Morning Daily Herald

SPECIAL, 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city. The stoves we offer were not bought as an experiment but as a certainty. We know what each stove will do, and they were bought for cash, so the price is right. We have specialties in heaters, beside our regular lines of Garland, Argand and Superior stoves and ranges.

THE SANTIAM MINES.

Work of the Albany Companies—New Machinery to Be Put Into Operation.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:

Your readers may not be aware that the capital stock of the mining companies of the Santiam aggregates over eleven million dollars. Much of this capital is, of course, subscriptions for stock, and is not yet paid up, but several millions have been subscribed, and will be paid in during the winter and the following spring, and will be employed in developing the mines. Those who are in a position to know assure the writer that during the year of 1890 the mining camps of the Santiam will show greater activity than has been known since the never-to-be-forgotten season of '49 in California, when men, in their mad pursuit for gold, forgot or ignored everything but the yellow dust, for which they abandoned family, homes, business, property, in fact everything men, ordinarily, hold near and dear—crossing mountain and plain, scorching desert and swollen streams and wild, raging torrents.

If there exists any reason why the Santiam mines should not prove rich and inspire our citizens with the belief that there lies stored in the Cascade mountains precious metals in quantities sufficient to make Vanderbilts and Goulds of a score of our citizens, it is probably nothing more convincing than the fact that these mountains lie almost at our very doors. In the days when the inspired writer declared that "A prophet is not without honor save in his own country," he might with equal pertinence have avowed that "Our people would not believe that any good thing can come out of the earth at our feet, but will believe in that which cometh from afar." There is good reason to believe that those who reside some distance from these mines have recently invested liberally, and will make a vigorous effort to develope them and put them on a paying basis. And, while the writer is not in a position to particularize or give details, this much he will say: That sufficient capital will be put in one of our home companies to open up the mines far enough to assure the stockholders of the value of their mines, and to justify them in putting in valuable and efficient machinery in the spring. They have no doubt but the mines are valuable, and will pay handsome dividends before the close of 1890.

Significant.

A citizen of Portland who recently went to Astoria to purchase real estate, says that it is advancing to fabulous rates, lots on the tops and sides of the adjacent mountains finding ready purchasers at high figures. He also says that the recent purchase of a small tract of land, about 100 acres, for half a million dollars has developed to be a Union Pacific purchase, and land holders are wonderfully elated over it.

Birthday Party.

A very pleasant social party was given at the residence of L. Senders Friday evening in honor of Maurice Senders' twenty-first birthday. A few of his friends assembled and an enjoyable evening was spent. His parents presented him with a fine gold watch, and his cousins, Misses Amelia and Pauline May, of Harrisburg, presented him a gold headed cane. An elegant dinner was served.

YAQUINA BAY NOTES.

As soon as permission can be secured from the railroad company parties stand ready to put up a telephone line between Newport and Yaquina.

It is reported that a Mr. Norton, a coal expert, who has been prospecting on Depot Slough, has found a very large vein of good good coal on Fred Wetzel's land.

A gentleman in Boon, Iowa, has sent a proposition to Mr. W. C. Shepard proposing to start a first-class woolen mill in Newport, provided they will take $8000 worth of stock in the enterprise.

Among the enterprises now almost assured to Newport in the next few months are a saw and planing mill, a woolen mill, a teachers' institue and a telephone line. Water works and electric lights follow other improvements.

Last Saturday shortly before 1 o'clock the dam above town gave way, or rather the water washed a hole under the woodworks, the water coming down the canyon with a rush, causing some little excitement among the residents of that part of town, but it soon passed without doing any further damage. Work is being pushed in repairing the break and will be made more secure this time.

A GROWING INDUSTRY.

The Harness Manufacturing Establishment of Messrs Thompson and Overman.

One of the important manufacturing industries of Albany is the harness and saddlery establishment of Messrs Thompson & Overman. A HERALD reporter, who dropped into their place of business yesterday was surprised to note that this firm has recently added extensive new machinery to their business and are manufacturing a line of work heretofore done only in the East. They have employed men expert in the work and make all kinds of fine harness finishings and mounted work, and the profits that are usually paid to eastern manufactures is saved to their customers by doing this work all at home.

