A BROWNSVILLE RIOT

Serious Disturbance in the Camp of the "Holiness" Revivalists

A DISPATCH TO THE SHERIFF.

A Possibly Exaggerated Report, and an Appeal to the Sheriff for Protection Much Excitement.

For several weeks trouble has been brewing at Brownsville over the obnoxious methods of a crowd of so-called "holiness" revivalists, who have been holding a camp-meeting there. About two weeks ago W. T. Ellis, the leader of the "holiness" crowd was so savage in his denunciation of the good people of Brownsville, and especially some of the churches, that a fight occurred and Rev. Ellis was arrested for disturbing the peace.

It seems that matters have been growing worse, as the following dispatch was received in this city yesterday by Sheriff Smallmon:

BROWNSVILLE, Sept. 27, 1889. (via Halsey.) To the Sheriff of Linn Co.:—We, the undersigned, citizens of Brownsville and vicinity, do testify that last night, September 26, 1889, a masked, drunken, howling mob went through the streets of Brownsville about one o'clock firing of revolvers and terrifying men, women and children all over town. They went to the campmeeting ground at the foot of Cross street and pounded Solon Taylor over the head and Mr. Riggs having clubs struck Frank Taylor with a board, tore down the tabernacle, smashed lamps tore down the gate and made general destruction. The tent was torn down and now lies in ruins. Threatening to kill, bring revolvers and threatening to bring peaceable law-abiding citizens. The marshal of the town could or would not be found. He has no bonds, and we therefore demand protection of the sheriff of this county immediate and sure. Said mob also threatening to return in 24 hours.

SOLON Z. TAYLOR, MARY B. TAYLOR, GEO. FREY, ANNA FREY, W. T. ELLIS, F. M. TAYLOR. And many others.

The statements in the dispatch are sworn to before a justice of the peace, but come from the "holiness" people, and give of course their version of the trouble. It is believed here that the reports may be somewhat exaggerated.

The sheriff left last evening for Brownsville armed with warrants for the participants in the riot, with instructions to use his own judgment as to making arrests after ascertaining the actual facts.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

The following sales were recorded yesterday: John Geisendorfer to Frederick Hofer, 157 1/2 acres of the donation land claim of Elias Hale $1800. A. Hackleman to E. F. Trux, lot 8, block 8, Hackleman's 3d addition to Albany $200. W. S. McFarland to Anna E. Hofer, northeast quarter of section 16, township 9 south range 4 east $50. State of Oregon to W. S. McFarland, northeast quarter of section 16, township 9 south, range 4 east $200.

Oregon Apples.

Good apples command fancy prices this year. Mr. F. W. Holmes, of Butte City, Montana, who has been in the city for several days, says that he has traveled up and down the state from Portland to Ashland for the purpose of buying apples for shipment, but could find very few in the country. He bought about 1500 boxes in the vicinity of Gervais, for which he paid 90 cents per bushel delivered on board the cars. Mr. Holmes has had considerable experience in the fruit business, and he thinks that in many localities in Oregon orchardists, in addition to spraying their trees to destroy the fruit pests, will have to discard their old orchards and plant new trees.

A Balloon Ascension.

Prof. Redmond, the aeronaut who has been giving successful balloon ascensions in Portland, is in the city, and is making arrangements to go up in his big balloon here next Saturday afternoon, and then give his famous parachute jump from his balloon at a height of 4000 feet. He agrees to give the exhibition if a purse of $150 is raised. It would be a big attraction and would result in a large attendance. Many people have signified their willingness to contribute to secure the exhibition.

Death of Edward Keeney.

Edward E. Keeney, brother of Geo. H. Keeney of this city, died yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Carter in this city after an extended illness from pulmonary disease, at the age of 21. The deceased was a young man of promise. He was taken ill with pneumonia while attending school last winter, from the effect of which he never recovered. The funeral will occur from the residence of his father, Elias Keeney, at the M. E. church in Brownsville at 11 o'clock a. m. on Sunday.

IMPROVING THE WILLAMETTE.

What the Snagboat Has Accomplished—What Ateeg the River.

Capt. James L. Smith, in charge of the government snagboat Cyclops, has returned with his crew to Portland. Captain Smith has been on the upper river for some nine months, and has it cleared of all obstructions from Harrisburg down better than it ever was before. The river has been a foot lower than ever known before, which has been very favorable for snag pulling. Capt. Smith says he has removed about a thousand; he has built four wing-dams and dredged a channel through about a dozen bars, and the river is in a No. 1 order.

There is at least one-fourth more wheat stored along the river than ever before. At Buena Vista, where there is usually 60,000 bushels, there is now over 100,000. At Independence the warehouses are full, and sheds are being filled. At Fairfield everything is full of wheat, and there are 900 tons of straw on the wharf for the paper company.

As soon as the water in the Willamette reaches a boating stage steamboating will be lively.

The Umatilla Reservation.

