THE ELECTIONS.

Heavy Republican Gains All Over Washington.

RETURNS SLOWLY COMING IN.

The Republicans Victorious in Montana and Dakota—Pierce to Be the Capital of Dakota.

The Herald's Special Dispatches.

OLYMPIA, Oct. 2.—The returns are coming in very slowly and the majorities of the republicans elected cannot yet be given. The election of the republican congressman, state and legislative ticket has caused all attention to be centered in the capital location. Olympia continues to lead, but as Ellensburg closely follows and North Yakima has received a very heavy vote it is probable that none of these cities will receive a majority. Nothing definite can be said regarding the result of yesterday's election further than has already been telegraphed.

LATER REPORTS.

SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—Complete returns from ten precincts give Wilson 479 and Griffiths 444; same precincts in 1888 gave Allen 387 and Voorhes 402, net republican gain of 41. In the city 951 votes are counted, giving Wilson 538 and Griffiths 413; these same precincts in 1888 gave Allen 600 majority, when 3660 votes were cast. This will probably be materially reduced, but the republicans are more than ever confident of carrying the county.

FROM VANCOUVER.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—Returns from East and West Vancouver, Brush Prairie and Fourth Plain precinct: give the republican state ticket about 400 majority and the legislative about 450. N.H. Bloomfield leaves these precincts with 200 majority. The constitution is carried by 520. Woman's suffrage and prohibition are beaten by 510 and 550 respectively. Seven hundred and eighty votes were cast for North Yakima as state capital.

IN TACOMA.

TACOMA, Oct. 2.—The count so far in this city puts every republican on the state and county tickets ahead. If the rest of the counties are in the same ratio, not a single democrat will get a majority.

MONTANA GOES REPUBLICAN.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 2.—The Evening Wisconsin received the following at noon: "Helena, Mont., Oct. 2.—Thomas S. Garter, republican, elected to congress. The republicans have both branches of the legislature. Signed A. J. Seligman, chairman republican state central committee."

ALBANY FALLS INTO LINE.

ALBANY, Oct. 2.—The republican state central committee estimates this evening that the republican state ticket will be elected by 20,000 majority; that prohibition is carried by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority; that Pierce has 25,000 votes for temporary capital, with Huron a good second. Pierce will undoubtedly be the temporary capital.

An Editor's Over-Cautious.

Dolgeville, N. Y. Banner

Many people make mistakes and less a lot by being too suspicious, too cautious. We remember the last time we visited New York city—when which place nobody else in Dolgeville is probably so familiar. A man came up to us, as we stood on our hotel steps after taking a noontime snack at Delmonico's, and says he to us: "The editor of the Backwoodman's Banner, I presume?" We had the old bunco game down fine, and looking the man squarely in the eyes, we replied: "You presume too much, sir. We are not the editor." (This was a pun, but justifiable under the circumstances.) "I beg your pardon," he said, touching his hat politely; "I merely wished to tender you a ticket to the dinner of the Press Club this evening." He felt hurt and so did we. He had been received with unnecessary suspicion, and we had missed a good dinner. We merely mention this incident as a reminder to those who are always saying "Go slow!" that is not always right to go too slowly. We must risk something if we would be truly great.

Let us give the readers of the Herald a little timely advice. Hot weather is coming and with it cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. The only safe way to combat these diseases, is to keep some reliable remedy at hand, and all who have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will admit that it is the most prompt, reliable and successful medicine known for these complaints. It costs but 25 or 50 cents, and may be the means of saving you or your family much suffering if not life itself, before the summer is over. For sale by Foshay & Mason.

Take Notice.

All persons indebted to the late firm of Bardue & Robertson will please call at the store and settle their accounts without delay and greatly oblige, J. M. Bardue, successor to Bardue & Robertson.

MET AFTER MANY YEARS.

A Brave Drummer Boy and the Surgeon Who Saved Him.

St. Paul, Minn., (Special Press)

A very romantic meeting between two old soldiers took place in Minneapolis a few days ago during the National Convention of Foresters. B. B. Levy of New York, who was attending the convention, had been specially designated as a hero by an act of Congress. When the war broke out he enlisted in the First New York Volunteer as a drummer, being only 16 years of age. His regiment was hard pressed on the retreat from Richmond, under McClellan, and the boy dropped his drum, took a gun from the hands of a dead comrade and charged in the front rank. The color bearers were shot down and the Stars and Stripes were for a moment trampled under foot and in imminent danger of capture. But only for a moment, for Young Levy rushed back and, fighting desperately, seized the colors and bore them triumphantly back to his retreating regiment.

An eye witness to this heroic act was General Phil Kearney, and he at once promoted Levy from drummer to color sergeant. When the time of his regiment was out he re-enlisted in the Fortieth New York. At the battle of the Wilderness Levy was seriously wounded by a compound fracture of the thigh, and was left on the field for dead. A brave surgeon who stayed by his fellow-comrades at the risk of his life, tended Levy's wounds. Before he could be removed from the field Levy was captured by Colonel White's guerrillas, but after several weeks was recaptured by Northern troops. His acts of gallantry were reported to Congress, and by special act he was decorated with a cross in recognition of his services and bravery in saving the colors at Richmond. While in Minneapolis he accidentally overheard the name of Dr. O. J. Evans, and, wondering if it could be the same gallant surgeon who had saved his life on the battlefield, called at his address. Sure enough it was the same, and for the first time in twenty-five years the two comrades met and clasped hands with a feeling only old soldiers can understand.
