S WINGS.

Why the Wonders of Telegraphy Are no Longer Marvelous. Americans are so addicted, as one might say, to use the telegraph (we send more than 60,000,000 messages annually by one system) that this marvelous work of man is no longer marvelous in our eyes. So Byron played with old odan's name. Yet every hour it is almost tempted to say, impossible. It takes a stiff faith to believe that maps and pictures may be transmitted over the wires or an autograph, yet the telegraph makes nothing of such a task. And when it tells us the exact spot at which a cable has parted, down to the depths of the Atlantic, it seems to have more sense than a man. When again we learn that several the lovelier portion of mankind are capable of receiving and transmitting to the brain, without confusion, all the various currents of conversation that may be circulating in the vicinity; she, too, having more sense than a mere man.

One singular reflection in regard to the telegraph is that, although it seems to be as far removed, in its essential nature, from a locomotive as from a sewing machine or a reaper, yet the invention of the railroad made imperative the invention in some form, of a system of telegraphy. Without the telegraph it could be simply impracticable to operate any great and complicated railroad system.

CLERKS WHO LOSE CUSTOMERS.

A Falling Off in Custom Due to Mistakes of Salesmen. Some dry-goods clerks possess very little knowledge of human nature; otherwise they would not drift from store to store and city to city. I know three clerks who have held their positions twenty years or more and command large salaries. The secret of their popularity is that they are just as polite to a lady who does not purchase as one who does. If she buys nothing to-day, to-morrow she will frequently a lady goes into a store for an article which she very much needs. She asks for it, examines it, prices it, and finds it cost $4.50, and she has but $4 in her pocket; rather than tell this to the clerk, who has not sense enough to divine it, she says it is too short, too long, or not the right shade. A St. Louis clerk thinks the proper thing to do is to jerk it from under her gaze, shove it in a box and strike the box on the counter, thereby trying to insult a lady and succeeding in losing a customer for his employer. I had set my heart upon buying a certain article of furniture, and thought I had sufficient money; so I went into a store and found just what I wanted, but it cost $5 more than I possessed. I made some trivial excuse, intending to save money and return for it; but the clerk was too obtuse to take the hint, and followed me to the door with his impertinencies. The result is when I have saved the money I shall purchase at another establishment. Men imagine women ask to see articles from idleness, but such is rarely the case.

THE GREAT STORM.

Somewhat Abated—Overdue Steamers Not Yet Sighted. New York, Sept. 11.—The wind has subsided somewhat, but the skies are still black and the rain is falling.

The only transatlantic steamer which arrived up to 9 o'clock this morning was the California. The City of New York and Teutonic were both due yesterday, but have not been sighted. The other steamers due to-day are the Wisconsin, State, Germania and Hammona. The passengers on all these steamers will undoubtedly have interesting tales to tell as they reflect have encountered the worst of the gale.

A Desperate Brigand.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 11.—The inhabitants of the village of Vartenes, in Armenia, after a desperate struggle, repulsed an attack by the brigand Jaso, brother of Mousabey.

Corporal Tanner.

Corporal Tanner, commissioner of pensions, our dispatches this morning state, has stepped down and out of the pension office at the request of the president. Tanner's athletic jaw did the business for him. As a soldier he was a man to be admired, but as a commissioner of pensions he simply talked too much too long and too often, and he has given way for some one more discreet.

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well and popular known as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise—A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys and remove Pimples, Boils, Salt Rheum and other affections caused by impure blood. Will drive Malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all Malarial fevers—For the cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try electric bitters—Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle at Foshy & Mason.

Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle had been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelton, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at Foshy & Mason's Drug Store.

Why Women Fade.

Women lose their beauty because colds undermine their life. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is the only cure for colds.

What are you growling at, sir?

"At the amount you are eating, sir! Have you no regard for the feelings of a dyspeptic, sir?"

"No sir! Go and take a course of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and you won't have the dyspepsia, sir!"

