SPECIAL. 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city.

Geo. W. Smith.

Good apples are worth more this year per bushel than wheat. While wheat stands at 62 1/2 cents, prime apples are worth from 75 cents to $1 per bushel. This in the land of big red apples is something not experienced for many years.

A Splendid Book. One of the best and handsomest books of the season, entitled Crown Jewels, being selections of the best jewels of poetry from all of the famous writers, is now being canvassed for by Mr. Joseph Tait in this city. The book is indeed made of jewels, as its name implies and aside from its intrinsic worth in the value of its contents, it is filled with beautiful steel engravings, each of which is a work of art of rare merit. Every family should have this book in their collection, and should not fail to secure it now.

A Hundred Years Old. The 100th birthday of Mr. Syron, of near Ballston, was celebrated in an appropriate manner on the 25th of September, says the Salem Statesman. He is the father of ten children and has seventy-six grand and great grandchildren. He has been in Oregon since 1852, and does not have as poor health as would be expected of a man of his age. He was a militia man in the war of 1812, and has served an apprenticeship at sea. His wife died seventeen years ago at the age of 69.

Hillsboro Excited. It is said that the town of Hillsboro is excited over the anticipated building of the Astoria railroad to that city. The most enthusiastic declare that November 1st will find the active work of throwing dirt on the line in progress. The work of construction is already being pushed from the Astoria end of the line, and when they begin at Hillsboro working toward the Astoria crew it will not take long to close up the gap.

Good Horse Sale. The large dark horse used on one of the street cars while unhitched at the depot yesterday afternoon became frightened and ran down the Lyon street track with the hitching gear rattling about his heels.

The horse seemed to think a line should run on Second street, for he turned the corner gracefully and ran down Second to Schmeer's stables where he was caught. His legs were badly cut from contact with the iron bar, and he will be off of duty for a day or two.

The Woolen Mills. Mr. James F. Haswell, the superintendent of the new woolen mills, has arrived in this city preparatory to the starting of the mills this fall. Mr. Haswell is a man of experience in the woolen mill business.

When he left the East it was on his wedding trip as well as to locate here as superintendent of the mills. A sufficient amount of wool has been purchased to run the mills until the next clip. This will begin to arrive here to-day. The building is nearly completed, and the work of placing the machinery will be commenced in a few days. The mills will commence running on or before January 1st.

In His Old Quarters. W. R. Graham has opened a merchant tailoring establishment in his old quarters on Broadalbin street. THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

A Revised Course of Study Adopted—The Visit of the Governor and Board.

Special to the HERALD. SALM, Oct. 3.—Governor Penroyer, Secretary McBride and Superintendent McElroy returned yesterday from Corvallis where they attended a meeting of the board of the State Agricultural college. A revised course of study was adopted, in which special attention is to be given to practical scientific agriculture and the mechanical arts.

The board examined the new buildings and found the brick building of the department of mechanical engineering and the building to be used as a boarding hall and dormitory nearly completed. There is an encouraging increase in the number of students, every part of the state being represented, and the outlook for a prosperous and successful agricultural college under the state management is exceedingly favorable.

The advanced course of study embraces five branches, agricultural, scientific, household economy, ladies literary and mechanical arts.

The Umattilla Indians. The Pendleton East Oregonian says: Agent Moorehouse had in his possession last evening a goodly "sack," containing about $4000 with which to pay the quarterly salaries of the agency employes. Uncle Sam spends about $50,000 annually on the Umattilla Indians—gives them land; buys their plows, seeders, threshers; hires an agent, carpenter, doctor, blacksmith, etc., for their benefit; supports a school for the education of their young, and does everything in his power to make them comfortable. And yet it is said that sometimes the heart of the red man yearneth for better things, and he says unto himself in choice Cayuse: "The paleface doth rise up in his might and oppress me, and I cannot redress my grievances, for the tomahawk is buried deep, and the white man is as numerous as the leaves on the trees."

