STATE DISPATCHES.

License of the Captains of the Hoag and Modoc Suspended—Salem News.

Special to the Herald.

PORTLAND, Dec. 19.—Messrs. Edwards and McDermott, local inspectors of hulls and boilers, have concluded the investigation in the matter of the recent collision between the steamers Hoag and Modoc, which occurred Saturday morning. They suspended for 30 days the license of Captain Raabe, master of the steamer Hoag, for violating the rules regulating masters and pilots regarding the blowing of whistles in passing other steamers. The inspectors also suspended the license of Captain Bell, of the Modoc, for ten days for violating section 5 of rule 9, prohibiting passengers or unlicensed parties from riding in the pilot house.

NEWS FROM SALEM.

SALEM, Dec. 19.—This evening the body of a premature child was found in a sack on the bank of the river under the bridge. The coroner is now holding an inquest. There is no clue to the mother.

Dunlap, Portland; Alfred Gibbons, Astoria; Elmer Barnes, Latourelle Falls; Dan P. Stouffer, Dallas; G. L. Donner, Portland; F. S. Cottle, Carbon, Yamhill county; J. L. Hindman, Elsie; E. A. Downing, Salem; W. L. Dixon, Myrtle Point; James Jones and James C. Swan, Port Townsend.

Wm. and Holland Smith, of San Francisco, were appointed commissioners of deeds for Oregon.

In the supreme court to-day the case of Geo. W. Riddle resp. vs. H. B. Miller and Wm. M. Royal appeals, appeal from Josephine county, was argued and submitted.

Married.

On Thursday morning Mr. George Saltmarsh, of this city, and Miss Lola Riley, of Eugene, were united in marriage at the residence of Mr. C. H. Paine, of that place, Rev. Geo. A. McKinley officiating. Mr. Saltmarsh is a member of the well known firm of Hopkins & Saltmarsh of this city, and the bride is the accomplished daughter of James Riley, recently of Harrisburg. The happy couple returned to this city and were given a reception by their many friends in the evening at the residence of the groom's mother, Mrs. R. Saltmarsh. An elegant supper was served, and a large list of wedding presents was bestowed upon the happy couple. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. Crandall, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. J. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hopkins, Mrs. John Althouse, Rev. E. R. Pritchard, Miss Lulu Webber, Mrs. Jos. Webber, Miss Ella Long, Miss Tony Miller, Miss Gussie Schaeffer, Misses Hattie and Lillie Graff, Miss Bertha Keller, Alvin Long, Will and Fred Fortmiller, J. L. Cramer, W. H. Warner, Chas. Meador, W. M. Crother, Chas. Mueller, and A. Porter.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Following real estate sales were recorded yesterday:

Robert Hunter to E. E. Trier, 492 acres, 190

L. T. Hennessy to A. E. Hennessy, 120 acres, 190

Served Him Right.

The Eugene Register of the 18th inst. says: Word reached here yesterday that M. P. Martin, Sr., had been shot and killed. We immediately telegraphed to Cottage Grove for particulars and learn that about 9 o'clock yesterday morning he went to the house of Mrs. Isaac Taylor about three miles from Cottage Grove, and while she was alone in the house, made a criminal assault upon her chastity, when she shot him, killing him instantly. She at once went to Cottage Grove and surrendered herself to the justice of the peace. When parties went to the house they found Martin's body lying in the bedroom. The people in that vicinity commended the action of Mrs. Taylor. Martin was a pioneer of Lane county and known by all. He and wife had a quarrel last spring and she committed suicide to end her troubles.

The Woolen Mills.

A portion of the machinery of the new woolen mills was put in operation yesterday, the process of scouring the wool being commenced. It will require several weeks to get the mills in full operation, as in starting, the weaving and spinning departments cannot be operated until the wool has gone through the several preliminary processes.

Dressed Chickens.

Order a nice dressed chicken for your Sunday dinner; only 25 cts. We will also have a fine lot of fat turkeys and geese for Christmas. Leave your orders early. Williams & Co. Packing Co.

Astoria.

