TWO BROTHERS DISAGREE.

A Fight Escues, Some Shooting Done, and One is Now in Jail.

Several days ago the HERALD published an item to the effect that two brothers, Gillerman by name, living near Lyonsville, became engaged in a desperate fight about the occupancy of a house. This has now resulted in the incarceration of one of the participants on a charge of burglary. It seems that the younger brother owned the land upon which is located two houses, the two brothers, both bachelors, occupying them separately. The owner desired that his brother vacate whereupon a dispute arose. During the absence of the tenant, Martin Gillerman, the owner went down with an ax and proceeded to demolish the house when soon the older brother appeared upon the scene. During the controversy the owner fired several shots to frighten his brother away, and finally ran him away with an ax. Whereupon an arrest was made upon a charge of burglary, the occupant of the house claiming that his brother Martin stole $20. He was delivered over to Sheriff Smallmon and is now incarcerated in the county jail. He has considerable property and is abundantly able to furnish the required $250 bonds, but declines to do so, saying that he will remain in jail until the grand jury investigates the case.

YAQUINA BAY NOTES.

Work on the Jetties Suspended for the Winter—Improvement Notes.

NEWPORT, Nov. 19.—Work on the jetties at Yaquina Bay ceased last Friday, and most of the force was paid off and discharged. A small number of men are now engaged in putting things in shape for the layoff that will probably last until the middle of next summer, and longer, he coming congress fails to make an appropriation. During the past fourteen months a large amount of work has been accomplished on this improvement, the south jetty being practically finished.

The friends of this bay feel confident that the congress that convenes in December will make an ample appropriation to continue this work and carry it to completion. Yesterday morning the steamer Richardson met with an accident that came near sending her on to the south beach. Just as she was leaving the dock for Yaquina her rudder broke, and she was at the mercy of the tide. Fortunately the tide was setting in, and after drifting across the channel and was warped to the dock. If the tide had been ebbing, she would probably have gone out over the bar.

A motor road from West Yaquina to Alsea bay, fourteen miles south, is talked of, and the chances are that a portion of it will be constructed next summer. The Oregon Pacific Company has just completed a large reservoir on the bluffs back of the docks, and laid four-inch iron mains to their warehouses, shops, etc. They can throw two or three streams of water equal to a steam fire engine. It gives them a splendid water service.

Monday Judge Bean, of the Benton county circuit court, rendered a decision in the suit of Case & Bayley vs. the city of Newport, which is of great importance to the people of this city. It in effect establishes the street line on the water front on the old, original survey. This line has been in dispute for several years. The city lost the suit, and it is out several hundred dollars. Therefore, in the eyes of the taxpayers, the contest should never have been begun. But it is a good thing to have such a question definitely settled.

A Valuable Brood Mare.

The trotting-bred brood mare Belle Price, owned by Jay Beach, Vancouver, Wash., is one of the kind that it pays to keep. She has had five colts sired by Altamont, and they were sold by Mr. Beach for a total of $4200, but three times that sum will not now purchase them.

Zelophon, record 2:35, trial 2:30, was her first colt, and at 3 years of age was sold to C. W. S. Stone, of Yreka, Cal., for $1000; Oneco, record 2:29, sold to McKnight Bros., Albany, Or., at 2 years of age for $600; Pricemont, 3-year-old record 2:35, public exhibition at 4 of 2:27, was sold when 6 weeks old to John E. Smith, Hillsboro, Or., for $6000; Barrows Bros., of Shedd, Or., purchased Multnomah as a yearling, paying $1000, and Malheur was recently sold to Jerome B. Smith, of Vancouver, Wash., at the same age for $1000.

Multnomah and Malheur have not yet been trained, but competent judges who have seen them agree that they are fast, fine gaited trotters, and will be heard from in the near future. Mr. Beach purchased Belle Price when a yearling of the late Gen. W. L. Withers, Fairview Stock Farm, Lexington, Ky. She was sired by Doble, that was the fastest 2-year-old of his day, his record of 2:10, standing at the head of all 2-year-olds records for five years. He gained a record of 2:28 at 5 years of age, and died early in his sixth year without ever having made a public reason, so that Belle Price is one of the very few colts ever sired by him.

These lots will be sold on easy terms, and the first that call to see them will get the choice of all.

