

Morning Daily Herald

SPECIAL: 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. For Albany and vicinity—Following is the forecast for 24 hours, ending at 8 P. M. to-day: Rain; nearly stationary temperature.

GOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

The O. R. & N. boat, the Modoc, will arrive from Portland this afternoon. Chief of Police Hoffmann states that a number of tough foot-pads are loitering about this city and he advises people to look out for them.

The $5000 damage suit of P. W. C. Smith, of Lebanon, against Dr. L. Foley for mal-practice has been dismissed, there being no case against the doctor.

In the circuit court yesterday citizenship was granted to Charles Scott, who renounced all allegiance to the British crown to become a full-fledged citizen of the United States.

J. M. South and sons, of the forks of the Santiam, have a fine lot of improved Chester White hogs, received from Ohio, from imported stock, that are said to be the best in the country.

Mr. James Elkins has returned from his Crook county stock ranch, and will hereafter make Albany his home and devote his time to improving his South Albany property.

J. P. Morgan, one of San Francisco's popular commercial travelers, who has been in the city for a few days, purchased a fine set of deer's antlers, head and all, of a large fellow killed on his native heath up the roaring Santiam.

Attention is called to the adv. of the Portland Branch store of F. Wise & Co. in this issue. They have a very large stock in the double store-rooms in S. E. Young's old quarters, where a complete assortment of general merchandise as well as stoves, tinware, hardware, furniture, etc., is kept constantly on hand.

Five prisoners confined in the county jail at Portland made their escape at midnight Monday night by digging through the plastering and removing brick. The men who escaped are C. H. Lueders, indicted for highway robbery; Morris Gay, the man who stole Dr. Gies's horse and buggy; Stevens and Clements, charged with larceny, and Henry Hofflander, a sneak thief.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Marcus McLane of Fox Valley is in town. Col. T. E. Hogg left yesterday on his return to New York.

Dr. Sedgwick of Kings Station, near Stayton, is in the city. L. Klum and wife of Seattle, are in the city on their way to San Francisco.

Judge C. E. Bronaugh and Judge Samuel E. Stott, of Portland, Judge John Kelsay and Judge Bryson, of Corvallis, are attending court in this city.

Kid Gloves! Kid Gloves! I have just received a full line of kid gloves brand "Our Own." This is a genuine kid glove. I buy direct from importers in New York and consider them the best value of any glove I ever sold for this price.

Seasonable Specialties. Messrs. Thompson & Overman have added to their large stock of harness and saddlery a complete assortment of winter horse-blankets, rubber and oiled horse-covers, lap robes, etc., which will be found just the thing for winter.

Another Addition. I have for sale about 20 acres of land situated just one mile from this city. It is offered for sale very cheap. Also farm property and city lots for sale. E. G. Beardsley, real estate agent, Broadalbin street, Albany, Oregon.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Train Wreckers Indicted for Murder in the 2d Degree.

THEY WILL PLEAD TO-DAY.

J. M. Schlosser Discharged from Custody—The Cases Disposed Of Yesterday.

In the circuit court yesterday the grand jury returned indictments against Fred Rolfe, W. A. Hill and Bert Rolfe, the young villains who wrecked the Southern Pacific train at the Lebanon switch on the 28th of July last, charging them with murder in the second degree.

When they were brought into court by the sheriff they did not appear the least disturbed in mind, and although they were somewhat bleached from their three months' confinement in jail they carried themselves with the same jaunty, reckless air that they did at the preliminary examination.

J. M. Schlosser, who was arrested on a charge of assaulting his divorced wife, was discharged from custody and the case was dismissed.

In the injunction suit of A. H. Marshall against the city of Albany to prevent the grading of Washington street, a motion was filed by the city's attorneys to confirm the report of the referee and a counter motion was filed by the plaintiff to set aside the report.

In the case of Arthur T. Workman vs. Etta Workman, for divorce, the referee, Judge J. C. Powell, filed his report, finding for the defendant, who had filed a cross-bill for divorce and a division of the property.

Following are the other cases disposed of yesterday: R. A. Rumpy as assignee of J. P. Schooling vs. W. R. McDaniel, suit in equity to settle partnership; continued.

George J. Braner vs. Gentry & Rutherford, recovery of money—attachment; non-suit.

John C. Arnold vs. Sarah A. Gilcrest et al., foreclosure; default, decree granted.

Chas. A. Furbush vs. Wm. E. Montague, recovery of money—attachment; judgment by default.

Wm. P. O. Smith vs. J. S. Courtney, damages; dismissed.

Geo. J. Braner vs. Mary Congill, recovery of money—attachment; continued.

