SECRETSOCIETIES.
A. O. U. W.—Safety Lodge No. 13; meets every Monday evening at the U. A. R. hall on Ferry street, between Second and Third, Albany, Oregon.

THE NORTHWESTERN CLUB.

Mention was made a few days ago of the formation of a Northwestern Congressional Association, composed of Senators and Representatives from the Northwestern States and Territories...

The Russian influenza appears to be rapidly invading this country. It is said that the victims of the malady are taken suddenly. On the first day the symptoms are mental depression, feverish cold and gastric disturbances...

The Central American financiers take the cake for astuteness. One of them proposes to put his government's fingers in every coffee cup in the civilized world. The object of this is to raise funds to rebuild the palace at San Salvador which was recently destroyed by fire...

London is so accustomed to fog that it does not disturb the equanimity of the residents of that city in the least. In New York, however, it is different; and a recent heavy fog there mixed up matters considerably. The electric lights were out and the fog made a darkness that could be felt. Brooklyn bridge was blocked, collisions caused and the elevated trains made both behind time, and the ferries inextricably mixed up.

The revolution in Brazil appears to have been the result of the counter intrigues, against the intriguing son-in-law of the Emperor Dom Pedro—Count D'Eu, and not to have been entered into by any number of the people of that country. In that case it may not be as stable in its permanence as could be desired.

disease called leprosy, physicians having reiterated that three thousand year old opinion that it is contagious. Of course they hasten to make preparations to quarantine the terrible disease if it should ever come within a thousand miles of them.

The matter of smokeless gun powder is now engaging the attention of various nations. Our country has sent an agent across the water to investigate the German and French alleged smokeless powder. The French article is said to be much superior, as it is not affected by exposure to the atmosphere as much as is the German powder.

The trial in Spokane of Mrs. Ione Skeels, for shooting and killing her husband, while he was in company with another woman with whom he was on terms of criminal intimacy, ended in her acquittal. If it is demonstrated that a woman is justifiable in shooting a man under such circumstances, it may lead to more virtuous lives on the part of many husbands.

ROBERT ELSMERE seems to have quite a numerous following. Recently the pastor of a Baptist church in San Francisco, is reported to have resigned his pastorate because he could not conscientiously continue to preach the tenets of that church. His congregation however desired him to remain notwithstanding his fall from their belief.

An editor in Erie, Pennsylvania, who is a church member and an exemplary young man recently published matter in this paper that was offensive to his fellow church members, and was given the alternative to either cease the publication of his paper or be expelled from the church.

The congress of the United States is said to be out growing its present quarters, and the proposition has been made to build a new room for the supreme court, and take the rooms it occupies for congressional use.

The new fangled Russian influenza, that has been introduced into this country as a kind of aristocratic malady has been demonstrated to be identical with old epizootic.
