

Morning Daily Herald

SPECIAL 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city.

Geo. W. Smith.

NOTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

A fine lot of quinces at C. E. Brown's. Pure cider vinegar at F. L. Kenton's. Pure apple cider at F. H. Pfeiffer's.

New small mixed pickles at F. L. Kenton's. Sweet potatoes this morning at F. L. Kenton's.

Plenty of choice fresh butter at C. E. Brownell's. The largest stock of watches in the city at Will & Stark's.

The building of a new flouring mill is talked of at Corvallis. For school books, blanks, tablets, etc., go to the City Drug Store.

Prescriptions and recipes carefully compounded at the City Drug Store. Stop at Will & Stark's and examine their large and new line of watches.

Dinner served with chicken on Sunday at Mrs. Dieck's restaurant 25 cents. Go to J. M. Bardeen's for bargains in groceries, good butter and chickens.

Fresh sweet potatoes, celery, grapes, etc. this morning at Parker Bros. The Corvallis Rod and Gun Club propose to hold a sportsmen tournament in the near future.

Simply immense, Silver Quarter plug cut. A splendid smoke. Progressive merchants keep it. Cheaper than ready made. Pantaloons to order for $5 at Zaches Bros. opposite the postoffice.

Five choice varieties of fresh roast coffee at F. L. Kenton's. Ground to order without extra charge. Good farm for rent and farming outfit for sale cheap; a bargain. Inquire of Burkhardt & Malin, real estate agents.

We are in the field and in the lead for competition. Suits to order for $20 at Zaches Bros. opposite the postoffice. John Briggs, U. S. signal service observer at this city, states that 4 1/2 inches of rain fell during the storm of the past week.

Mr. F. A. Carl, for ten years managing editor of the St. Paul Pioneer-Press, has accepted that position on the Oregonian. Last evening's train from Yaquina brought a large supply of sweet potatoes, celery, grapes, etc., for F. L. Kenton near the postoffice.

A new line of neckties, a fine line of new suitings and a lot of the celebrated "Bulldog" jeans pants have just been opened at J. E. Blain's. Policeman William Miller has returned from a trip to the Sound. He has a cranberry ranch there which promises to prove a valuable investment.

The Corvallis Gazette says it is rumored that Col. T. E. Hogg has just purchased 400 acres of land lying south of Grant's place on south beach near Yaquina bay. The engine and cars which were broken to pieces in the recent wreck near Halsey were brought to this city yesterday and were taken down to Portland to be rebuilt.

Burkhardt & Malin, real estate agents, sold yesterday to Mr. A. J. Fox lots No. 9, 10, 11 and 12 in block No. 4 in Pipe's South Albany addition. The consideration was $600. The O. R. & N. boat the Modoc passed down the river at 1 o'clock yesterday, taking 75 tons of grain and 30 tons of hay from this city. The hay goes to Seattle and the grain to Portland.

Hon. J. D. Whitmore, of Medford, was in the city yesterday on his return from Portland, where he has been attending the meeting of the state board of horticulture, of which he is a member. Owing to the scarcity of apples good cider is a rare commodity this year. F. H. Pfeiffer has a fine lot of prime cider at 40 cents per gallon. For mince pies and household use it just the article wanted.

If you wish a supply of good things for Sunday call on F. L. Kenton. He has cranberries, cabbage, celery, grapes, sweet potatoes, onions, and a full stock of family groceries, all of which are sold cheap for cash. R. M. Wooden of Jewell, informs the Astoria Pioneer that the bodies of nine elk have been found over on the Hamburg, simply stripped of their horns and hides. This is contrary to all civilization and should be stopped.

The funeral of the late John P. Hall was attended yesterday by a large concourse of the friends of the deceased. The funeral services were held in the United Presbyterian church, and a beautiful tribute was paid to the departed by Rev. S. G. Irvine.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Usual Budget of News About the City.

ANOTHER O. P. CONTRACT LET

Orman & Crook, of Denver, Colorado, Will Build 18 Miles More Eastward—Their Plant Shipped.