Their motto is "what is worth doing is worth doing well." They buy only the raw material and manufacture everything they sell, and as a result are developing a business in this line that is in keeping with the growing industries of the city. Both Mr. Thompson and Mr. Overman are practical mechanics and personally superintend all work done. Their trade is fast growing and extending to all parts of Oregon. They already actually carry the largest line of heavy and light driving harness of any house in Oregon, not excepting Portland, and expect eventually to increase this still more and engage in the wholesale business. This they are amply able to do as they have now every facility for carrying on such a trade.

Mr. Thompson is a son of D. M. Thompson, who for 30 years previous to his death had gained a wide reputation for honest dealing and the present firm is carrying out the policy of the old house in this respect, and their business is steadily increasing and keeping pace with the wonderful growth of Albany. The name of Thompson has been so long connected with the harness business in this city that this house is recognized as one of the oldest and most reliable in the country.

In addition to their immense line of harness and saddlery they carry a complete stock of horse blankets, buggy robes, whips, farmers and horsemen's supplies generally. They pay cash and being close, make no combination rates and are enabled to give their customers the most satisfactory prices.

The proprietors are enterprising and thoroughly up with the times. Their store and work rooms are lighted with electricity, and they carry all the appliances necessary for carrying on a metropolitan business of this kind, having the latest and most approved machinery for a class of fine work that is not undertaken by any other house in Oregon, enabling them to compete with any of the establishments in this line on the coast.

QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS.

Numerous inquiries are always made about election as to who are entitled to vote at the city election, and some warm disputes sometimes arise.

Sec. 13 of Albany's charter provides:

"No person is qualified to vote at any election under this act who is not entitled to the privilege of an elector according to the laws of this state, and who has not resided in the city of Albany for the three months next preceding such election, and in the ward in which he offers to vote, for thirty days next preceding such election."

The state law requires a residence within the state for a period of six months and within the county 90 days immediately preceding the election.

Pleasant Social Party.

A very enjoyable social party was given at the residence of J. N. Cusick Friday evening by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church. An elegant lunch was served, and an enjoyable time spent. The following young people were present: Miss Lee Prather, Miss Minnie Colwell, Miss Lula Clark, Miss Sara Wheeler, Miss Ida Goin, Miss Elfreda Ewerts, Miss Clara Philpot, Miss Maud VanHorn, Miss Sara Ashby, Miss Kate Coshow, Miss Minnie Van Horn, Miss Daisy Dannals, Miss Lida Galbraith, Miss Lora Vance, Miss Eva Cowan, Miss Gussie Layton, Mrs. C. G. Burkhart, Miss Mary Schlosser, Miss Iva Turner, Miss Gray. Messrs. Arthur Porter, Merrill Fish, Will McCulloch, Lewis Lee, Amile Ewert, Fred. Fortmiller, Henry Ewert, John Newberry, Ed. C. Cusick, Charles Cusick.

Death of an Old Timer.

On Friday night, November 29, Mr. Andrew Queley died at the livery stable of John Schmeer in this city. He was 87 years of age and was born in Bavaria, Germany. He served in the Mexican war and came to this country about twenty years ago. He was on the county for several years until last March, when he secured a pension and has since been living on that.

Disarming an Unseen Foe.

"This was sometime a paradox," as Hamlet says. Since, however, the people of America and other lands have been enabled to pit Hostetter's Stomach Bitters against that unseen foe, malaria, it is no longer a paradox, but an easy possibility. Whatever malaria evolves its misty venom to poison the air, and decaying unwholesome vegetation impregnater the water, there, in the very stronghold of miasma, is the auxiliary potent to disarm the foe and assure efficient protection. Fever and ague, bilious remittent, dumb ague and ague cake, no matter how tenaciously they have fastened their clutch on the system, are first forced to relax their grasp and eventually to abandon it altogether. But it is preventive force that should chiefly recommend the Bitters to persons dwelling in malaria-cursed localities, for it is a certain buckler of defence against which the enemy is powerless. Cures, likewise, dyspepsia, rheumatism, kidney and billious ailments.

ADVICE FROM BELOW STAIRS.

"Bridget, I would give all my wealth for half of your health."

"Sure, ma'am, you need only give $5, for that's the price of six bottles of 'J. V. S.', as the boys call it. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla will make you as strong as me, ma'am."

Mrs. J. Barron, of 142 Seventh street, San Francisco, writes: "I have been taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla with immense benefit. It is perfectly splendid to build up nervous, run-down and worn out women." Mrs. Fred. Loy, of 527 Ellis street, Mrs. G. Werner, of 235 Berry street, and hundreds of others relate the same experience with the pure vegetable juices of this California compound.
