SNOW IN THE EAST.

The Senatorial Committee Delayed by Severe Storms.

A SOUTH AMERICAN UNION.

A Murderer Hanged—He Helped to Build P's Own Scaffold—The Cronin Case—Eastern News.

The Herald's Special Despatches. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 13.—The senatorial committee to investigate the Pacific railroads arrived here this morning. They were delayed by snow storms in Western Arkansas. They spent the day inspecting the Union Pacific terminals here.

IN THE SOUTH.

The Protocol for the Federal Union Has Been Signed.

PARIS, Nov. 13.—The Guatemalan minister in an interview to-day stated that a draft of the protocol for the federal union of Guatemala, San Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua and Costa Rica had been signed, but required ratification by the congresses of the five countries. He knew nothing of the report that the smaller states insisted that Guatemala be divided into two states to prevent a preponderance of power.

IN EAST AFRICA.

A Newspaper Man Will Go to Meet Stanley.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Herald's correspondent at Zanzibar cables as follows: Captain Wissmann has sent me word that I can go up the country with my expedition to meet Mr Stanley and carry him supplies of tea, quinine, tobacco and other necessities. Captain Wissmann will give me an escort in addition to my own men, but says that I must fly the German flag. Captain Wissmann comes here from the coast to-night. The German Government asked him yesterday to give me every assistance. Captain Wissmann captured Sanaani yesterday with the loss of two killed and four wounded. The Bahahen fled in a northerly direction. The road to Sanaani and Mpwapwa is now open.

A MURDERER HANGED.

He Was Cool and Helped to Build His Own Scaffold.

WOODRICH (N. J.), Nov. 13.—Joseph M. Hillman was hanged here this morning for the murder of peddler, Herman Seidman. He assisted the workmen yesterday in putting up the scaffold.

The Cronin Case.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—In the Cronin case this morning Judge McConnell decided that the evidence as to the trial and expulsion of Dr. Cronin from the Clan-na-gael in 1885, was not admissible. Nothing of importance was developed by witnesses to-day and an early recess was taken. The impression is, the state's evidence is all in.

LANE COUNTY.

The Deings of Eugene People and Her Rapid Improvement.

EUGENE, Or., Nov. 12.—The board of county commissioners at its session last week, appropriated the sum of $50 per month for six months, to be used in repairing what is known as the Lake creek road between Eugene and the head of tide on the Siuslaw bay. The money will be expended under the supervision of Mr. John Whitman.

A veterans union, with about fifty members was organized in this city last Saturday. Dr. B. F. Russell, president; C. J. Dodd, vice-president; T. M. Martin, secretary; W. H. Abrams, treasurer.

At last there seems almost certain promise of the building of a street railway in this city. The members of the two old companies have agreed to consolidate interests and all pull together. The council was asked last night for a reasonably liberal franchise, which we have no doubt will be granted, and if so work will be commenced very soon.

A fine vein of stone coal has been opened recently upon the farm of Mrs. Lynch, two or three miles south-west of the city. The stratum crops on a hillside within eight feet of the surface, is of good quality and from five to six feet thick. If fuel was not so plenty and cheap the find would be regarded as of great importance, and as it is there are certain to be valuable developments as it is well known to old timers that good coal exists all around us.

Lane county has 205 individual, firm or company tax-payers, who pay on over $5000, seventy-three of them over $10,000, seventeen over $20,000, but none over $50,000 except the O. & C. R. R. Co. which is assessed for $240,408.

The Eugene Cumberland Presbyterian church is to have a new pastor in the person of Rev. G. A. Blair, late of Lebanon, Ohio.

Astoria.

Lots in the north addition to Astoria; price $45 each on the installment plan, or a discount for cash. These lots are selling rapidly in Portland and other cities. I am authorized to sell but a few blocks and it will pay you to call early and get your choice. E. G. Beardsley, Real Estate Agent, Broadalbin street, Albany.

CRUSHED BY SILVER.

The Dangers Risked by Clerks in the Treasury Vaults.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Silver money piled up in heaps, like cordwood or lumber, is very dangerous, and it is very likely to topple over and crush the clerks. I know it sounds like a fable to fellows whose aspenders have never been used by more than a list of quarter-dollars to talk of the risk one runs in a place like this of getting crushed to death under an avalanche of good and lawful coined money, but the danger is great, nevertheless. The other day we noticed that one high wall of bags of silver dollar—$100 in each bag—was bagging out in the middle to fall. The old clerks all ran to let it come, but the colored man ignorant of the tremendous weight of silver, ran up to the caving pile and pushed with his hands, thinking he could brace it up. As well try to hold up so much falling stone.

Down it came with a crash, and the colored man had a narrow escape, getting off with a few bruises and scratches. Six years ago at our old office at Sixth and Locust streets a pile of bags of silver, $1000 in a bag, fell upon me and bore me to the floor. My head had a narrow escape from getting crushed in like an eggshell, and I was buried from the feet to the breast. The Irishman who was our watchman then sprang to my assistance and clawed the bags right and left off me. When I caught my breath again I was thankful for my escape from being crushed to a pulp. There are people who would like to take their chances of getting buried under a heap of money just for the sake of being where there is plenty of it, but none so foolish as to be found among the Uncle Sam hirelings whose daily toil consists in shoving the big surplus about.

