Morning Daily Herald

SPECIAL, 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city. The stoves we offer were not bought as an experiment but as a certainty. We know what each stove will do, and they were bought for cash, so the price is right. We have specialties in heaters, beside our regular lines of Garland, Argand and Superior stoves and ranges.

Hubbard who formerly resided there, is admitted in our advertising columns this morning. The HERALD is not adverse to giving proper consideration to all the good that can be said of any man. In a business way Mr. Hubbard since his arrival here has been courteous, upright and gentlemanly, and he certainly bears a good reputation in his old home.

THE HUBBARD CASE.

The Child Given Into the Custody of the Children's Home in Portland.

The trial of the application for the transfer of the custody of Barbara Hubbard from its parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hubbard, on a charge of cruel and inhuman treatment, was concluded in Judge D. R. N. Blackburn's court yesterday.

As additional witnesses in rebuttal, L. E. Blain, Dr. W. C. Negus and J. J. Dorris were called and testified.

The argument by the counsel was not concluded until the middle of the afternoon. The court then rendered his decision, taking the custody of the child from the parents and giving it to the Children's Home in Portland.

In rendering the decision Judge Blackburn stated that the case was of a class that should never be brought into court and that the conduct of parents toward their children should be such as to give no cause for such a suit. The case comes under the new law passed by the last session of the legislature, and is the first that has been tried in Oregon. The law provides that when a child has been treated in a cruel and inhuman manner, the child can be arrested, and if the charges are proven to be true it can be taken away from its parents and given into the custody of some charitable institution, which was done in this case.

The court in reviewing the evidence stated that the testimony left no doubt as to the fact that the child had been treated in a cruel manner by its adopted mother. In addition to the testimony as to the severe whippings inflicted, the court remarked that it would be difficult to conceive any more cruel treatment than that testified to by Miss Patterson, which Mrs. Hubbard admitted on the stand, which was that as punishment of the child when it had wet its clothing Mrs. Hubbard pinned the wet diaper over the child's face, in which condition it was left for some time.

The court held that while there was little or no evidence of cruel treatment on the part of Mr. Hubbard, he must have known of the child's treatment by its mother, and permitted it to be done. In accordance with this state of facts as adduced by the testimony, a decision was rendered taking the child away from the custody of its parents and giving it in charge of the Children's Home, a charitable institution of Portland.

The counsel for the parents state that a writ of habeas corpus will be sworn out, and the case will come up for a new trial before Judge Shattuck in Portland.

A RARE VISITOR.

The Oregonian says: A white mink, of good size, was caught early yesterday morning in the excavation for a sewer on Third street, between College and Hall, by Mr. C. Dundee. The little quadruped was full of fight, and could not be taken alive. It is an unusual thing to find this valuable fur-producing animal on this coast. The writer has had much experience in the woods along the lakes and rivers of Western Oregon and Washington for thirty-five years past, but this is the first time he has ever known a white mink to be seen in the region mentioned. Those acquainted with natural history say that white minks are accounted a great curiosity, and are esteemed highly on account of their rarity. Mr. David Steel became the fortunate possessor of this animal, and has placed it in a taxidermist's hands for proper mounting.

AT YAQUINA.

YAQUINA, Dec. 17.

The night of the 16th heavy clouds hung low, and at short intervals poured out their watery contents quite freely. The meanwhile the wind, which during the evening and first half of the night had been coming strong from the south, increased in force until at 2 A. M., our fears were realized, a heavy gale and sea was on. In the stillness of the night the roaring of the breakers was really terrific to one not accustomed to such. The ship did not go out to sea this morning; it was deemed unsafe to attempt to cross the bar. After breakfast the passengers were all transferred to the Yaquina Hotel, where under the courteous treatment of Mr. Hampshire, at the expense of the company, we await another high tide, and the developments of another twenty-four hours. The prospect is very unfavorable and we are filled with unpleasant anticipations of the future. The ship has aboard a good cargo of freight, but a light list of passengers, among whom Albany is well represented; below are given a list of the names: W. D. Humphrey, Mrs. Lizzie Humphrey, B. E. Humphrey, W. C. Humphrey, Chas. Devereaut, T. Haurand, Bart McOuenlin, D. Swanson, Rob Knox, M. Nester, F. L. Bryant, H. Parrish, Pat Doyle, Jno. Degman, Z. Morris, all of Albany, R. A. Starr, of Corvallis, and a few others whose names at this writing I am unable to obtain.

A WELL ARMED ITALIAN.

He Threatened to Kill His Wife and Had a Pistol, Knife and Razor.

There was serious trouble yesterday among a party of Italians in this city, who have been working at the front on the Oregon Pacific railroad. Among them was one Joe Mason, who enjoyed the luxury of a woman who he said was his wife.

