CHINESE RESTRICTION.

Considerable newspaper comment has been given to the statement made by Bishop Fowler, that the Chinese nation was brooding over the means of retaliating on this country for our restriction measures. The Minneapolis Tribune commenting on the Bishop's statement says that Chae Kwok Ying, the new Chinese Minister to the United States, does not agree with Bishop Fowler on the Chinese question. The good bishop found the Celestials very much incensed at the United States because it has ventured to deny Mongolians admission to its shores. The feeling fering in North Dakota.