NORTHWEST NEWS.

A canal between the Walla Walla and Columbia rivers is talked of in Wallula.

The Umatilla reservation Indian school will be removed Pendleton on the 15th inst.

A block has been sold in Shively's addition, Astoria for just six times what it was assessed this year.

The Baker City councilmen have voted themselves a salary of sixty dollars each for the year. The mayor gets the same.

At a recent meeting of the Astoria Building and Loan association $52.50 was loaned at an average rate of 60 months, interest in advance.

The band of wild hogs that ranges in the mountains west of Canyon City broke into a potato field the other day and destroyed nearly all the crop. These wild hogs were first seen four or five years ago.

The greater part of the wreck of the Ancon will be allowed to rust and rot in Alaskan waters where the accident occurred, her machinery being old and out of date and not worth the cost of bringing it back.

Three prominent business men of Eugene, including the mayor, last week were arrested and taken before the city recorder on the charge of keeping their places of business open Sunday, in violation of the city ordinance. They all pleaded guilty, paid their fines and were turned loose.

Two milk cows harnessed to a buggy, formed a part of an immigrant outfit that passed through Baker City the other day. The old gentleman who handled the ribbons over this quaint looking team, now that he has made his trip "the plains across," can settle down and go to raising cattle.

At the last meeting of the southern Oregon Presbytery, held in Roseburg, it was decided to take into consideration the building of a college at some point in southern Oregon, within the bounds of the presbytery. The choice of location will be between Roseburg, Grant's Pass, Medford and Jacksonville.

Mr. E. D. Sloan, of Klamath agency, found recently in a cremation mound on the Klamath Indian reservation a Harrison badge of the campaign in 1841. The "log cabin" and profile view of General Harrison show quite plainly. Probably these Indians got the badge from General J. C. Fremont's party when they traveled through that country.

Preliminary surveys have been completed from Eugene to Florence, a distance of 50 miles and right of way has been secured. Contracts will not be let until next season. A. C. Hovey of Eugene, is president of the road and the general agent is now in New York for the purpose of negotiating with some of the overland companies for the building of the line from the bay to eastern connections.

A Good Investment.

I have for sale about ten acres of land right in the city, it being the north ten acres of the Milton Hale place, and have a considerable frontage on the road. This land slopes nicely and is very desirable property. Price reasonable and easy terms can be had for a few days only. Many other choice bargains. E. G. Beardsley, Real Estate Agent, Broadalbin street, Albany, Oregon.

The Latest Novelty in Pantaloon.

Zaches Bros., merchant tailors and drapers, opposite the postoffice, are prepared to place before the Albany people their own invention of cutting and making pantaloon without an outside seam. The novelty is not only without a seam, but in bright stripes and checks. The foreparts are bound to coincide with the same of the backparts. We guarantee a perfect fit in every pair or money refunded.

OUR INDIAN POPULATION.

The Red Men Are Not Decreasing in Numbers.

Wife Awake. People who hold to the "vanishing" theory declare that Indians do not thrive on the white man's food, and great losses are claimed from this fruitful source. The contrary is near the truth. As soon as they catch the white man's regularity of supply, of preparations and eating, taking as we do two or three meals every day, they are healthier than when they went days without food and then like gourmands gorged themselves; healthier than when they seized upon animals that had died, and to satisfy the cravings of false appetites, consumed the poisonous flesh.

Making a careful computation from the latest reports, which embrace all the States and Territories, excepting Alaska, we count 262,620. The accompanying table shows how they are distributed.

Arizona	21,163

Croup Can Be Prevented.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. There is no question about this, as it has been done in thousands of cases, and you may depend upon it that when a child takes the croup it is wholly owing to the negligence of its parents. True croup never appears without due and timely warning, a few hours or a day or two before the attack, the child becomes hoarse. This hoarseness is the first indication of croup, and is a sure sign that croup is to follow, unless promptly and properly treated. The remedy used in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed with each bottle, under the heading "To prevent croup," will dispel all symptoms of the disease. This first sign of croup, hoarseness, may be overlooked by young mothers or those not familiar with the disease. Under such circumstances, or when not properly treated, the hoarseness becomes more marked, and the child shows signs of distress of having taken cold, then a peculiar, rough cough is developed. Even at this stage Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the croup, but after the cough has developed the remedy is liable to appear at any moment. The proper way is to keep a bottle of this remedy at hand, it costs but 50 cents, and only a few doses, or at most not over a third of a bottle, is required to dispel all symptoms of the disease. Can you afford to risk so much for so little? There is not the least danger in giving this remedy in large and frequent doses, which are always required, as it contains no injurious substance. As proof of this fact we refer to John L. Olson, of Des Moines, whose 18-month-old boy drank the entire contents of a 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's cough remedy without the least injury. Certainly it made the baby vomit very freely; but after taking a nap he would be glad to have another bottle of the remedy, as he liked it. A similar instance occurred near Valley Springs, Dakota. Mrs. Mattie Johnson's two-year-old daughter, Annie, drank a full bottle of the remedy without injury. This remedy has been the sole reliance of thousands of mothers for croup, and especially as a preventive for many years, and has never been known to fail. It is also invaluable for colds and whooping-cough, for sale by Foskey & Mason.
