SPECIAL. 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city.

GEO. W. SMITH.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Albany and vicinity—Following is the forecast for 24 hours, ending at 8 p. m. to-day:

NOTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Plans for a dozen or more brick buildings in this city next summer are already under way.

J. C. Devine, of Santiam, has been installed as ferryman by the Albany Ferry Company.

Accidents are happening daily to those who least expect them. Be on the safe side and insure with Winn in the Travelers.

The business meeting of the V. L. society of the Baptist church will be held this evening at the church after prayer-meeting.

More outside capital has been invested in Albany real estate during the past month than during any preceding month in the city's history.

Ben Clelan, who had his arm shot off several days ago, is recovering rapidly, although he is still weak from the loss of blood and effects of the amputation.

The question of paving First street is one that is attracting no little interest among business men. It should be brought to an issue next summer, and the work commenced.

The south-bound overland trains on the Southern Pacific road have been running so irregularly recently that it is only semi-occasionally that the people of this city receive their evening mail until the next morning.

Several citizens have suggested that it would be a wise plan to have at least two electric lights placed on Second street, as it is becoming one of the business streets of the city and needs to be lighted up.

The Pacific coast senatorial railroad committee passed through this city last night en route to Portland on a special train. They were met at Ashland by Messrs. Koehler and Brandt, of the Southern Pacific Co.

Mrs. E. R. Cheadle sold yesterday to Dr. Scroggin her property on First street consisting of 92 feet front, for $13,929. Mrs. Cheadle subsequently paid the doctor $200 for his bargain and took the property back.

The Corvallis Times says that a few days ago six Chinamen, while propelling a hand car on the Oregon Pacific railroad near the summit were pitched off of a thirty foot bridge by their car jumping the track. Strange to say none of them were killed.

M. B. Goldstein, manager of the Chicago Comedy Company, which played a successful weeks engagement in this city last spring, is in the city. The company will begin a week's engagement here on Nov. 11th. Mr. Goldstein and Jack Warner will go to Corvallis to-day to bill the town.

A statement is published that an arrangement has been finally consummated between the Union and Southern Pacific, by which the east bound mail will be carried across the continent in forty hours less time than heretofore, and that the west bound mail will beat the old time by twenty-five hours and thirty-five minutes.

At St. Michaels, Alaska, flour is $15 per 100 pounds, beans 25 cents a pound, sugar 35 cents, tobacco $1.40 per pound, molasses $2 a gallon, dried apples and pears 30 cents a pound, condensed milk 75 cents a can, coffee 60 cents a pound, cheese $1.25 a pound, shirts $4 each and boots $15 a pair. Gold is reckoned at $16 an ounce.

In the vicinity of the Santiam and contiguous to the route of Oregon Pacific are several mineral districts which will receive a great stimulus from the construction of the railroad. Great developments will undoubtedly be made in this region soon, and the Cascades will acquire a reputation for mineral equal to that of the mountains further to the east.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. W. Brasfield, of Yaquina, is in the city.

E. M. Miller, attorney, of Lebanon, is attending circuit court.

J. L. Fuller, of Portland, is spending a few days in this city.

A daughter of Mr. Octavia Savage, of Shedd, is lying seriously ill and is not expected to recover.

J. C. Litter and wife, who left Albany about a year ago and went East, returned last evening to make this city their future home.

Miss Lillie Robertson is ill at her home in this city and has been unable for a few days to fill her place as teacher in the public school.

Ladies prefer to trade at C. E. Brownell's because everything is neat and clean and in apple pie order.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Three Young Train Wreckers Must Come to Trial.

A POSTPONEMENT DENIED.

Their Case Continued Until Friday Morning—The Cases Disposed Of Yesterday.

In the circuit court yesterday Fred and Herbert Rolfe and W. A. Hill, the three train wreckers, were arraigned and plead no guilty.

J. J. Whitney, attorney for the prisoners, asked the court that the trial be continued, as Jack Green, an alleged important witness, was not here. Judge Boise overruled the motion and continued the case until Friday morning, and it is probable that "Jack Green" does not arrive by that time the case will go on without him.

In the case of A. T. Bryon vs. the Southern Pacific Railroad Co., for damages for a cow killed, the jury returned a verdict of a $100 for the plaintiff. A motion was filed by the defendants to set aside the verdict on the ground that the bailiff allowed the jury to separate at their dinner hour, contrary to law.