The latter it seems had transferred her affections upon another Italian named Angotta, who is watchman of the plant of Antonelle & Doe at the front, and over this the trouble commenced. The woman wanted to leave Mason, and the latter entered a serious protest. He threatened to kill her and while on the street made a dive for his hip pocket as if to carry his threat into execution.

He was arrested by Chief of Police Hoffman and was locked up in the city jail. He was searched and was found to have in his pockets a pistol, a razor and a big pocket-knife. He will be brought up in Recorder Henton's court to-day.

STATE DISPATCHES.

Jefferson Wants the Santiam River Made Navigable to that Place.

Special to the HERALD.

SALEM, Dec. 18.—Articles of incorporation were filed to-day in the office of the secretary of state by the Sherman County Telegraph and Telephone Company (Limited); capital stock $1000, in shares of $5 each; Malcolm Mackenzie, Wm. Grant and V. C. Brock, incorporators; principal place of business, Grant, Sherman county.

The enterprising citizens of Jefferson are making an effort to have the Santiam made navigable to that point. A petition to congress asking a small appropriation is being prepared.

Oregon Production.

The Salem Statesman says Al. Herren to-day takes to Portland one of the largest beef cows ever marketed in Oregon. It is a three-quarter short horn and weighs 1630 pounds. As the average weight of beef cattle is 1000 pounds it will be seen that this specimen is something very fine and much above the ordinary. Salem meat market men pronounce her the best animal fattened here and estimate that she will dress 1000 pounds. Mr. Herren sold her to Portland butchers for $100 and will leave her there as he goes to-day to Victoria with 300 Christmas sheep. He also has a sheep that weighs 263 pounds. This is an immense weight for a sheep, as the average in weight by carload is 105 pounds.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

The Elegant Display at Julius Gradwohl's Bazaar Store.

One of the most extensive and elegantly stocked establishments in the Willamette valley is to be found in the Golden Rule Bazaar store of Julius Gradwohl in this city. In order to accommodate his many customers he is in the field early this year, and has already commenced receiving his immense line of beautiful goods for the fall and winter and for the holidays, and has one of the most gorgeous and dazzling displays to be seen in any Golden Rule Bazaar in Oregon.

The line carried comprises a bewildering assortment of fine china, queensware and glassware of the latest styles and most delicate designs. The beautiful china and glassware, together with the decorated and fancy wares, novelties, elegant stand and hanging lamps, toys, boys' wagons and general bazaar goods, present a scene well worth one's time to visit.

Here may be found a complete line of table cutlery of the celebrated makes, Roger Bros.' silver and silver plated goods and Bohemian wares of every variety, while his stock of dolls, toys, toilet and fancy goods, in plush and silver, and novelties for the children will be larger than ever before. Mr. Gradwohl has enlarged his stock in such a replete manner that his Golden Rule Bazaar is not only a credit to the city of Albany but to the entire Willamette valley, being one of the most extensive establishments of the kind in Oregon. The most important feature to purchasers is in prices, and when we assert that his prices are as low as any house in the state and that his goods are sold at figures that cannot be equaled in the Northwest, it is but the recital of an absolute fact. It will be to the interests of the country merchants to purchase their holiday goods from this establishment, and orders should be sent in at once.

Mr. Gradwohl has long since proven his adaptability to this business, and it is taking no risk to say that this emporium of elegant fancy and decorative ware is the most complete in the Willamette valley. Those who deal at the Golden Rule Bazaar will find a large assortment to choose from, and a square, reliable gentleman to deal with.

FROM HIS OLD HOME.

What the People of Humboldt, Iowa, Say of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hubbard.

HUMBOLDT, (Ia.) Dec. 18.—To W. R. Bilyeu, Albany, Oregon: We, all citizens of Humboldt county, Iowa, have been well acquainted with H. C. Hubbard and wife since the summer of 1881. Their character is first-class, their treatment of their two adopted children always kind and considerate, and Mrs. Hubbard very devoted to their wants. [Signed] A. D. Bicknell, mayor; G. L. Tremain, banker; C. E. Ward, wholesale merchant; Geo. B. Pinney, retail merchant; D. F. Coyle, member Iowa legislature; J. N. Prouty, lawyer; P. H. Pope, merchant; F. A. Peck, postmaster of Humboldt; L. Baker, wholesale grocer; D. A. Ray, of Ray & Adams; J. B. Swain, county recorder; Geo. C. McCauley, county auditor; J. W. Fairman, sheriff; E. D. Nixon, druggist and dentist; E. H. Kinney, M. D.; J. B. Swinburn, editor; J. S. Fletcher, county clerk; A. M. Adams, county treasurer; C. A. Babcock, county attorney.

HUMBOLDT, Iowa, Dec. 18, 1889.

