LUMBER! LUMBER

BULKLEY & HEAD LUMBER COMPANY. HUDSON, OR.

Are now prepared to furnish lumber in car-load lots in Albany. Write to us at, DRAIN, DOUGLAS CO. OREGON.

That we are to become a railroad center, is now no longer a doubt.

That we are a manufacturing city we have only to refer to the fact that our street cars were manufactured exclusively at home and by local workmen

A woolen mill which will be in operation by the first of January, 1890, and will give employment to at least one hundred hands, is another evidence that we are to become a manufacturing city.

Here we have a water power second to none in the northwest. We are located in the midst of the Willamette Valley, the garden spot of the world.

The Oregon Pacific Railroad have established their round-house here and will move their machine shops and general office here soon, 72 acres of land adjoining the city having been donated for that purpose. The people of Albany are wide awake and have missed no opportunity within the past two years to enhance their interests. The city's population has doubled within the past two years and business is three times as great

OVER THE WIRES.

Summary of Yesterday's Telegraphic News.

A HEAVY FALL OF SNOW. Payallop Hop Growers Cannot Get To Cents per Pound—Sunset Cox's Will—Eastern Notes.

The publishing house of Belford, Clark & Co., of Chicago, has failed; assets $400,000, and liabilities about the same.

The will of Congressman Cox has been filed in the surrogate court. Mr. Cox leaves the entire estate to his wife.

At Payallop hops are turning out light in quantity, but excellent in quality. Prices are very discouraging. Some growers are willing to take ten cents, but can't get even that.

It is rumored that President Harrison is considering the appointment of A. B. Campbell, of Kansas, as pension commissioner.

Dispatches from Mount Washington state that on the summit the snow is eighteen inches deep, and that this has been the first day of sunshine this month.

Chief Justice Field, accompanied by Deputy Marshal Neagle, arrived in St. Paul over the Northern Pacific yesterday, en route to Washington. They remained in the city only a short time.

A report has been revived that Secretary Noble will be transferred to the supreme court vacancy. It is said that the change would have occurred sooner, but for the controversy over Commissioner Tanner.

Now that the corporal is out of the way, some of Noble's friends assert that he will be appointed to the justiceship, and that ex-Governor Foster, of Ohio, will become secretary of the interior.

A party of thirty young people, while returning in a wagon last Monday at Erie, Pa., from a Sunday picnic, the driver being under the influence of liquor, were driven over a bank, throwing the horses, wagon and party over a precipice 45 feet in height. All were badly injured. Patrick Flaherty and James Neyland were so badly crushed internally that they cannot live. The others received painful contusions and cuts, but no broken bones.

Richard P. Rothwell, of New York, editor of the Engineering and Mining Journal, has been made chief special agent, to take charge of the collection of the statistics of gold and silver for the eleventh census. This inquiry is regarded as by far the most difficult among the mining industries, particularly in the matter showing the production by states. This is on account of the increasing practice of mining ores in one state and smelting them in another.

The inhabitants of Rossville, a village sixteen miles from Topeka, Kansas, has been terrorized by a farmer named Jacob Kuykendall. He was seized with a violent mania, and drove all his family excepting his wife from the house at the point of a revolver. Mrs. Kuykendall attempted to quiet him, but the maniac shot and fatally wounded her. An attempt was made to capture the madman, who barricaded the doors and windows and defied the crowd. Finally an entrance was gained at the rear of the house. A large syringe was filled with chloroform and the contents thrown upon the man. The fumes of the liquid rendered him unconscious.

Never Take a Lady's Arm. New York Sun. "The question is often put to me," said a lady, whose opinion in matters of etiquette is wholly competent, "whether it is ever permissible to take a lady's arm in acting as an escort on a promenade." Unhesitatingly and peremptorily, no. Not after nightfall, nor by day-

Light, nor at any other time. An invalid may lean upon a young woman's arm; a grandfather, if he is infirm, may avail himself of a similar support, and a Broadway policeman seems to have acquired the right to propel his charge in petticoats across the thoroughfare by a grasp upon the arm, but these are the only persons so privileged. For an acquaintance, a friend, or one who aspires to a still nearer place, to take the arm of a young woman when walking with her on a public highway is inexcusable. You may be sure that nothing will so quickly offend. To see a young woman pushed along, a little in front of her escort, by his clutch upon her arm, reverses all preconceived ideas of gallantry. Offer her your arm, young man, every time, and do not commit the offense of taking hers.