The Pendleton East Oregonian, of the 25th, has this to say of the active operations now going on in the vicinity of the reservation: "Two carloads of merchandise and camping paraphernalia for the troops soon to pitch their tents and light their camp fires on the Umatilla reservation, will be shipped to Cayuse station to-morrow. The camping point selected. A large number of troops from points in Washington, are encamped near Weston to-day, and will arrive to-morrow at the camp ground. A body of cavalry will camp at Pendleton to-night. Troops from Vancouver and Portland are probably not far distant. In short Pendleton is surrounded by 1000 soldiers in battle array, marching in this direction with all due caution to prevent an attack from ambushed foes. By to-morrow evening the majority of Uncle Sam's 'sojler boys' will be concentrated at Cayuse station. Sunday there will doubtless be an excursion of Pendletonians to the camp. As these troops are supposed to be on the 'war path,' their wives and children have been left under the protection of the forts, hence there will be no ladies at camp. It is said that the Cayuse Indians will get out in war paint during the stay of the troops on the reservation, and endeavor to outdo Uncle Sam's boys in graceful and entertaining maneuvers."

The New School Law.

Many people perhaps are not yet familiar with the precise terms of compulsory school law passed by the state legislature during last session. This law makes it obligatory on parents and guardians to send their children who are between the ages of 8 and 14 to school for at least 12 weeks in each year, and eight of the must be consecutive. A violation of this law by the parents or guardians is a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of not less than $5 or more than $25 for the first offense; and not less than $25 nor more than $50 for the second and each subsequent offense. In case the bodily or mental condition of the child or children is such as to prevent their attendance, then those who have the care of such children are not liable to the provisions of the law.

Knights of Pythias.

The ninth annual convention of the grand lodge of the grand jurisdiction of Oregon, Knights of Pythias, will be held in Salem beginning on the 8th of October. The visiting delegations will be met upon their arrival and escorted to Castle hall. There will be a grand street parade and appropriate services at the opera house. The committee of reception is composed of G. P. A. A. Cleveland; C. C. Aug. Danielson; P. C., Edward Hallock; V. C., Christopher Evenson; S. K., E. C. Hughes. Alexander Campbell is grand marshal. The occasion will be a gala day, and one long to be remembered by members of the order.

Lumber from the Santiam.

Hundreds of thousands of feet of lumber is consumed in Salem every week now, and nearly all of it comes from the Santiam country, via the Oregon Pacific. In fact so many car loads come here that on the side track at the passenger depot several car loads are standing constantly, waiting to be unloaded there or run down to the freight depot to be unloaded. Salem is using enough lumber to keep a good mill or two going right here, but now her mill is idle, the Capital Lumber Co. having been unable to secure logs.—Statesman.

Marriage Extraordinary.

Mr. James Tyler and Miss Eleanor Newman were united in marriage at the store of Phil Cohen, in this city, yesterday, Geo. Humphrey, Esq., officiating. The groom was a vigorous man of 60 years, and the bride a blooming maiden of 41. It was the groom's fourth matrimonial venture and he decided to change the programme this time and be married in the house of Israel.

To Boom Medford and Jacksonville.

A San Francisco company has made a proposition to the towns of Medford and Jacksonville to construct a motor railway line between the two towns and provide each with electric lights, for a bonus of $20,000. The proposition has been accepted and the work is to be done by March 1, 1890.

STATE DISPATCHES.

Eastern Prisoners Imitating the Hard-Chopper Convicts at Salem.

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD. SALEM, Sept. 27.—Superintendent Downing, of the Oregon penitentiary, is in receipt of advice from a member of the prison board of West Virginia, stating that lazy convicts in that institution had cut off their hands to avoid work. They had read of the three convicts in the Oregon penitentiary who had performed similar amputations, and showed their admiration by imitating. The self-amputators are put at hard labor as soon as they recover.

Divers from Portland are examining the supply pipe of the water works, and in a few days the city's supply will come through the new filter from the middle of the river.

Street Railway Cables.

Spokane Falls has a street cable railway the rope of which is pulled by water power. There is plenty of water to spare, for the cable, which is 33,500 feet long, is pulled through the channels at the rate of nine and a half miles an hour. This is pretty rapid traveling for street cars. The fastest time made in other cities is about six miles an hour. The Spokane line is said to be the only street car system in the world operated by water power. This same thing could be done in Albany, the water power being derived from Elkins Falls in the southern suburbs of the city.

Barn Burned.

On Monday afternoon the barn on Col. Fred Folsom's place near Junction in Lane county caught fire from a straw pile that was on fire, and burned. The building was worth about $400. No insurance. There was some hay and other feed in the barn which makes the loss about $500.

Association Meeting.

The fall meeting of the Willamette Association of Congregational churches will meet at Oregon City on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 15th and 16th. A good programme is in preparation and an interesting session may be expected. The attendance will also be larger than usual and some interesting work will be done.

"Please, auntie, she gives us Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and it's awful good!" T. S. Milton, of 511 Post street, San Francisco, writes: "I had been ailing for weeks with a disorder of the liver and kidneys. Finally my wife, becoming frigidly incredulous, bought The California Remedy—Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It cured me right up. In fact I feel so much better that I gave it to my children. It's the best, satisfactory remedy."
