

Morning Daily Herald

SPECIAL. 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city.

Geo. W. Smith.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Albany and vicinity—Following is the forecast for 24 hours, ending at 8 p. m. to-day: Fair weather, warmer; northerly wind.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Every theatrical traveling agent who comes to this city says Albany shows more enterprise than any other city they have visited since arriving in the state.

The furnishing of supplies for the miners and the graders on the railroad has been the means of building up quite a wholesale trade for several Albany mercantile houses.

A car load of red apples from southern Oregon, all free from worms, have arrived at LaForrest & Thompson's. They also have opened a barrel of fine cider for mince meats.

Charles Curran has purchased of John Briggs his residence and two lots on Fifth street for $5000. Mr. Curran will improve the place and make it his home.

Some time ago an item appeared in the Herald stating that Geo. L. Wilcox was arrested in this city and taken to Eugene for taking money for photographs and not delivering them. This was a mistake as far as Wilcox was concerned.

Almost before even the citizens of Albany are aware of it graders will commence work upon the Albany & Astoria railroad, and then, and perhaps not until then, will some of the credulous be convinced that the building of the road is an assured fact.

Another New Brick Building. The Albany Woolen Mill Co. has purchased of E. J. Lanning for $200 a lot on the corner of First and Jefferson streets, upon which they will erect a two-story brick building for a wholesale clothing department of the mills.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

A Mongolian Arrested and Fined for Unmercifully Beating His Horse.

Sunday afternoon the horse driven by the Chinese will gather up a run away again. He was stopped, without much damage being done, near the residence of L. W. Deyoe. The Chinese driver came up soon after, and tying the horse securely to an electric light pole, he picked up a piece of scantling and began to beat the poor animal over the head, continuing his ill-treatment till the poor horse bled at the nose and mouth.

A New Building Association. Another new enterprise is about to be started which will prove very beneficial to this city. SHOULD NOT BE GRANTED.

Hill, the Train Wrecker, Has the Effrontery to Ask for Pardon.

It is learned that a petition is being circulated for the pardon of young Hill, recently sentenced to the penitentiary from this county for a term of ten years for manslaughter, for turning the Lohanan switch of the Southern Pacific railroad, with the circumstances of which the readers of the Herald are perfectly familiar.

Delayed One Day.

Yesterday at Yaquina the small steamer plying between Newport and Yaquina City ran aground during a heavy fog and broke her rudder. Dan Sullivan's company, which was booked for a performance in this city last evening, was on board, and were delayed so as to miss the train. This explains their non-appearance last night. They will be here to-night, and will no doubt be greeted by a large audience. The play and scenes in "The Mirror of Ireland" are said to be of first-class.

A Special Telegram.

Was received by us yesterday stating that a car load of Spitzenberg, Baldwin and Rambo apples free from worms were shipped to us Monday from Southern Oregon. Don't forget to call early to-day and get your choice of these elegantly flavored apples. Willamette Packing Co.

A POPULAR ESTABLISHMENT.

How Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar Meets the Public Want.

One of the most extensive and elegantly stocked establishments in the Willamette valley is to be found in the Golden Rule Bazaar store of Julius Gradwohl in this city. In order to accommodate his many customers he is in the field early this year, and has already commenced receiving his immense line of beautiful goods for the fall and winter and for the holidays, and has one of the most gorgeous and dazzling displays to be seen in any Golden Rule Bazaar in Oregon.

The line carried comprises a bewildering assortment of fine china, queensware and glassware of the latest styles and most delicate designs. The beautiful china and glassware, together with the decorated and fancy wares, novelties, elegant stand and hanging lamps, toys, boys' wagons and general bazaar goods, present a scene well worth one's time to visit.

Here may be found a complete line of table cutlery of the celebrated maker, Roger Bros.' silver and silver plated goods and Bohemian wares of every variety, while his stock of dolls, toys, toilet and fancy goods, in plush and silver, and novelties for the children will be larger than ever before.

Mr. Gradwohl has enlarged his stock in such a replete manner that his Golden Rule Bazaar is not only a credit to the city of Albany but to the entire Willamette valley, being one of the most extensive establishments of the kind in Oregon. The most important feature to purchasers is in prices, and when we assert that his prices are as low as any house in the state and that his goods are sold at figures that cannot be equaled in the Northwest, it is but the recital of an absolute fact. It will be to the interests of the country merchants to purchase their holiday goods from this establishment, and orders should be sent in at once.

Mr. Gradwohl has long since proven his adaptability to this business, and it is taking no risk to say that this emporium of elegant fancy and decorative ware is the most complete in the Willamette valley. Those who deal at the Golden Rule Bazaar, will find a large assortment to choose from, and a square, reliable gentleman to deal with.

Another Death. Such was the heading of an item which we saw in one of our Eastern papers the other day. Such items are entirely too common. Our new druggist, Mr. H. C. Hubbard is not of that kind. He has had 16 years' experience and is a practical pharmacist, and is registered in Iowa as such. If you wish to have your prescriptions compounded accurately and with the purest and freshest of medicines, take them to the new drug store, H. C. Hubbard, prescription druggist, proprietor.