E. Wills vs. F. D. Leverick and P. Haley, injunction; continued.

State of Oregon vs. James Cain, indictment, selling liquors without license; dismissed.

State of Oregon vs. James Cain, indictment, selling liquors without license; dismissed.

Oregon Pacific Boats.

The Oregon Pacific steamboats on the river division will commence running regularly next week. The river is now rising and within a few days will be at a good boating stage. Their boats will reach Albany from Portland on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week, and will leave for Portland on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Boats going both north and south will lie over night at Salem.

OREGON IN THE EAST.

Grain from Albany, Salem and Elsewhere on Permanent Exhibition in Chicago.

Concerning the permanent exhibition of the Oregon exhibit sent to Milwaukee in the Board of Trade rooms in Chicago, which was briefly referred to in the HERALD'S dispatches, the Salem Statesman says: It will be remembered that the boards of trade of Salem, Albany, Independence and Oregon City and the Oregon Land company, of this city, carried a large and complete exhibit of the products of the Willamette valley to the G. A. R. National encampment at Milwaukee, Wis., the last week in August.

Desiring to continue the good work thus begun Department Commander McElroy and Mr. Cook, of the Land company, visited Chicago, Sept. 2 and 3, to arrange, if possible, to have the splendid exhibit of wheat, oats, etc., permanently placed in the elegant and extensive rooms of the board of trade in the city of Chicago, realizing the enormous advantage of such an arrangement that would result to this state in the way of placing the superior excellence of Oregon's grain products not only before the members of the Chicago board of trade but to the thousands of interested visitors who attend the board of trade from all parts of the United States from time to time.

The value of having this exhibit placed in the great board of trade building in the city of Chicago cannot be very well over-estimated for the reason that the members of this board are all leading, active and heavy dealers in all kinds of grain, and in addition to this this board of trade is the great center of the entire grain trade of the United States. As will be seen by the letter given below the entire grain exhibit was presented to the Chicago board of trade from the department of Oregon G. A. R. and presented in behalf of the department by Commander McElroy and Mr. Cook.

This excellent exhibit is now in place and has been arranged by one of the most skillful decorators in Chicago employed for that purpose. The exhibit is to remain permanently in the rooms of the board of trade and there is no question that this feature of work will ultimately prove of more service to Oregon than any other plan heretofore tried in exhibiting her products or making known the state's resources and advantages to the world.

The letter speaks for itself and indicates the appreciation of the members of the Chicago board of trade and their great interest in our state. Chicago, Oct. 22, 1889. E. B. McElroy, Commander Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Oregon, and B. S. Cook, Salem, Oregon—Gentlemen: We have the pleasure of informing you that at a meeting of the board of directors of this board, held on the 25th inst., the specimens of grain and grasses from the Willamette valley tendered through you, by the Grand Army of the Republic, department of Oregon, were most gratefully accepted and highly appreciated.

These evidences of the productiveness of your great state have been appropriately arranged for permanent exhibition in the Exchange hall of this board. This board, as you properly observe, is intimately associated with the prosperity of the great West, and may always be relied upon to co-operate with the citizens of Oregon for the development of their resources.

One of the grandest illustrations of American citizenship, constituting an assurance of the perpetuity of the republic, is the sublime spectacle of those who fought for the Union with a splendid bravery, addressing themselves with equal devotion to the arts of peace. Respectfully, W. S. SEVERNS, President. GEORGE F. STONE, Secretary.

UNCLE SAM'S DONATION TO OREGON.

Forty Cavalry Outfits, 400 Sets of Accoutrements and 1300 Gun Slings.

The state of Oregon has received from the Federal government forty, saddles, forty bridles, forty blankets, 400 sets of accoutrements, and 1300 gun slings for distribution among the different organizations, cavalry and infantry, composing the state militia or national guard.

The saddles, bridles and blankets were sent to Captain W. T. Raleigh at Sheridan for the troop of cavalry stationed at that place, and the 400 sets of accoutrements, comprising cartridge boxes, boyonet scabbards, etc., and the gun slings, were distributed among the three regiments, and the agricultural college at Corvallis.

The First regiment received 100 sets of accoutrements and 310 gun slings; the Second regiment, 100 sets of accoutrements and 460 gun slings; the Third regiment, 100 sets of accoutrements and 520 gun slings, and the agricultural college, 100 sets of accoutrements and 100 gun slings. The equipments are purchased out of the appropriations to the general military fund.

ATTEMPTED OUTRAGE

An Escaped Lunatic's Assault Upon a Young Lady.

HIS BASE PURPOSE FAILED.

Mrs. Knox, a School Teacher of Salem, the Victim—Her Fugile Drove the Madman Off.