It is announced that another contract on the eastward extension of the Oregon Pacific railroad has been let to Messrs. Orman & Crook, well known railroad contractors of Denver, Colorado.

The contract includes the grading of fifteen miles beyond the contract of Messrs. Attonelle & Dow, also all of the unfinished work between Britton and the abandoned tunnel, making about 18 miles in all.

The new contractors have ordered their extensive plant to be shipped from Denver, and expect to do considerable of the work before winter.

It has been an open secret since the arrival of Col. Hogg and party from New York that the Oregon Pacific Company has now decided to push the road through to Boise City with all possible haste, and has plenty of capital to do so. It is also hinted that some heavier contracts on the road east of the mountains are to be let soon.

Fence the Track.

Note and comment in the Oregonian also recommends the fencing of the railroad track. It says: Two serious accidents have occurred recently on the Oregon & California railroad. Both of them costly, not only in the amount of property destroyed but, the latter especially, unfortunate in the loss of a human life.

In both instances stock on the track have caused the accidents. This constant destruction of property, not to say loss of life, seems to suggest that the railroad company would find it profitable to fence in the road. Poor Ransom that was killed the other day was engaged to a young lady of Eugene and was to be married on the 16th of this month. Mr. Ransom succeeded Quint Guthrie, killed at the train wreck in Albany, and the engine was the same one wrecked there, a fact without any significance except to superstitious people.

The Penney-Russell Wedding.

Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock the marriage of Miss Gertrude, daughter of his excellency Governor Penney, and Mr. George Russell, late paymaster of the O. R. & N. Co., was solemnized at Trinity church in Portland, in the presence of a very few friends.

The affair was a most unpretentious one, in accordance with the wishes of the new couple. The bride was attired in a plain walking costume, and the groom wore a dark business suit. After the conclusion of the brief but imposing ceremony the bridal party awaited their friends in the vestibule of the church, where they received a shower of good wishes coming from the innumerable messengers of the hearts of the well-wishers, and then the really happy couple, accompanied by other members of the family, drove to the governor's residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell left for the East, and they will be absent two months at least. How they Swindle. Note and comment in the Oregonian says: A number of people are continually swindled in Portland and hereabout by bunco men and other grades of sharpers.

The gold-brick man has had his booty and it is about time for the dream swindler to appear. His plan of operation is as follows: He disguises himself as a pedler and contrives to put up for the night at a farm house whose owner he has learned is rich. During the night he has a dream, in which there is revealed to him the location of hidden wealth. He tells his host and they search for the spot and find it. They dig up a box, which generally is at the foot of a tree, and find it filled with either gold or silver coin. The stranger is willing to sell out his half at a sacrifice. He secures the money and decamps, while the poor farmer finds that all his glittering coin is bogus and he is the victim of a neatly executed swindle.

The State Fair.

The president of the Oregon state board of agriculture, Hon. J. T. Apperson, of Oregon City, is reported as saying that the recent state fair was one of the best fairs we have ever held. There has been a large increase in the attendance at the last two fairs. A year ago we cut down the admission fee one-half, still the receipts have been as much as ever, which proves that the attendance has doubled. This year the receipts were over $18,000, the largest for 10 years, and the disbursements about $16,000, which includes money spent for improvements leaving us, inclusive of last years balance, a total balance of about $7000. It is quite likely that additional improvements will be ordered when the board meets in December. We need more stable room and the pavilion should be fixed up.

K. of P. Grand Officers.

The following officers were elected at the session of the grand lodge of Knights of Pythias of the Oregon jurisdiction held at Astoria: Grand chancellor, O. H. Irvine, of No. 7, Albany; grand vice chancellor, A. A. Cleveland, of No. 17, Astoria; grand prelate, C. E. Bayard, of No. 9, The Dalles; grand keeper of records and seal, Ward S. Stevens, of No. 2, Portland (his ninth re-election); grand master of exchequer, Walter E. Struble, of No. 2, Portland; grand master at arms, Adam Crossman, of No. 27, La Grande; grand inner guard, Gustaf Schulze, of No. 12, Portland; grand outer guard, Charles Fellows, of No. 2, Portland.

