On account of the delay of goods E. & C. Howard's opening will be postponed until Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 7 and 8.

Brownsville's new school house was dedicated Saturday. Supt. E. B. McElroy was present and delivered an address.

Every one should see the fine costumes of the Mable Santly Burlesque Co. The greatest display of tights in the world.

Yesterday was the Jewish Day of Atonement and in consequence thereof all of their business houses in this city were closed.

Messrs. Crawford & Paxton have completed some fine views taken on the street on the afternoon of Prof. Remond's balloon ascension.

A new line of neckties, a fine line of new suitings and a lot of the celebrated "Bulldog" jeans pants have just been opened at L. E. Blain's.

The south bound Southern Pacific train last evening consisted of two engines and 14 coaches, all of the latter being well filled with passengers.

An unusual amount of capital from strangers has been deposited in the banks of this city recently, which goes to show that investors have their eye on Albany.

The wheat market in this city has an upward tendency at present, the price having raised three cents per bushel during the past two days. The price now is 63 1/2 cents.

The Salem Statesman says: Nearly every man coming to the penitentiary or asylum of late has been a morphine "fiend." This degrading habit seems to be growing in Oregon.

It is said that the Southern Pacific Company is to dispense with baggage masters and give its baggage business into the hands of Wells, Fargo & Co., who, while being responsible for loss, will not receive dilapidated baggage.

The trustees of the Willamette University, at their recent meeting decided to organize a theological department. A faculty was elected as follows: Dean, Rev. M. C. Wire; Rev. W. Rollins, Hebrew; Rev. N. Doane, theology; Rev. A. C. Fairchild, historical geography.

PERSONAL MENTION.

In His Old Quarters. W. R. Graham has opened a merchant tailoring establishment in his old quarters on Broadalbin street. He has received one of the finest lines of genuine imported suitings and pants patterns ever brought to this city. Pants will be made from $6.00 upwards, and suits for $25 and upwards. He has a very large line of patterns, and will warrant all work to be first-class. Those desiring a fine suit made to order at almost the price of ready made clothing should give him a call.

Wheat is worth 63 1/2 cents.

SPARE THE FORESTS.

A Little Vigorous Legislation Needed to Prevent Forest Fires.

Mr. H. B. Turner, one of the railroad party with Col. T. E. Hogg, in a speech before the citizens meeting in this city a few days ago, referred to the question of the preservation of the forests of Oregon as a most important matter, and he was right.

It is with feelings of sorrow that many of the readers of the HERALD will read this morning of the death of John P. Hall, which occurred at Denver, Colorado, yesterday, Oct. 5.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

Real estate transfers in this city were light yesterday, the following being the number recorded: Anna M. Houck to Frank T. Burmaster, lots 2 and 19 in block 2, Houck's addition to Albany, $250.

THE OREGON PACIFIC.

The Corvallis Gazette says that in the course of Col. Hogg's remarks in that place recently allusion was made to the report, that has been so often circulated in regard to the present company disposing of the road, by Mr. Hogg saying that "could such a thing occur, there were six other large railroad companies ready and willing to take it out of their hands but," he added, "we are not going to sell." He hinted, too, that when the Oregon Pacific does make connection with the point it is headed for eastward, there might be more than one through line.

BROWNSVILLE NOTES.

Brownsville, Oct. 2. A revival meeting is being held at the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

Several newcomers have moved into town, and houses are in good demand.

Frank Stanard and Miss Dilla Stanard have commenced teaching the public school at Coburg.

N. B. Standish and party have just returned from a land hunting trip in the Coast mountains.

Last Sunday Mr. Fred Webber and Miss Schick were married. The happy couple have hosts of friends.

The tent used for holding meetings in is still down, and will probably not be put up again inside the city limits.

Professor Garland and wife opened school in the old school house yesterday, as the furniture for the new building has not yet arrived.

The family of Mr. Ellis, consisting of a wife and son, have come here from California, and they have rented a house and intend to reside here.

STATE DISPATCHES.

Edith Holmes, of Astoria, is Brought to the Penitentiary.