Woodie's Riverside Addition. This addition recently platted embraces 115 lots 55x110 feet adjoining Hackleman's 4th addition on the east. It is a beautiful tract, desirably located and is high and dry, already cleared and planted out in choice fruit trees. These lots will sell rapidly, and parties desiring a choice location should call at once upon Wallace & Cusick, agents for the property. Lots will be sold on easy payments.

Three Boys Missing. Three boys, aged 15, 14 and 12 years, respectively, left their homes near homes near Oswego on Friday evening, September 27, and have not since been heard from. They had three revolvers, three blankets and a lantern with them. The youngest wore a straw hat and was barefooted. Anyone knowing anything about these boys will confer a favor by communicating with Mrs. E. J. Thompson, Oswego, Or.

Rebekah Social. The ladies of the Rebekah degree of the I. O. O. F. will give a social at the Odd Fellows' hall this evening. It will be given for the benefit of the Rebekah lodge, and all Odd Fellows, their wives and friends are invited to attend. Supper will be served in the hall and an enjoyable evening is promised.

A Fine Lot of Quinces at C. E. Brownell's. Farmers! I must have your butter and eggs. C. E. Brownell. Many new novelties and delicacies have lately been added to my stock of groceries. C. E. Brownell.

Ladies prefer to trade at C. E. Brownell's because everything is neat and clean and in apple pie order. I propose to have your trade, if honest goods, low prices and good treatment will secure it. C. E. Brownell.

T. S. Milton, of 611 Post street, San Francisco, writes: "I had been ailing for weeks with a disorder of the liver and kidneys. Finally my wife, becoming frightened, procured a bottle of 'The California Remedy'—Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It cured me right up. In fact I got so much for the $1 I paid for it that I can't say enough for the satisfaction it gave me."

COAST NOTES.

The plans for irrigating Yakima valley have all been completed, and the canals and ditches will be dug without delay.

Dayton will have a new hotel at a cost of $33,000. It will be built by a joint stock home company, of which J. E. Edmiston is president.

A monstrous grizzly has been killing cattle on the west side of Swan lake, in Klamath county, and a bounty of $50 is offered by the stockmen for every bear killed on that ridge.

The stock inspector of Lake county reports 250,000 sheep in the county, while the assessor returns but 130,000. Lakeview's school assessment shows that but two sheep men pay taxes in that precinct.

The Oregon City Enterprise says that last week the neighborhood of Gresham was engaged in fighting forest fires, an aged man by the name of Rugg being one of the party. The smoke was very dense and prevented him from seeing a falling tree which struck and crushed him.

Quite a number of young ladies in this county have taken ranches, and some are becoming quite expert farmers. One energetic young lady, who recently made final proof on 100 acres on Bear creek, informs us that this season she harvested eight tons of hay, which she cut with a pair of scissors. That's the kind of girls we have in Crook county.—Ochoco Review.

The sheriffs of the different eastern Oregon counties are planning a call for a sheriffs' convention, the object of which is to organize and perfect plans to co-operate with one another for the detection and capture of horse thieves and other criminals. A similar organization exists in Iowa and is said to be far more effective than the present plan by which there is little co-operation among the sheriffs.

Agent Morehouse, of the Umattilla reservation, who for some time has been urging upon the interior department the expediency of building another Indian school upon the reservation, has received an official letter stating that a new school will be built as requested, and that 640 acres of land will be set apart for an industrial farm. The new school will be located about a mile and a half above the agency. The present building and school farm will be condemned and sold.

Nothing Like Enterprise. Yes, ladies and gentlemen, said the orator at a political speaking, there is nothing like enterprise and industry. Look at the man who came here in 1841, when there was only one house and started to peddling peanuts and oranges. Where is he to-day? Echo answers: "In the poor house." If he could have bought his groceries at the Willamette Packing Co.'s he could be owner of a mansion, as their motto is quick sales and small profits.

A CHALLENGE. I hereby challenge E. G. Cannon, of Corvallis, to run a foot race, distance one hundred yards, for any amount from $500 to $1000 a side. Said race to be run at the Linn county fair grounds on or before four weeks from this date. Dated Albany Oct. 1, 1889. W. O. TRINE.