Lots in the north addition to Astoria; price $50 each on the installment plan, or a discount for cash. These lots are selling rapidly in Portland and other cities. I am authorized to sell ten lots, and it will pay you to call early and get your choice. E. G. Beardsley, Real Estate Agent, Broadway street, Albany.

LETTER FROM THE MINES.

QUARTZVILLE, Dec. 8.

After a toilsome and weary walk, climbing mountains and wading through snow, our party of miners from Albany reached camp at 6 p. m. like the fisherman, hungry as a wolf. I was the lucky one of the party, as a friend who had on number boots carried me across the creek, while the other had to wade. We remained over at Gatesville one night and reached the mining camp two days later.

It has been raining and snowing in the mountains ever since we arrived in camp, and the snow on the divide must be four feet deep. We expected the packer to-day, but the amount of rain that has fallen may have kept him at home across the mountains.

Mr. Jordan, one of the Hydraulic Co.'s men, was in Quartzville this week, but started for Salem the first of the week. He was up-looking after the company's interest in Dry Gulch.

This would be a great country for ducks if there was any lakes up here, as one can see and hear more of them up here than in the valley. This is no fish story, for I can prove it by Godlings. We intended to wash to-day but one of the boys said it was Sunday, so we agreed to wait another month and see if it would not clear up.

There is talk of a hotel being built in the near future up here by parties from Colorado and Iowa. It would be a good investment, as parties are coming up to Gatesville every day bound for this place, but finding no hotel accommodations they turn back and wander to some other mining camp.

When you see Stewart, the O. P. R. man, ask him if he has seen the white horse and reloaded girl and you will get a good cigar—he sets them up every time.

There is not a sound to be heard in these mountains since Wilcox, of Salem, has left, except the droning of giant power in the several tunnels in the neighborhood. He is the pioneer man of the Oregon Land Co. He is the only preacher, barber and real estate man that has visited this camp since '65. He has located a town-site on top of Lookout Mountain, Ed. Fleming, of Salem, has agreed to place them on the market, that is the lot.

Drs. Taylor and Hughes have jumped Dr. Hill's warm spring up near The Meadows and say they intend to hold them at any cost, and the doctor waxes warm when you mention the matter to him.

Accident at the Front.

Yesterday morning Frank Mc Kieley, a telegraph lineman, who has been at work at the front on the Oregon Pacific road met with a narrow escape from instant death. While in an old building used by packers the roof of the structure fell in. He was caught beneath the falling timbers, but fell beside a pile of hay, which prevented him from being crushed to death. He was badly hurt and was brought to this city for treatment. It was found that his injuries will not prove serious, and he was removed to Corvallis.

Last Night's Entertainment.

The performance of the Jingle Concert Company at the opera house as a benefit for the Women's Relief Corps, was well attended and a most enjoyable musical entertainment. The company is composed of genuine artists in their profession and they give a clean, refined and well arranged programme. They will play again this evening in an entire change of programme.

CRAWFORDSVILLE NOTES.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Dec. 16.

The first snow of the season fell last Friday.

Railroad talk can be heard on all corners. Consequently everybody feels good over the prospects.

Mrs. J. F. Gross of Brownsville, is visiting relatives at this place.

Mr. Frank Glass of Corvallis, is visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. Carl Ward of Ionia, Mich., is visiting the family of Mr. Hull.

The regular term of school closed the 6th, the public funds having run low.

Mrs. Benj. Cutler started a subscription on school last Monday with 22 scholars.

Born.—Dec. 7, to the wife of Wm. Ireland, a son. All doing well.

Since the new store has opened up the hand boys have to practice in the school house, as the town is without any public hall.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Leonard have been stopping at the hotel for some days. The left this morning for their timber claims which they have taken about 12 miles above here.

Messrs. J. H. Glass, J. C. Cox, and George Finley went to Portland last week to lay in a stock of goods for the new store of Cox & Finley. Their goods are now arriving daily.

There has been considerable stir in town to-day owing to a small law suit before G. W. Pugh J. P. Mr. Milton Washburn plaintiff, and Mr. Jas. McMahon of Halsey, defendant. The difficulty arose concerning some lumber. The decision will not be rendered until to-morrow.