WILL POWER. Three Stories Illustrative of Its Force.

Three stories were told over after-dinner cigars the other day, says the Boston Gazette, showing the power of man's will. One was a young officer in the English army who was peculiarly stubborn and irascible. He had been confined to his bed after a severe attack of the heart and was unable to move. His physician asked one of his fellow-officers to warn him that he would never get out of bed again, that he might arrange his affairs before death. When the sick man was told what the doctor had said he arose in bed excitedly and said: "I will never get up again, eh! I will walk to the doctor myself and show him." He jumped to the floor, walked across the room and fell dead.

The other was about a Sheriff out West, who, when arresting a man, was stabbed through the heart. He seized the man by the shoulders; after the blade had struck him, pressed him to the ground, drew his revolver and deliberately thrusting it down the struggling prisoner's throat pulled the trigger at the same instant he died.

The third story was regarding another officer who was hunting down a thief. The man thought he had given his pursuer the slip, but just as he entered one door of a railroad car the officer appeared in the other. The thief instantly fired, the bullet penetrating the pursuer's brain. The officer, however, returned the shot, bringing his man to the ground. He then dragged himself along the aisle of the car, firing as he crawled until his revolver was empty. He was dead when he was picked up a second after he ceased to shoot.

Disarming an Assen Fox. "This was something a paradox," as Hamlet says. Since, however, the people of America and other lands have been enabled to get Hestetter's Stomach Bitters against that insidious foe, malaria, it is no longer a paradox, but an easy possibility. Whatever malaria evolves its misty venom to poison the air, and decaying unwholesome vegetation impregnate the water, there, in the very stronghold of miasma, is the auxiliary potent to disarm the foe and assure efficient protection. Fever and ague, bilious remittent, dumb ague and ague cake, no matter how tenaciously they have fastened their clutch on the system, are first forced to relax their grasp and eventually to abandon it altogether. But it is preventive force that should chiefly recommend the Bitters to persons dwelling in malarial-cursed localities, for it is a certain buckler of defense against which the enemy's power eludes. Cures, likewise, dyspepsia, rheumatism, kidney and bilious ailments.

California Cat-B-Care. The only guaranteed cure for catarrh cold in the head, hay fever, rose cold, catarrhal deafness and sore eyes. SENSATION AT THE PEN. Another Convict Cuts His Fingers Off to Avoid Work—Tried for Robbery—Incorporations, Etc.

Special to the Herald. SALEM, Sept. 24.—John Snell, a colored convict from Multnomah county, this morning performed self-amputation of the third and middle finger of his left hand. He did it to avoid work. He placed his fingers on a board, and with one stroke of a hatchet in his right hand severed the members. He is in for assault with a dangerous weapon, convicted from Portland, for five years, one of which he has served. He is a stout, heavily-fleshed man, and the only reason he did it was to avoid work.

Geo. Barker, charged with having robbed Samuel Stott, the Portland lawyer, was given preliminary examination to-day and bound over to appear before the grand jury. He gave no bail and was committed. Stott was present and identified him beyond a doubt.

J. B. Gross, of Portland, Or., was brought to the asylum to-day. He is about 32 years of age. Also Margaret Black, aged 50 years, was brought from the same place.

ALBANY! WALLACE & CUSICK,

Property has doubled and tripled in value and is still steadily advancing. Great fortunes have been made in Minneapolis, Denver, Omaha, Duluth, Tacoma, Seattle, Spokane Falls and many other cities in a very short time by shrewd speculators, and neither of the above named cities had a better prospect than Albany, Linn County, Oregon, has to-day.

During the past few months much improvement has been going on. Many new enterprises and business houses have been added to the city, among them the Real Estate firm of

WALLACE & CUSICK,

Who are located in the Blumberg Block, and make a specialty of everything pertaining to their line. Farmers having grain, stock of fruit farms to sell will do well to list them with us. Strangers desiring to invest in city property will find it to their advantage to see us before buying. Correspondence solicited and cheerfully answered.