Special to the HERALD. SALEM, Oct. 5.—A young female convict, Edith Holmes, and Geo. Smith, both of Astoria, convicted of larceny from the person, were left at the penitentiary by sheriff H. A. Smith. The woman's sentence is one year and the man's three. This is the only woman in Oregon penitentiary, and is the sixth one to have ever been incarcerated there.

Howard and Curtis, the self-angulators, are confined in dark dungeons, with feet weighted down by 14-pound irons. They each told the reporter they were truly sorry for their deeds, but since their process took the form of a mania such punishment had to be inflicted as would make them awfully examples.

Death of John P. Hall.

It is with feelings of sorrow that many of the readers of the HERALD will read this morning of the death of John P. Hall, which occurred at Denver, Colorado, yesterday, Oct. 5.

John P. Hall, as he was familiarly called, has been a resident of Albany for several years past, and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of all with whom he was associated. He has for the past few years been in the employ of L. E. Blain, but failing health compelled him to retire from business, and it was with the hope of recovering from this indisposition that he a short time ago went to Colorado Springs.

On that who mournest on thy way, With longings for the close of day, He walks with thee, that angel kind, And gently whispers, "be resigned. Bear up, bear on, the end shall tell. The dear Lord ordereth all things well."

Why Women Fade.

Women lose their beauty because colds undermine their life. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for consumption is a sure cure for colds.

Woods' Riverside Addition. This addition recently platted embraces 115 lots 55x110 feet adjoining Hackleman's 4th addition on the east. It is a beautiful tract, desirably located and is high and dry, already cleared and planted out in choice fruit trees.

Kid Gloves! Kid Gloves! I have just received a full line of kid gloves brand "Our Own." This is a genuine kid glove. I buy direct from importers in New York and consider them the best value of any glove I ever sold for this price. Five buttons, three rows of stitching, $1.50 per pair. S. E. Young.

Fountain pens at Will & Stark's. A fine lot of quinces at C. E. Brownell's.

Farmers! I must have your cutter and eggs. C. E. Brownell. Cranberries, cranbuns, oranges and dried beef at C. E. Brownell's.

Many new novelties and delicacies have lately been added to my stock of groceries. C. E. Brownell.

Ladies prefer to trade at C. E. Brownell's because everything is neat and clean and in apple pie order.

AUNTIE PERPLEXED.

"For heaven's sake what does your mother do to you children that makes you so hungry?"

"Please, auntie, she gives us Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and its awful good!"

T. S. Milton, of 511 Post street, San Francisco, writes: "I had been ailing for weeks with a disorder of the liver and kidneys. Finally my wife, becoming frightened, procured a lot of The California Remedy—Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It cured me right up. In fact did so much for me that I gave it to my children, with the most satisfactory results."

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, The messenger of death has passed through our midst and taken from our fraternity our esteemed and worthy Bro. A. S. Looney, but while we mourn the loss of our esteemed brother, who was cut down in the strength of his manhood, we too are admonished to be ready when the messenger shall call for us, therefore be it

Resolved, That our heartfelt sympathies be extended to the bereaved mother and children of our departed brother, and that we commend them to him who alone can comfort in the most trying hour.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this grange and the charter be draped in mourning and the members wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and a copy sent to the bereaved family, also for a copy to be sent to the Albany papers, and the California Patron for publication.

HENRY FREERKSON, P. A. COCHRAN, THOS. MCGHEE, Committee.

WHEREAS, In view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and sister, Mrs. Irene Smith, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to her. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we tenderly condole with the family of our deceased sister in their hour of trial and affliction heartily commend them to the keeping of him who looks with a pitiful eye upon the widowed and the motherless.

Resolved, That these resolutions be transmitted to the family of the deceased as a token of our respect, and spread upon the minutes of the grange, also that a copy be sent to each of the Albany papers and the California Patron for publication.

On that who mournest on thy way, With longings for the close of day, He walks with thee, that angel kind, And gently whispers, "be resigned. Bear up, bear on, the end shall tell. The dear Lord ordereth all things well."

MRS. E. P. COCHRAN, MRS. N. J. ANDERSON, MRS. M. J. STOTT, Committee.
