EDITORIAL NOTES

BON INGERSOLL is to deliver the annual address before the New York State Bar Association...

Senator Mitchell assures the Salem board of trade that he agrees with them upon the subject of the location of the world's fair at Chicago...

The excessive rains in California have caused serious washouts, delays of trains and a total cessation of traffic on the Oregon and California line for a few days...

An outbreak of typhoid fever in Yale college has been traced to bad plumbing. And in nine cases out of ten probably every case of typhoid can be traced to some similar cause.

MISS KATE DREXEL has purchased land near Philadelphia, and will cause to be erected thereon a building to be used as a Catholic convent under her management...

The Kansas farmers are again subjecting themselves to criticism by using the corn that they cannot sell at cost for fuel, instead of buying coal at the exorbitant prices that are now put upon that article.

The arid portions of Eastern Oregon are to be made to blossom like the rose, and by the aid of irrigation. That irrigation is to be accomplished by the aid of artesian wells. One at Baker City has demonstrated the feasibility of the plan.

The possibilities that still lie in the researches of electrical invention and investigation are great. For instance the Electrical Review opens up a new field of thought and discussion by asking why the mere magnetization of a bar of steel makes of it a machine for the transformation of energy.

One of the industries of our state, which has been inaugurated during the past season by Portland business men, is that of deep sea fishing. It has proved such a success that they now say the enterprise has passed from the experimental stage to a practical business basis.

The condemnation of the opium habit should be as strong and effective as it can be made for its effects are as diabolical as the vilest inferno imaginable.

a confirmed "fiend" murdered his sweetheart and nearly her whole family because he was forbidden the house it can be said that it was a fair sample. He saved his own neck from the halter by committing suicide, but this was no expiation for a crime as needless as it was cruel. It is the tendency of opium to kill all that is best in a man's nature, and though cases of running amuck are not common among white men, the drug is fast getting to be responsible for as much crime as liquor.

NEW STATES

Idaho and Wyoming are knocking loudly at the doors of congress for admission and with a fair show of success. The admission of Idaho would give an impetus to the admission of Wyoming for the two territories are very nearly of equal rank, though Idaho is a little in the lead in point of population and industries.

But even if one or both of these territories are not fully up to the standard that is not a sufficient reason for excluding them. The very fact of admission to Statehood always advances the interests of a territory, probably because the American people are so wedded to local self-government and like to regulate their own affairs without the direct interference of congress.
