EDITORIAL NOTES
The press of San Francisco is engaged in pointing out an alarming condition that is developing among the Chinese of that city...

The French government has commenced proceedings at this late date, to investigate the work upon the Panama canal. The satisfaction gained by the investigation will not be very quieting to the national nerves of that highly excitable people.

The smuggling of opium into the United States is being carried on quite extensively from Canada across the Saulte Ste Marie river into Michigan.

The new railroad deal between the Union Pacific and the Northwestern, we are informed, will be of benefit rather than a detriment to the Oregon Pacific, in its construction eastward.

The senatorial fight in the new state of Washington is waxing hot.
The principal fight is between Gen.
Sprague and Hon. Walter J. Thompson, two Tacoma candidates.

valley, where the cotton crop is a failure. The calmness with which the Chinese government allows its subjects to starve is appalling to foreigners, but the help that English and Americans gave in the famine last winter and spring in North China was trifling compared to the grand total of misery. At the very time thousands of Chinese were actually starving in the northern provinces cargoes of wheat and millet were exported from the southern part of the same districts.
The Roman empire in its worst days never evinced more callous contempt for human life than China shows to-day.

A REPORT from Kentucky relates the fatal results of a duel between an ox and a mare which resulted in the death of both. The mare used her heels and teeth and the ox wielded his horns. All efforts to part the combatants were futile until the ox finally gored the mare in the neck, breaking off a horn.
The mare dropped dead and the ox, reeking with blood, fell over, soon dying from the kicks and blows of his fallen enemy.

Our country is to have quite a rest. It is said that Mrs. Langtry has engagements that will keep her in England for at least a year.
What poor Freddie Gebhardt will do in the interim is not intimated however. Get him over to England probably.

Pacific railroad forms the connecting link to carry on the business.
