RIOTS IN THE SOUTH.

A Fierce Fight Between Negroes and Officers.

THE MILITIA CALLED OUT.
A Number of Negroes Killed—The Outlaws Take Refuge in a Swamp—A Race War.

The Herald's Special Dispatches.
SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 26.—Advices received from the scene of negro riots a Jessup at midnight say: The situation is somewhat quieter, though an occasional shot is heard. The streets are still paraded by armed men. A negro was found dead in an alley a few moments ago, and two others of the wounded are reported dying. Fears are now entertained for the safety of the people remaining in the neighboring towns, but as all the negroes and whites seem to have congregated here very little danger need be apprehended.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 26.—At a late hour this morning intelligence was received of the trouble at Clarksville, Tenn., between officers and negroes, two of the latter being shot, one fatally and the other seriously. Frank Morrison, a special policeman, attempted to arrest Bob McCutcheon, colored, when other negroes interfered. The police came in force, and one of the negroes assaulted the chief officer with a stick. The officers then began firing with the results given—The negroes are greatly excited and troops have been sent for.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 26.—Nothing additional about the Jessup affair has been received, but a will rumor is afloat that there was serious trouble there this morning. The military here, under command of Captain Gordon of Savannah, is as follows: Georgia Hussars, thirty-seven men, Brunswick rifles, fifty and Gray, forty-five. In addition to this there is a force of 100 members of the different companies in the surrounding counties. The trouble yesterday began at 10 A. M. Just as Chief Marshal Leggett was making his rounds he saw a negro by the side of a hotel rapidly firing a rifle. "It is not Brower," somebody said, as the people began to pour out of the stores. The name of the notorious outlaw and fugitive sent terror to the hearts of the citizens who watched the antics of Brower. "It must be stopped," said Officer Leggett. He then went into a store, and arming himself with a rifle deputized William Austin, Mr. Jackson and W. L. Reddish to arm themselves and go with him to arrest the man.

The following has been received from Jessup: A posse of 20 men, under command of S. White, left for Lumber City to intercept Brower and his gang, who, it is rumored, have gone there for reinforcements. Brower lives in Lumber City, and it is supposed if he goes out of McCallan's swamp he will go to his mother's. Firing all along the picket keeps up, but principally by boys.

A crowd of armed men have just returned from a trip to the swamp and report that four colored men were found dead, but gave no names. The jail was broken into early this morning and two negro prisoners were riddled with bullets. Another negro was found at home shot through the heart, and one with a wounded arm. It is reported that others have been killed but the officers have not found them.

The search for bodies was kept up all day. Negroes are quitting their homes and moving to other towns. A large number of negroes were taken from their homes this morning and whipped, many of them being prostitutes. A crowd of white men went to several houses after breakfast this morning and compelled the negroes to leave. Hussars have started for the swamp, but the infantry company of Brunswick will remain till to-morrow. The swamp where Brewer's gang is hidden will be searched this afternoon, and if negroes are found, lynching will probably follow. The coroner now is holding an inquest on the dead bodies.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

The Sioux Chiefs Want Indian Schools Established.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—It is believed that the report of the Sioux commission, which will be out in a few days, will recommend important changes in the system of education of the Indians. The Indian training schools for Indians in the Eastern States and elsewhere away from the reservations may not be altogether like what the Sioux commission will have to say of education in its reports, according to the summary of it made public. Probably they will consider, to begin with, that the members of the commission have wandered out of their province in discussing this subject, inasmuch as they were appointed to purchase Sioux lands, but as a fact it turned out that a good deal of debate on this purchase turned on the obligations of the government to provide schools. The commissioners are under need to hold that the reservations are the proper sites for educational institutions, and the money now expended on the Carlisle and other famous Eastern schools would be more productive of good if these institutions were established near the tribes. The eight schools at Carlisle, Pa., Lawrence, Kan., Genoa, Neb., Chilocco, Indian Territory, Chickawa, Or., Hampton, Va., Philadelphia and at the Flathead reservation in Montana have a capacity for a little more than 2000 pupils. The annual cost to the government is about $325,000.

The Indians who have been here asked that schools be built on the reservations, saying that the expense of taking their children to school away from the reservation is so great that the aggregate sum would soon build houses on their reservations. This report of the commission discusses the situation as regards the Indians in Minnesota, the Dakotas, Montana, Washington, California and the Indian reservations.

In this connection the words of Secretary Noble to the chiefs may be significant. After listening to their requests for more schools, he said: "I have been glad to hear so much spoken in regard to schools. I am glad you have said as much about schools as about rations and clothes. I say to you that there shall be no less rations than heretofore, but there shall be more schools."

While it is likely that no steps will be taken to cripple any of the industrial schools now in operation, it is likely that an increased outlay for Indian education on the reservations will have the preference. President Harrison informed a California congressman, who called upon him, that there will be no Pacific coast appointments made in all probability until after the holiday recess.