Tobacco Raising in Oregon.

That the Willamette valley is admirably adapted to the cultivation of tobacco many successful experiments prove, and the value of the product has frequently been pointed out by well qualified persons. The consumption of tobacco in this fertile valley requires the importation of large quantities of the weed, and the substitution, as far as possible, of home grown leaf will lessen the expense of smokers, and add materially to the income of the soil tillers. Several fine specimens of tobacco grown in this valley have been exhibited in Salem within the past few weeks.—Salem Statesman.

A Young Traveler.

The Benton Leader of the 11th inst. says: "On the road leading to Corvallis, A. H. Howard yesterday morning met a two-year-old baby, and not knowing whose it was took the child to the house of Sam'l Gourley, three miles southwest of Albany." The child was the two-year-old son of Mr. Gourley of this city. The youngster had simply started out to see something of the world, and had wandered about a mile from home.

Will Return to Albany.

James Elkins is expected home in a few days from Eastern Oregon. He has sold his stock interests there and will remain here permanently. He has erected a fine residence upon his property on the knoll in the southern suburbs of the city, and will plat several acres more near the falls and devoted his time to improving that portion of Albany.

The County Tax Levy.

The annual tax levy of Linn county this year is 17 mills. The county tax this year is a trifle less than last. The entire levy, however, is higher than last year, the increase being due to a higher state and university tax. The State University at Eugene will be made a free school after January 1st and for this reason the university tax is a trifle higher.

By Boat to Seattle.

L. Senders, of this city, who has purchased during the past season about 300 tons of baled hay, is now shipping a quantity of it to Seattle. It will go by water all the way, being shipped on river boats from this city to Portland and there transferred to the boats for Seattle.

HAVE ARRIVED.

Our steamer arrivals have arrived. Call early and leave your orders for the following: Sweet Potatoes, Turnips, Cauliflower, Cabbage, Celery, Green peppers, Peaches, Pumpkins, Grapes, Squash, Swiss cheese, Cream cheese, Comb honey, Chipped beef, Willamette Packing Co.

Woodie's Riverside Addition.

This addition recently platted embraces 115 lots 55x110 feet adjoining Hackleman's 4th addition on the east. It is a beautiful tract, desirably located and is high and dry, already cleared and planted out in choice fruit trees. These lots will sell rapidly, and parties desiring a choice location should call at once upon Wallace & Cusick, agents for the property. Lots will be sold on easy payments.

Kid Gloves! Kid Gloves!

I have just received a full line of kid gloves brand "Our Own." This is a genuine kid glove. I buy direct from importers in New York and consider them the best value of any glove I ever sold for this price. Five buttons, three rows of stitching, $1.50 per pair. S. E. Young.

The Latest Novelty in Pantaloons.

Zaches Bros., merchant tailors and drapers, opposite the postoffice, are prepared to place before the Albany people their own invention of cutting and making pantaloons without an outside seam. The novelty is not only without a seam, but in bright stripes and checks. The foreparts are bound to coincide with the same of the backparts. We guarantee a perfect fit in every pair or money refunded.

Take Notice.

All persons indebted to the late firm of Bardue & Robertson will please call at the store and settle their accounts without delay and greatly oblige, J. M. Baruee, successor to Bardue & Robertson.

Dressed Chickens.

We have some fine, fat dressed chickens for your Sunday dinner. Call early and leave your order. Willamette Packing Co.

By Heward.

Jim Westfall will pay a reward of $2 for the return of a bunch of keys lost in this city. This amount will be paid to the finder on their return to the owner.

Findley Soda Springs.

Five tramps were arrested yesterday by Chief of Police Hoffman for vagrancy. Tramps have learned that when captured in Albany they are put to work on the streets and usually gave this city a wide berth. These were probably unsophisticated fellows and green in the usages of the country.