In the case of F. E. Allen vs. Susan M. Allen, for divorce, L. H. Montanye as referee filed his report, which finds for the defendant, the plaintiff failing to appear against her. She was accordingly granted a divorce, and was given possession of the west half of block 44 in the city of Albany.

Walter C. Nicholson vs. Elizabeth Wood, suit to correct title, decree granted.

Albert Piper vs. Adeline Piper, divorce, granted.

Board of commissioners for the sale of school lands vs. Emily McKinney et al., foreclosure; default, C. E. Wolverson appointed guardian for minor heirs.

G. W. Hawkins vs. E. H. Rhodes, appeal from justice court of East Albany precinct; verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $37.50, the finding of the lower court being sustained.

An Amusing Court Scene.

The scene in the court room at the session of circuit court last evening was amusing. The appealed case of the contest of the will of Martin Werts, deceased, had come up and the transcript from the lower court was being read. It is a voluminous bundle of 1050 pages, and the opposing counsel, O. H. Irvine and J. K. Weatherford, each took turns at reading. There were only six persons in the court room. John Usher, the janitor, was asleep in a corner. Deputy Sheriff Vanny Smith and Clerk Montague were entertaining each other by relating stories in an undertone, while the court put in his time in looking bored, as the attorneys read hour after hour without making scarcely any perceptible reduction in the great bundle of MSS. that has to be read. At 10 o'clock the court adjourned until 8:30 this morning. The estate is valued at about $12,500, but by the time the voluminous transcript finds its way through the circuit court and then up through the supreme court, it will not be so much.

A Naughty Boy.

Robbie Head, a stepson of Samuel Ogden of Eugene, a lad aged about 13 years, is in this city evidently having run away from home. For so young a boy he has a bad reputation at home, and is not improving it here. He stopped at the Exchange Hotel, and gave the proprietor an order for $4.00 for his board and lodging on the Western Union Telegraph Co., saying he was employed in the office at $5 per month. The order of course was refused as he was not employed by the company, and had simply resorted to the trick to beat his way at the hotel.

A Splendid Banquet.

A most enjoyable banquet was given at the St. Charles hotel last evening by Mr. George W. Smith, who was lucky enough to draw the $1800 house and lot in the Pipes' addition drawing. All the purchasers of lots in the addition, together with their ladies and a number of invited friends, were present and partook of the hospitality of the occasion, which was most generously dispensed. An elegant supper was served by Mr. Race, and the occasion was a most enjoyable one. Nearly 100 persons were present. Short after-dinner speeches were made by several, led by Mr. Smith.

Oregon Celery.

We have just received a fine lot of Oregon celery, also a full assortment of fruits and vegetables. Our roast coffees and fine teas and spices are the talk of the town. We handle nothing but first-class goods and invite those who do not deal with us to give our goods a trial. Willamette Packing Co.

Seasonable Specialties.

Messrs. Thompson & Overman have added to their large stock of harness and saddlery a complete assortment of winter horse-blankets, rubber and oiled horse-covers, lap robes, etc., which will be found just the thing for winter. Call and see them and get prices.

STATE DISPATCHES.

A Sensation Near Corvallis—News from the State Capital.

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD. CORVALLIS, Oct. 30.—A sensation has developed at a farm near this city, which led to warrants being issued for the arrest of Rube Kiger and his hired man on a charge of seduction.

The story told your correspondent is that Miss Oakes, a young girl aged 15, whose parents live at Monroe, has been employed at Kiger's to do housework. A short time ago it became known that she was about to become a mother, when the hired man was induced to agree to marry her.

Her father, on visiting the girl, however, became acquainted with the facts in the case, and took the girl home and swore out warrants for the arrest of both the men, the girl having confessed to criminal intimacy with Kiger and the latter's scheme to marry her to the hired man.

SALEM NEWS.

SALEM, Oct. 30.—The tax rolls of two more counties have been returned to the secretary of state. They show increased total. Yamhill county gives the total taxable property at $3,972,871, with 1630 polls. Coos county, $1,976,725.

Oregon Oranges and Bananas.

R. A. Habersham, the civil engineer, returned yesterday from a four days' stay in Southern Oregon, says the Oregonian. "I am greatly surprised and actually astonished to see some of the fruit raised in and about Jacksonville," said Mr. Habersham to a reporter. "Among the fruit trees that attracted my attention were fig, orange and banana trees. One little orange tree was loaded with bright yellow fruit. Of course the oranges were small, but they were real, genuine oranges. The banana tree also grew out in the open yard and was nearly fifteen feet high. Some of the fruit trees and palms I had not seen since I left Brazil, eighteen years ago. It looks a little as though Oregon is encroaching upon the rights of California in the line of fruit culture." Mr. Habersham also stated that many of the larger farms in Southern Oregon are being cut up into five and ten acre tracts for fruit culture and viticulture.

