SECRET SOCIETIES.
A. O. U. W. - Safety Lodge No. 13...

SHOULD INVESTIGATE.

Much is said in public print and from the rostrum, about the adoption of eight instead of ten hours as the legal working day...

QUEEN VICTORIA recently issued, to a few of her titled friends a charter, that gives absolute and practically unqualified control and dominion over the larger portion of the territory of the continent of Africa...

Snow storms and severe weather in the east are becoming matters of report. On the Denver railroad an accident occurred by a freight train running into a snow bound passenger train...

The recent raiding of an opera joint upon Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington City, will arouse the people of the Eastern states to the realization of some of the beauties of this Chinese immigration business...

of that section become fully aware of all that is implied in Chinese immigration, the feeling upon the subject of restriction will become universal...

Some of the Canadian newspapers are raising a breeze because that commonwealth has not been invited to participate in the pan-American conference congress...

The report of the discovery of zinc ore in California as being wonderful, the Alta comments on as follows: "Somebody is making a fuss about zinc ore declaring that it has just been discovered in this country for the first time..."

It is said that when the debts are all settled the million dollar fortune of the late Congressman S. S. Cox will be exhausted.

Accidents are happening daily to those who least expect them. Be on the safe side and insure with Winn in the Travelers.