NORTHWEST NEWS.

A new ferry and passenger boat for Yaquina Bay is being talked up.

The Western Union Telegraph company is to open a local office in Union. Hereafter all the land notices published will have to be paid for direct to the newspapers publishing them, instead of the register at the land office.

The steamer Mischief this week carried to Florence, on the Siuslaw river, a large amount of freight, including a press for the new newspaper at Florence.

The estimated expense of running the new state of Washington, for the ensuing year is $500,401, and the tax levy will bring in only $312,000.

The farmers of Lane county have 28,000 bushels of wheat stored at their warehouse at Eugene awaiting an advance in price.

From 3 1/2 acres of hops a farmer in Polk county cleared a net profit of $400. He sold at 12 1/2 cents a pound. The ruling price is 8 cents at present, but even at this low figure hops are more remunerative than wheat.

H. Gibson of Ochoee has returned from California where he went last summer with 200 horses. Mr. Gibson says the horse market was not brisk, though he had no trouble in selling a few horses in each town he visited.

The Nelson placer mine, seven miles west of Baker City, is one of the richest placers on the Pacific coast and was sold for about $300,000 about a year ago. The final clean-up of this summer was the finest ever made. It was worked by hydraulic.

Mrs. Parker and her six children drowned in the bay recently were buried in the Newport cemetery. They were all buried in one grave, the infant being placed in the coffin with its mother. This was the most affecting funeral that ever took place on Yaquina bay.

The great quantity of freight that passes through the Banion warehouse for points up and down the coast indicates a degree of prosperity, growth and development that is little less than marvelous when the observer looks back five or six years.

At Grant's Pass, Johnny O'Neil, aged 12 years, the son of a saloon keeper, met his death while intoxicated. He and a companion found a drunken man asleep with a bottle of whiskey by his side. The boys paroled freely of the liquor and O'Neil became very drunk. In that condition he wandered away and fell over a precipice two hundred feet high.

A POPULAR ESTABLISHMENT.

How Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar Meets the Public Want.

One of the most extensive and elegantly stocked establishments in the Willamette valley is to be found in the Golden Rule Bazaar store of Julius Gradwohl in this city. In order to accommodate his many customers he is in the field early this year, and has already commenced receiving his immense line of beautiful goods for the fall and winter and for the holidays, and has one of the most gorgeous and dazzling displays to be seen in any Golden Rule Bazaar in Oregon.

The line carried comprises a bewildering assortment of fine china, queensware and glassware of the latest styles and most delicate designs. The beautiful china and glassware, together with the decorated and fancy wares, novelties, elegant stand and hanging lamps, toys, boys' wagons and general bazaar goods, present a scene well worth one's time to visit.

Here may be found a complete line of table cutlery of the celebrated makes, Roger Bros.' silver and silver plated goods and Bohemian wares of every variety, while his stock of dolls, toys, toilet and fancy goods, in plush and silver, and novelties for the children will be larger than ever before.

Mr. Gradwohl has enlarged his stock in such a replete manner that his Golden Rule Bazaar is not only a credit to the city of Albany but to the entire Willamette valley, being one of the most extensive establishments of the kind in Oregon. The most important feature to purchasers is in prices, and when we assert that his prices are as low as any house in the state and that his goods are sold at figures that cannot be equaled in the Northwest, it is but the recital of an absolute fact. It will be to the interests of the country merchants to purchase their holiday goods from this establishment, and orders should be sent in at once.

Mr. Gradwohl has long since proven his adaptability to this business, and it is taking no risk to say that this emporium of elegant fancy and decorative ware is the most complete in the Willamette valley. Those who deal at the Golden Rule Bazaar, will find a large assortment to choose from, and a square, reliable gentleman to deal with.

ANOTHER DEATH.

Caused by the Carelessness of an Inexperienced Druggist.

Such was the heading of an item which we saw in one of our Eastern papers the other day. Such items are entirely too common. Our new druggist, Mr. H. C. Hubbard is not of that kind. He has had 16 years' experience and is a practical pharmacist, and is registered in Iowa as such. If you wish to have your prescriptions compounded accurately and with the purest and freshest of medicines, take them to the new drug store. H. C. Hubbard, prescription druggist, proprietor.