Salem, Oct. 29.—Just before school commenced this morning in the little central school house, Charles Perry, a refugee from the Oregon insane asylum, made a bold attempt to outrage and carry away Miss Knox, the teacher.

Perry has been dogging her steps since years ago, when he was a scholar in her school in Minnesota. He followed her to Nebraska and then to Oregon, arriving here a year and a half ago. At her complaint last Christmas he was committed to the asylum here, and escaped to Vancouver, where he enlisted in the army. Deserting he arrived in Salem a few days ago, still bent on pushing his crazy suit, if not one way then another.

He entered the school house and approached Miss Knox, who repulsed his advances, but being strong he threw her down, and would no doubt have accomplished his purpose but for the intercession of Frank Purvin, a 16-year-old boy, and one or two assistants. They released Miss Knox from his hold, her clothes being badly torn. Meantime Perry made his escape to the country and was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Wrightman, near Brooks, this afternoon. He is now in jail awaiting examination.

Perry told a reporter his object in going to the school house was to bear her away with him and get married, or make her consent to his demand then and there.

SALEM NOTES. The governor to-day appointed M. E. Beatty, of Multnomah, notary public.

The Baker county tax roll filed in the office of the secretary of state shows the total taxable property to be $1,799,936, polls 556; Douglas county, $2,781,710, polls 1690.

In the supreme court the case of J. Lowenberg and L. Fleishner, resp., vs. D. V. N. L. and H. L. Rosenthal, app., appeal from Multnomah, was argued and submitted.

Election of Officers. At the regular monthly meeting of the Y. W. C. T. U. held last evening, the annual election of officers occurred, resulting as follows: President, Mrs. W. S. Thompson; 1st vice-president, Miss Margery Brink; 2d vice-president, Miss Rose Trumbull; secretary, Miss Ella Mead; corresponding secretary, Miss Margery Brink; treasurer, Miss Hannah Cohen; organist, Miss Frances Gilbert; assistant organist, Miss Mary Candiff.

A Series of Dancing Parties. The first of a series of dancing parties to be given this winter will occur at the opera house on Friday evening. It will be an elite affair, and will be followed by others at intervals during the winter. The committee in charge has secured good music, and an enjoyable time is assured.

IT WAS LONG ENOUGH. Colonel—Well, what's the matter now? Private—I've got liver trouble and dyspepsia, and ought to get leave for thirty days. Colonel—I'll give you ten, and if you take Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla that will be long enough.

Fred H. Blocker, of the Baldwin Hotel, San Francisco, writes: I have spent many a dollar for medicines, but the only thing that ever stopped my liver trouble and dyspepsia was Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla.

Gustav Solomon, of 223 Valencia street, San Francisco, writes that it has entirely freed him of indigestion and sick headaches.

A POPULAR ESTABLISHMENT.

How Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar Meets the Public Want.

One of the most extensive and elegantly stocked establishments in the Willamette valley is to be found in the Golden Rule Bazaar store of Julius Gradwohl in this city. In order to accommodate his many customers he is in the field early this year, and has already commenced receiving his immense line of beautiful goods for the fall and winter and for the holidays, and has one of the most gorgeous and dazzling displays to be seen in any Golden Rule Bazaar in Oregon.

The line carried comprises a bewildering assortment of fine china, queensware and glassware of the latest styles and most delicate designs. The beautiful china and glassware, together with the decorated and fancy wares, novelties, elegant stand and hanging lamps, toys, boys' wagons and general bazaar goods, present a scene well worth one's time to visit.

Here may be found a complete line of table cutlery of the celebrated makes, Roger Bros.' silver and silver plated goods and Bohemian wares of every variety, while his stock of dolls, toys, toilet and fancy goods, in plush and silver, and novelties for the children will be larger than ever before.

Mr. Gradwohl has enlarged his stock in such a replete manner that his Golden Rule Bazaar is not only a credit to the city of Albany but to the entire Willamette valley, being one of the most extensive establishments of the kind in Oregon. The most important feature to purchasers is in prices, and when we assert that his prices are as low as any house in the state and that his goods are sold at figures that cannot be equaled in the Northwest, it is but the recital of an absolute fact.

It will be to the interests of the country merchants to purchase their holiday goods from this establishment, and orders should be sent in at once.

Mr. Gradwohl has long since proven his adaptability to this business, and it is taking no risk to say that this emporium of elegant fancy and decorative ware is the most complete in the Willamette valley. Those who deal at the Golden Rule Bazaar, will find a large assortment to choose from, and a square, reliable gentleman to deal with.

Newspapers and Magazines. The time is now approaching when people will want a good supply of reading matter for the winter evenings. F. L.