Messrs. Richards & Phillips have opened an architectural turning establishment in the old Chery & Parkes foundry building, and will be ready next week to do any and all kinds of work in this line on short notice. Elaborate wood work carved or turned, for buildings, will be made a specialty.

Farmers! I must have your butter and eggs. C. E. Brownell.

STATE DISPATCHES.

A boy Murderer incarcerated in the State Penitentiary.

THE HISTORY OF HIS CRIME.

He Murdered His Little Girl Playmate—Arrival of Passengers at Yaquina—The Baker City Fair.

Special to the Herald.

SALEM, Oct. 11.—Sheriff A. N. Hamilton, of Union county, left at the penitentiary to-day Chas. Hawkins, sentenced for four years for larceny; Henry Wright, three years for burglary; Wm. Michael, 7 1/2 years for manslaughter, and James Allen, three years for burglary.

Michael is but 15 years old and very small for his age, and weighs but one hundred pounds. He refuses to talk and seems not to realize where he is or what he has done. He murdered his playmate, Francis Phillips, a little six year old girl. The only witness was her four-year-old brother, who testified at the trial. The murder was committed last June. He is the youngest boy in the prison, the Jackson county boy, McAllister, being dead.

YAQUINA PASSENGERS.

YAQUINA, Oct. 11.—The steamship Willamette Valley arrived to-day with the following passengers: H. S. Ellis, Mrs. Thompson, Miss Maud Thompson, Miss M. Thompson, Mrs. Hanson, T. Howard and wife, J. M. King, A. McPherson, J. Durkin, R. H. Nerton, H. M. Brown, H. Woodward, J. Peters, Joseph Peters, Miss Peters, Miss Johnson, Mrs. Foss, J. C. Brewer, H. M. Stewart, James Neal and wife, S. Smith, A. Sweten and wife, J. Ballhouse and wife, O. Olson, P. Johnson, J. Jehson, J. F. Hugues, T. J. Porter, M. Cassen, E. Marwall, H. Smith, J. Hubbard, A. Gumbler and wife, Mr. Smith. A special train left this evening with passengers and fast freight for Albany.

THE BAKER COUNTY FAIR.

BAKER CITY, Or., Oct. 11.—The third day of the county fair opened to-day under favorable auspices. The day was cold, yet there was a large attendance. The exhibit of agricultural products is remarkably fine.

A POPULAR ESTABLISHMENT.

How Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar Meets the Public Want.

One of the most extensive and elegantly stocked establishments in the Willamette valley is to be found in the Golden Rule Bazaar store of Julius Gradwohl in this city. In order to accommodate his many customers he is in the field early this year, and has already commenced receiving his immense line of beautiful goods for the fall and winter and for the holidays, and has one of the most gorgeous and dazzling displays to be seen in any Golden Rule Bazaar in Oregon. The line carried comprises a bewildering assortment of fine china, glassware and glassware of the latest styles and most delicate designs. The beautiful china and glassware, together with the decorated and fancy wares, novelties, elegant stand and hanging lamps, toys, boys' wagons and general bazaar goods, present a scene well worth one's time to visit.

Here may be found a complete line of table cutlery of the celebrated makes, Roger Bros.' silver and silver plated goods and Britannia wares of every variety, while his stock of dolls, toys, toilet and fancy goods, in plush and silver, and novelties for the children will be larger than ever before. Mr. Gradwohl has enlarged his stock in such a replete manner that his Golden Rule Bazaar is not only a credit to the city of Albany but to the entire Willamette valley, being one of the most extensive establishments of the kind in Oregon. The most important feature to purchasers is in prices, and when we assert that his prices are as low as any house in the state and that his goods are sold at figures that cannot be equalled in the Northwest, it is but the recital of an absolute fact. It will be to the interests of the country merchants to purchase their holiday goods from this establishment, and orders should be sent in at once.

Mr. Gradwohl has long since proven his adaptability to this business, and it is taking no risk to say that this emporium of elegant fancy and decorative ware is the most complete in the Willamette valley. Those who deal at the Golden Rule Bazaar, will find a large assortment to choose from, and a square, reliable gentleman to deal with.
