

Morning Daily Herald

SPECIAL, 12:30 A. M.

Geo. W. Smith.

There promises to be a lively demand for skates during the next few days.

Yesterday morning's overland train reached this city at 10 o'clock last night.

Dr. Patton, recently from Portland, has opened an office in the Blumberg block.

Barrows & Searls have just received an invoice of ladies fine shoes from George W. Ludlow.

G. M. Strong has at his produce stand a fine lot of dressed fowls, also some choice apples at 41 per bushel.

Granville Smith, of Tangent, while out hunting Thursday accidentally shot his thumb off by a premature discharge of his gun.

Miss Frankie Rhinehart, 13-year-old daughter of F. M. Rhinehart, of Salem, formerly of Shedd, Linn county, Oregon, arrived in this city Sunday, via Minneapolis, to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stephenson, of Harrison township. Mrs. S. and Miss R. are cousins and the latter will find a delightful home.—Oskaloosa, Iowa, paper.

Railroad men will find a good shoe-branded Engineer, at Barrows & Searls. Cheap, suitable and durable.

2,000 pieces of sheet music just received at Jones' Book Store, 10c a copy. This is regular size, has nothing about it to indicate its remarkable cheapness, but is identical with that for which you are usually asked to pay from four to ten times the price. Call and get a catalogue.

Old Boreas Blows.

The U. S. signal service prognostication for to-day is clear weather, colder. The snow storm which the Northwest has been experiencing was light at this city, the snow being hardly an inch deep, not enough to permit sleighing. The thermometer last night dropped down to 15 above zero, which, if continued a day or two, will make good skating. Farmers who have fall grain would much prefer to see more snow before any protracted freeze.

Flouring Mills Purchased.

The custom flouring mills of Shultz & Remington, located at the foot of Broadbaldin street, have been purchased by T. C. Wallace for $3500. Mr. Wallace also sold them three lots in Tacoma for $1800. The mill property is a valuable site, and a good business is being done. Dr. Scroggin will superintend the mill and the business will be continued.

Returned from the East.

Mr. Geo. S. Dickinson, of the Oregon Land Company, has returned home from a trip East. He converted himself into a walking advertisement for the great state of Oregon among the Easterners. He says that a bigger tide of immigration than ever will be turned toward Oregon next spring and summer.

Coming in from the Front.

Another lot of 150 railroad men came in from the front last night. There is so much snow in the mountains that no railroad work can be done for at least several weeks. The men will be in within a few days, and Orman & Crook are bringing in all their teams to this city. The railroad supplies will be left at the front to be used in construction as soon as the snow goes off. There is now seven feet of snow at the summit.

Linn Co. Agricultural Association.

The newly elected directors of the Linn County Agricultural Association have elected the following officers: President, A. Hackleman; vice-president, Jason Wheeler; secretary, D. B. Monteith; treasurer, G. F. Simpson. The board will meet on the 16th inst., when it is likely that the question of holding a big county fair next season and improving the fair grounds will be set on foot.

NEWS FROM EUGENE.

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 2.

The farmers' institute is in session in this city, with a good attendance and a very interesting programme.

The stock books have at last been opened for the building of a street railway, and the latest shows the taking of about one-fourth the necessary amount.

Mr. Orville Boomhower, of the Sinslaw & Eastern Railroad Company, has just returned from New York. Just what the company has succeeded in effecting is hard to find out.

Under the act passed by the last legislature the State university is free to all after this date, and it is confidently expected that considerable additions will be made to the already good attendance.

A petition is being circulated among the tax-payers asking the present officers to proceed to the building of a new courthouse. It is being numerously signed and we have no doubt but a large majority of our citizens will endorse it, and the court, we understand, will build if a majority is obtained. It is among the urgent needs of the hour.

An itinerant preacher named Webber, who has been conducting a series of revival meetings at the M. E. church, in this city for several days, put a young man out of the church last Saturday evening. He has been arrested for assault, and has been on trial for two days. Considerable excitement has resulted, and the end is not yet. The whole matter is a disgrace to the city. Public sentiment is against the preacher.

LAST OF THE HOLIDAYS.

The Elegant Display at Julius Gradwohl's Bazaar.

One of the most extensive and elegantly stocked establishments in the Willamette valley is to be found in the Golden Rule Bazaar store of Julius Gradwohl in this city. In order to accommodate his many customers he is in the field early this year, and has already commenced receiving his immense line of beautiful goods for the fall and winter and for the holidays, and has one of the most gorgeous and dazzling displays to be seen in any Golden Rule Bazaar in Oregon.

The line carried comprises a bewildering assortment of fine china, queensware and glassware of the latest styles and most delicate designs. The beautiful china and glassware, together with the decorated and fancy wares, novelties, elegant stand and hanging lamps, toys, boys' wagons and general bazaar goods, present a scene well worth one's time to visit.

Here may be found a complete line of table cutlery of the celebrated makers, Rogers' silver and silver plated goods, and Bohemian wares of every variety, while his stock of dolls, toys, toilet and fancy goods, in plush and silver, and novelties for the children will be larger than ever before. Mr. Gradwohl has enlarged his stock in such a repetitive manner that his Golden Rule Bazaar is not only a credit to the city of Albany but to the entire Willamette valley, being one of the most extensive establishments of the kind in Oregon. The most important feature to purchasers is in prices, and when we assert that his prices are as low as 77 house in the state and that his goods are sold at figures that cannot be equaled in the Northwest, it is but the recital of an absolute fact. It will be to the interests of the country merchants to purchase their holiday goods from this establishment, and orders should be sent in at once.

Mr. Gradwohl has long since proven his adaptability to this business, and it is taking no risk to say that this establishment of elegant and decorative ware is the most complete in the Willamette valley. Those who deal at the Golden Rule Bazaar, will find a large assortment to choose from, and a square, reliable gentleman to deal with.

Better Than Ever.

I am now better prepared than I have ever been to suit my customers in the shoe line. I have just received a large invoice of the celebrated Laird, Schober & Mitchell fine shoes for ladies. There is no manufacturer who claims anything better than these shoes. I intend to keep a full assortment of them in all prices, widths from A E E, and can suit the most fastidious in fit and price. I also received another invoice of the popular aloe, E. P. Reed's in waukenplast and patent leather tip. These shoes are well known in Albany as a first-class nice style shoe. Orders from the country filled with care and satisfaction guaranteed. Samuel E. Young.