John Arrall, of 628 Golden Gate avenue, writes: "You may also use my name as an additional authority that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, will cure dyspepsia and liver and kidney complaint. It has done it for me."

James Wells, Oakland, Cal., writes: "I suffered acutely from dyspepsia for years, scarcely taking a meal without the distressing pains of indigestion. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla relieved me of it entirely."

JOHN L. SULLIVAN.

He Is Interviewed Concerning His "Candidacy" for Congress.

HE TALKS VERY JAUNTILY.

The Brother Gives His "View" on Questions of Material Imper. Method in His Address.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—John L. Sullivan was asked to-day inasmuch as he declared himself a candidate for congress, if he would state his ideas and policy.

"What will be your policy regarding the present race troubles in the South?"

"When it comes to floggin' men at night, whether they are white or black, I'm agin it, see? I'd like to go down there on a committee; I'd stop all such foul work. I will not go into the ring with a negro, but, by Jupiter, I wouldn't stand by and see another white man lick him without reason! No Sir! It appears to me that the negro is at home in the South."

"What are your views on the Sameson question?"

"Blessed if I can see what right we had breaking into that ring. A quiet little mill was going on between two colored gentlemen on an island in the Pacific. Each chap thought he was a better man than the fellow in the other corner. Well, we took a hand, just as the mob broke up the fight between Heenan and Sayers. What business had we to get over those ropes? None; what was Sameson to us? Why, we did not even get our guano from there. It is no good to say that Germany had not any right there, either. I tell you we were dead wrong."

"The treaty?"

"Oh, that is all right; the senate will attend to it."

"Do you favor the repeal of the later state Commerce Act?"

"It was passed to spoil the show business and to keep everybody, except members of congress from getting railroad passes. It doesn't materially affect my present profession, so I presume I should favor its continuance. It serves as a sort of check upon monopolies, and may be a good thing, though badly managed."

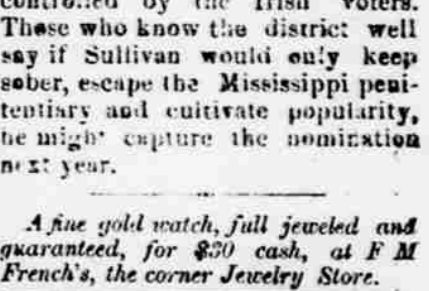

"Will you advocate the maintenance of a free zone on the Mexican frontier?"

"You bet your sweet life. There's the place for gentlemen to meet and settle all questions of superiority. I'd abolish dwelling; it's no good. But a free zone's different. Not a free belt like the concern they call the championship belt. I wouldn't have that. See? The Mexicans take a wise view of pugilism."

Some Boston Democrats who are in Washington say that the announced candidacy for congress of John L. Sullivan may not prove a laughing matter. Sullivan is located in what is known as "Pat Collins' district. It has a reliable democratic majority of 7090 and is controlled by the Irish voters. These who know the district well say if Sullivan would only keep sober, escape the Mississippi penitentiary and cultivate popularity, he might capture the nomination next year.

A fine gold watch, full jeweled and guaranteed, for $20 cash, at F. M. French's, the corner Jewelry Store.

CAUSE OF THE GROWL.

"What are you growling at, sir?"

"At the amount you are eating, sir! Have you no regard for the feelings of a dyspeptic, sir?"

"No sir! Go and take a course of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and you won't have the dyspepsia, sir!"

John Arrall, of 628 Golden Gate avenue, writes: "You may also use my name as an additional authority that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, will cure dyspepsia and liver and kidney complaint. It has done it for me."

OVER THE

CASCADE MOUNTAINS

FROM ALBANY OR LEBANON EASTWARD.

The Willamette Valley and Cascade Mountain Wagon Road is in excellent condition, and by all odds is the best and shortest wagon road to Eastern Oregon. Water and grass is abundant along the entire road. The grades are easy, accommodations superior and the road well bridged making it the best mountain road in the state. For summer jaunts, hunting and fishing the Cascade Mountains in the vicinity of Clear Lake and the Three Sisters offer superior advantages.