My Dear Hubbard and Family:—I was a good deal surprised at the receipt of your letter of the 5th inst. I got it at noon yesterday and went to work at once. I was interrupted, so that I did not get through till 7 P. M., and so did not call on the ladies, as I feared that if I held it over till to-day it would be too late. The few ladies that I could get on the street I thought would look so small on paper that I had best have all men. You will note that I did not send duplicate to your attorney, because our agent said it would cost full price, and you could get a copy there for nothing, also I could get no night rates. I was tempted to take the message and walk in with it. It would be about as cheap, and quite so it a fellow had half a dozen of them. It is not necessary for me to say to you that we all feel sorry for you in your trouble. We are quite certain, however, that you will pull through the contest of the 12th inst. in good shape. I have not shown your letter, but have talked of contents freely, as the matter has been all over town since the 7th inst., when our sheriff first began to get telegrams from your chief of police enquiring about you and the child Barbara.

Everybody shows great sympathy for you, and seem to realize how, all alone, you must feel so far from old acquaintances, where no use can be made of the best of all capital—a long-standing good reputation. You will note that I worked in all kinds of vouchers for you. You see I thought that if you was as bad as your traducers say you are, some grades would kick back here where you are known and have lived so long. We hope Mrs H has in a measure recovered from the shock of the wicked ordeal through which she has passed.

Let us hear what the result of the battle of the 12th is. Anything I can do for you I shall very gladly undertake. Yours very truly, A. D. BICKNELL.

HUMBOLDT, Iowa, May 2, 1889.

To whom it may concern:—The bearer of this, H. C. Hubbard, has been an acquaintance of mine for the past five years, and I believe him to be a first-class man, both from a business and social standpoint. Respectfully,

W. G. STERNS,
Assistant Cashier Peoples Bank.

I can heartily endorse all Mr. Sterns says of H. C. Hubbard.
Yours truly, J. W. FOSTER,
Cashier Peoples Bank.

CLINTON, Iowa, April 27, 1889.

To whom it may concern:—It is with great pleasure we recommend Mr. H. C. Hubbard as a competent and reliable druggist. We know him to be honest and temperate and habits and character correct. Respectfully, OLNEY & MCDAID,
Wholesale Druggists.

HUMBOLDT, Iowa, May 2, 1889.

To whom it may concern:—This certifies that we have known Mr. H. C. Hubbard for a period of over four years, during which time he has resided in this city, and has won many friends. We know him to be a first-class pharmacist and business man; he has the confidence of our citizens here. We take pleasure in recommending him to the world at large, and it is our sincere desire that fortune may smile upon him, as we consider him worthy the confidence of all. P. M. Dickey, president; R. J. Johnson, cashier; E. A. Hills, assistant cashier Humboldt Co. Bank.

HUMBOLDT, Iowa, April 30, 1889.—This will introduce to you Mr. H. C. Hubbard, a former resident of our city. Mr. Hubbard has for several years been our leading druggist, and has been exceedingly well and favorably known, both in our business and social circles. While we regret his decision to leave our community, we most cheerfully recommend him to the regard of the people among whom he may choose to locate. We have reason to congratulate the city of his future choice upon its acquisition of a most honorable, upright and reliable citizen, as well as successful business man.

RAY & ADAMS,
General Merchants.

HUMBOLDT, Iowa, May 2, 1889.—We whose names are subscribed below very cheerfully certify that Harry C. Hubbard has done business in this town as a druggist for the five years last past, and that during all that time he has so conducted his business and his relations with society as to gain the united approval of this community. We regret his removal from among us, and confidently recommend him as a good citizen and competent druggist, to any people where his choice of home may place him. A. D. Bicknell, attorney at law; O. H. Kinney, M. D.; C. A. Babcock, lawyer; Baker, Savage & Co., wholesale grocers; P. H. Pope, merchant; A. M. Adams, county treasurer Humboldt county, Iowa; Pinney & Perkins, boots and shoes; Smith & Smith, agricultural; D. G. Pinney & Son, lumber; D. F. Coyle, lawyer and chairman republican county central committee; Russell Bros., proprietors Russell House; Wah. Welch, M. D.

The Humboldt Kosmos of March 14th says: Last Saturday H. C. Hubbard sold his interest in the drug store to his partner, H. C. Doan. A dissolution notice appears in another place. The business will be continued by Dr. Doan, who will employ an able pharmacist as soon as possible. We will feel the loss of Mr. Hubbard. Since his residence among us he has been an enterprising man, always helping liberally any project for the good of the town. He is a No. 1 pharmacist and is a pleasant man to deal with, and wherever he decides to locate that town will have a man to be proud of, and one that will do to be to. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard success in the future and want them to remember that there is always a welcome whenever they choose to visit Humboldt.

The Humboldt Independent of March 14th says: It is with much regret that we note the dissolution of the firm of Doan & Hubbard. We regret it because it results in a loss to Humboldt of H. C. Hubbard and his family, a loss we are truly sorry to meet both in a social and business way. Mr. Hubbard has made many friends in the town and county, whose regrets will be keenly felt at parting, and whose best wishes will follow him wherever his lines are cast, which we hope will be in pleasant places.