Mr. G. F. Colbert sold nine fine beef steers to Mr. Morris of Fern Ridge for $300. Mr. Morris assisted by Mr. Moran had quite a lively time getting them through the bridge. They finally had to drag one of them through with their poles. Mr. Moran received a severe cut on the ear by the rope dragging across it.

Knives, forks, spoons, etc., in great variety at French's.

XXXX coffee is the best. Try it. C. E. Brownell.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

The Elegant Display at Julius Gradwohl's Bazaar Store.

One of the most extensive and elegantly stocked establishments in the Willamette valley is to be found in the Golden Rule Bazaar store of Julius Gradwohl in this city. In order to accommodate his many customers he is in the field early this year, and has already commenced receiving his immense line of beautiful goods for the fall and winter and for the holidays, and has one of the most gorgeous and dazzling displays to be seen in any Golden Rule Bazaar in Oregon.

The line carried comprises a bewildering assortment of fine china, queensware and glassware of the latest styles and most delicate designs. The beautiful china and glassware, together with the decorated and fancy wares, novelties, elegant stand and hanging lamps, toys, boys' wagons and general bazaar goods, present a scene well worth one's time to visit.

Here may be found a complete line of table cutlery of the celebrated makes, Roger Bros' silver and silver plated goods and Bohemian wares of every variety, while his stock of dolls, toys, toilet and fancy goods, in plush and silver, and novelties for the children will be larger than ever before. Mr. Gradwohl has enlarged his stock in such a complete manner that his Golden Rule Bazaar is not only a credit to the city of Albany but to the entire Willamette valley, being one of the most extensive establishments of the kind in Oregon. The most important feature to purchasers is in prices, and when we assert that his prices are as low as any house in the state and that his goods are sold at figures that cannot be equalled in the Northwest, it is but the recital of an absolute fact. It will be to the interests of the country merchants to purchase their holiday goods from this establishment, and orders should be sent in at once.

Mr. Gradwohl has long since proven his adaptability to this business, and it is taking no risk to say that this emporium of elegant fancy and decorative ware is the most complete in the Willamette valley. Those who deal at the Golden Rule Bazaar, will find a large assortment of choice goods from a square, reliable gentleman to deal with.

FROM HIS OLD HOME.

What the People of Humboldt, Iowa, Say of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hubbard.

HUMBOLDT, (Ia.) Dec. 18.—To W. R. Blyden, Albany, Oregon: We, all citizens of Humboldt county, Iowa, have most well acquainted with H. C. Hubbard and wife since the summer of 1887. Their character is first-class, their treatment of their two adopted children always kind and considerate, and Mrs. Hubbard very devoted to their wants. (Signed) A. D. Bicknell, Mayor; G. L. Tremann, banker; C. E. Ward, wholesale merchant; Geo. B. Pinney, retail merchant; D. F. Coyle, member Iowa legislature; J. N. Prouty, lawyer; P. H. Pope, merchant; F. A. Peck, postmaster of Humboldt; J. Baker, wholesale grocer; D. A. Ray, of Ray & Adams; J. E. Swain, county recorder; Geo. C. McCauley, county auditor; J. W. Fairman, sheriff; E. D. Nixon, druggist and dentist; E. H. Kinney, M. D.; J. B. Swinburn, editor; J. S. Fletcher, county clerk; A. M. Adams, county treasurer; C. A. Babcock, county attorney.

HUMBOLDT, Iowa, Dec. 19, 1889.

My Dear Hubbard and Family:—I was a good deal surprised at the receipt of your letter of the 13th inst. I got it at noon yesterday and went to work at once. I was interrupted, so that I did not get through till 7 p. m., and so did not call on the ladies, as I feared that if I did it over till today it would be too late. The two ladies that I could get on the street I thought I had best see all men. You will note that I did not send duplicate to your attorney, because our agent said it would cost full price, and you could get a copy there for nothing, also I could get no night races. I was tempted to take the message and walk in with it. It would be about as cheap, and quite so a fellow had half a dozen of them. It is not necessary for me to say to you that we all feel sorry for you in your trouble. We are quite certain, however, that you will pull through the contest of the 12th inst. in good shape. I have not shown your letter, but have talked of contents freely, as the matter has been all over town since the 7th inst., when our sheriff first began to get telegram from your chief of police enquiring about you and the child Barbara.