DIDN'T KNOW SHE WAS FREE.

A Negro Woman Held in Slavery in Missouri Until Recently.
KANSAAS CITY, Dec. 24.—A unique case was decided in the probate court of Cooper county to-day. At the commencement of the war Joseph Hickman, now a wealthy and influential farmer in the county bought a negro slave and took her to his farm as a sewing maid. Since that time she had never been allowed to go beyond the bounds of the farm, and in her petition alleged that she had not been permitted to hold converse with any of her race, and none of her family were ever permitted to tell her the results of the war.

When her old master died three weeks ago, she ran away to Booneville, and while there learned that the slaves had been emancipated. She told her story to a lawyer, and he brought suit to recover wages of $1400 (wages at $5 per month for 25 years) from Hickman's estate. The court decided for plaintiff to-day, and allowed one-half of the amount claimed.

STORMS IN THE EAST.

A Building Demolished and Much Damage Done.

COLD WEATHER IN NEW YORK.

Death of Mrs. General Thomas—Nearly Twenty Miners Were Entombed in California.

The Herald's Special Dispatches.
NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—A thunder wind, accompanied by a heavy snow, passed over the state this morning. At Buffalo the wind reached a velocity of sixty miles per hour but no damage is reported from that section. In Rochester considerable damage was done to chimneys and out houses. In Utica immense hailstones fell and a great deal of damage was done to fruit trees.

IN PENNSYLVANIA.

LOCKHAVEN (Pa.), Dec. 26.—Heavy showers, accompanied by thunder, lightning and heavy winds passed over the city this morning.

BUILDINGS DEMOLISHED.

SHRACUSE (N. Y.), Dec. 26.—A cyclone from the southwest swept across Onondaga at 10 o'clock this morning, prostrating many structures. It caught up and carried a great column of water wildly toward and struck the barn of the People's Street Railway Company, churning away the cornice and the roof. A mass of brick and timber was hurled into the building, doing much damage. Charles A. Nichols, assistant superintendent, was instantly killed and several employees more or less seriously hurt.

Yaquina Passengers.

YACUINA, Dec. 26.—The steamship Willamette Valley arrived at 12:45 this afternoon with the following passengers: J. Krawack, wife and child, E. C. Shipp, Mrs. J. J. Whitney, C. L. Longmire, J. J. Whitney, Miss Loftis, C. S. Smith, P. H. Gleason, wife and three children, F. C. See, Wm. Watkins.

Commissioner Kamm Dies.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Commissioner Kamm of the pension bureau, is quite ill. During the day yesterday he had three chills, slightly congestive in character. He is somewhat better this morning.

General Thomas' Widow Dead.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The widow of George H. Thomas died suddenly last night at her residence here. She passed away quietly, as did her distinguished husband 19 years ago at San Francisco.

The California Mine Disaster.

SAN ANDREAS (Cal.), Dec. 26.—The latest reports from the Angles disaster are that 17, and probably 19, men are buried in mine. All hope of ever recovering the bodies is abandoned, owing to the caving of the surface Tuesday. Miners are now taking out ore, but work will probably be directed toward the spot where the bodies are buried.

A Domestic Tragedy.

SPRINGFIELD (Mass.), Dec. 26.—This morning at Ludlow John Bassett, a mill hand, killed his wife and stabbed himself six times. He cannot recover. Jealousy was the cause.

Croup Can Be Prevented.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. There is a question about this as it has been done in thousands of cases, and you may depend upon it that when a child takes the croup it is wholly owing to the negligence of its parents. True croup never appears without due and timely warning; a few hours or a day or two before the attack, the child becomes hoarse. This hoarseness is the first indication of croup, and is a sure sign that croup is to follow, unless promptly and properly treated. The free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as prescribed with each bottle, under the heading "Prevention," will dispel all symptoms of the disease. This first sign of croup, hoarseness, may be overlooked by young mothers or those who are familiar with the disease. Under such circumstances, or when not properly treated, the hoarseness becomes more marked, and the child shows more symptoms of having taken cold, or perhaps a rough cough is developed. Even at this stage Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the croup, but after the cough has developed the remedy is liable to appear at any moment. The proper way is to keep a bottle of this remedy at hand, it costs but 50 cents and only a few doses, or at most one over a third of a bottle, is required to dispel all symptoms of the disease. Can you afford to risk so much for so little? There is not the least danger in giving this remedy in large and frequent doses, which are always required, as it contains no injurious substance. As proof of this fact we refer to John L. Olson, of Des Moines, whose 15-month-old boy drank the Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without the least injury. Certainly it made the baby vomit very freely, but after taking a nap he would have been glad to have taken another bottle. The remedy has been the salvation of thousands of mothers, croup, and especially as a preventive for many years, and has never been known to fail. It is also available for colds and whooping-cough, for sale by Foshay & Mason.

The Oregon Land Company.

The Oregon Land Company has made a specialty of Astoria acre property for a short time.