SOCIAL AND CURRENT.

Beniah Rebekah Degree lodge No. 25, will give a dime sociable at the Odd Fellow's hall on Friday evening Nov. 1st, and the following programme will be rendered:

Solo—The Birdies Call—Jessie Clifton and Edna Parker.

Solo—Poverty's Tears Ebb and Flow—Miss Maud Crosby.

Solo—Maggie, the Cows are in the Clover—Mrs. C. O. Lee.

Solo—Oh Kestless Sea—Arch M. Hammer.

Mrs. Aiken and Mrs. Vassallo will oblige with a duet.

Miss F. Gilbert will preside at the organ during the evening.

Bear Fight.

The Onion Peak correspondent of the Tillamook Watchtower says that a three-cornered fight between Melson, Prince and a bear, took place not far from Melson's Prairie. Prince treed the bear. The gun got out of order and after a couple of unsuccessful shots, would shoot no longer. The bear got out of the tree, hugged the dog, and made him "holer" for dear life. Melson crawled through the brush and found the bear chewing his dog, and tried to do some cutting, but the knife (like the gun) was soon useless, or rather bladeless, then he raised a club and finally after knocking his eyes out and histioeth all down his throat, succeeded in making him lay quiet until he could fix up his gun and shot him. Melson shows some few scratches, and thinks that Prince did it.

Shooting at Yaquina.

The usually quiet city of Yaquina was stirred up Friday morning by a shooting scrape says the Corvallis Times. It seems an individual by the name of "Bill" Ennis had some trouble the evening before with Chris Germanson, the bar-tender at Gardiner's scow, and Ennis was thrown from the house. On Friday morning the ejected gentleman appeared on the spot with a double-barreled shotgun and was about to blow the bar-tender into kingdom come, when Chris, pulled his revolver and fired three shots at the unwelcome visitor, none of which took effect. This was followed by a scuffle and Ennis had his own gun broken over his back and was badly bruised up. At last accounts no arrests had been made.

A Good Suggestion.

A Gervais correspondent of the Statesman writes that paper to ask if the civil engineers, topographers, etc., who have their office in the Marion county court house pay any rent. He says he has paid taxes for many years, contributing to the cost of building the court house, and he wants to know if people are doing private work in a public building without paying rent. He wants to know this, for he is thinking of starting a dry goods store in the court house himself, if the rooms are free.

A POPULAR ESTABLISHMENT.

How Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar Meets the Public Want.

One of the most extensive and elegantly stocked establishments in the Willamette valley is to be found in the Golden Rule Bazaar store of Julius Gradwohl in this city. In order to accommodate his many customers he is in the field early this year, and has already commenced receiving his immense line of beautiful goods for the fall and winter and for the holidays, and has one of the most gorgeous and dazzling displays to be seen in any Golden Rule Bazaar in Oregon.

The line carried comprises a bewildering assortment of fine china, queensware and glassware of the latest styles and most delicate designs. The beautiful china and glassware, together with the decorated and fancy wares, novelties, elegant stand and hanging lamps, toys, boys' wagons and general bazaar goods, present a scene well worth one's time to visit.

Here may be found a complete line of table cutlery of the celebrated makes, Roger Bros.' silver and silver plated goods and Bohemian wares of every variety while his stock of dolls, toys, toilet and fancy goods, in plush and silver, and novelties for the children will be larger than ever before.

Mr. Gradwohl has enlarged his stock in such a replete manner that his Golden Rule Bazaar is not only a credit to the city of Albany but to the entire Willamette valley, being one of the most extensive establishments of the kind in Oregon. The most important feature to purchasers is in prices, and when we assert that his prices are as low as any house in the state and that his goods are sold at figures that cannot be equalled in the Northwest, it is but the recital of an absolute fact. It will be to the interests of the country merchants to purchase their holiday goods from this establishment, and orders should be sent in at once.

Mr. Gradwohl has long since proven his adaptability to this business, and it is taking no risk to say that this emporium of elegant fancy and decorative ware is the most complete in the Willamette valley. Those who deal at the Golden Rule Bazaar, will find a large assortment to choose from, and a square, reliable gentleman to deal with.