Everybody shows great sympathy for you, and seem to realize how all alone you must feel so far from old acquaintances, where no use can be made of the best of all capital—a long-standing good reputation. You will note that I worked in all kinds of yonkers for you. You see I thought that if you were as bad as your traducers say you are, some grades would kick back here where you are known and have lived so long. We hope Mrs. H. has in a measure recovered from the shock of the wicked order through which she has passed.

Let us hear what the result of the battle of the 12th is. Anything I can do for you I shall very gladly undertake. Yours very truly, A. D. BICKNELL.

HUMBOLDT, Iowa, May 2, 1889.

To whom it may concern:—This certifies that we have known Mr. H. C. Hubbard for a period of over four years, during which time he has resided in this city, and has won many friends. We know him to be a first-class pharmacist and business man; he has the confidence of our citizens here. We take pleasure in recommending him to the world at large, as it is our sincere desire that fortune may smile upon him, as we consider him worthy the confidence of all.

P. M. Dickey, president; R. J. Johnson, cashier; E. A. Hills, assistant cashier Humboldt Co. Bank.

HUMBOLDT, Iowa, April 20, 1889.

—This will introduce to you Mr. H. C. Hubbard, a former resident of our city. Mr. Hubbard has for several years been our leading druggist, and has been exceedingly well and favorably known, both in our business and social circles. While we regret his decision to leave our community, we most cheerfully recommend him to the regard of the people among whom he may choose to locate. We have reason to congratulate the city of his future choice upon its acquisition of a most honorable, upright and reliable citizen, as well as successful business man.

RAY & ADAMS, General Merchants.

HUMBOLDT, Iowa, May 2, 1889.—We whose names are subscribed below very cheerfully certify that Harry C. Hubbard has done business in this town as a druggist for the five years last past, and that during all that time he has conducted his business and his relations with society as to gain the united approval of this community. We regret his removal from among us, and confidently recommend him as a good citizen and competent druggist, to any people where his choice of home may place him.

A. O. Bicknell, attorney at law; O. H. Kinney, M. D.; C. A. Babcock, lawyer; Baker, Savage & Co., wholesale grocers; P. H. Pope, merchant; A. M. Adams, county treasurer Humboldt county, Iowa; Pinney & Perkins, boots and shoes; Smith & Smith, agricultural; D. G. Pinney & Son, lumber; D. F. Coyle, lawyer and chairman; republican county central committee; Russell Bros., proprietors Russell House; Wah, Welch, M. D.

The Humboldt Kosmos of March 14th says: Last Saturday H. C. Hubbard sold his interest in the drug store to his partner, H. C. Doan. A dissolution notice appears in another place. The business will be continued by Dr. Doan, who will employ an able pharmacist as soon as possible. We will feel the loss of Mr. Hubbard. Since his residence among us he has been an enterprising man, always helping liberally any project for the good of the town. He is a No. 1 pharmacist and is a pleasant man to deal with, and wherever he decides to locate that town will have a man to be proud of and one that will do to the credit of the future and want them to remember that there is always a welcome whenever they choose to visit Humboldt.

The Humboldt Independent of March 19th says: It is with much regret that we note the dissolution of the firm of Doan & Hubbard. We regret it because it results in a loss to Humboldt of H. C. Hubbard and his family, a loss we are truly sorry to meet both in a social and business way. Mr. Hubbard has made many friends in the town and county, whose regrets will be keenly felt at parting, and whose best wishes will follow him wherever his lines are cast, which we hope will be in pleasant places.

Holiday Pointers.

With the approaching Holidays will come the savory odor of mince pies, roast turkey and Christmas puddings. In preparing for this joyous season remember that LaForest & Thompson keep a fresh supply of all kinds of Holiday delicacies. They have also a fine line of vases, fancy cups and saucers, suitable for Christmas presents. They have just received another invoice of "Our Beauty Tea," which in quality and flavor is unsurpassed.
