

Morning Daily Herald

SPECIAL, 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city.

Geo. W. Smith.

The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at the new stand of W. F. Kuhn's, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. For Albany and vicinity—Following is the forecast for 24 hours, ending at 8 P. M. to-morrow: Clear weather; colder.

NOTINGS ABOUT TOWN. Rabies. Chamois moccasins at Barrows & Searls.

G. L. Wilcox is arranging to open a photograph gallery in Lebanon.

O. P. Coshow, Jr., has returned from a two week's stay at Salem.

If you want a choice cup of tea try my 40 cent tea in bulk. C. E. Brownell.

Miss Ella Stratton, of Salem, who has been visiting in this city, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Esther Solomon, of Seattle, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Cohen, in this city.

Hundreds of young people were out skating yesterday, a pastime not often enjoyed in Oregon.

Barrows & Searls have just received an invoice of ladies fine shoes from George W. Ludlow.

Smoke the celebrated Havana filled 5-cent cigars, manufactured at Julius Joseph's cigar factory.

The topic for the gospel meeting for men at the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon will be, "God is Able."

Rev. Geo. W. Gibbons, of Lebanon, has accepted the pastorate of the Presbyterian church in Oregon City.

G. M. Strong has at his produce stand a fine lot of dressed fowls, also some choice apples at $1 per bushel.

Railroad men will find a good shoe branded Engineer, at Barrows & Searls. Cheap, suitable and durable.

G. E. Chamberlain will leave Monday for Natchez, Mississippi. He will remain there a few weeks, and on his return will be accompanied by his wife and William Cowan.

Rev. E. K. Prichard has been granted a vacation for a few weeks, and his pulpit at the Presbyterian church will be occupied to-day and next Sunday by Rev. W. B. Lee, D. D., of Olympia.

Particular attention is called to E. G. Beardsley's advertisement in another column. He has received for sale unquestionably the finest and cheapest Astoria property that has yet been offered for sale in Albany.

2,000 pieces of sheet music just received at Jones' Book Store, 10c a copy. This is regular size, having nothing about it to indicate its remarkable cheapness, but is identical with that for which you are usually asked to pay from four to ten times the price. Call and get a catalogue.

STATE DISPATCHES. Incorporation of a New Brownsville Enterprise—Died at the Pen.

Special to the Herald. Albany, Jan. 4.—The New Enterprise Publishing House, of Portland, Or., with a capital stock of $5000, A. C. Sanford, E. F. Herby and E. M. Allen, incorporators, filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state to-day.

Also the Oxford Milling Company, of West Brownsville; capital stock $5000, with W. R. Kirk, O. P. Coshow and John Brown as incorporators.

This morning a United States prisoner, serving a sentence under the name of Howard A. Thomas, died. He was from Portland, and has been at the penitentiary for the past eight months.

Fine Building. St. John's Lodge A. F. & A. M. held their first meeting last night in the new Masonic temple. It is an elegant structure and the hall is beautifully finished. It is lighted with electricity and is beautifully frescoed and adorned. The architect was Mr. D. C. Shell of this city, who has no superior on the coast, and the building was erected by the well known contractor, Major W. C. Cassell. The building does credit to both architect and builder. It will be dedicated with a public meeting in February.

Another Evidence of Growth. In accordance with the provisions of law that a voting precinct, when the number of voters reaches 500 or over, may be divided, a petition will be presented at the January term of county court to have East Albany precinct divided. It is also proposed to make several changes in the boundaries of other precincts of the county. While the greatest growth is shown in Albany, it is evident that the population of Linn county is rapidly increasing.

ALBANY IS ALL RIGHT

A Sympathetic Board of Captains—Skeels Investment in this City.

Mr. James P. Mead, an attorney who recently located in this city from the East, is in receipt of a letter from the secretary of a syndicate of British capitalists, with whom he formerly had dealings, inquiring as to the advantages of Albany and the resources of this portion of Oregon.

A member of the syndicate will visit this city next spring, for the purpose of making some heavy investments here. This is a part of the same British syndicate which created such a stir by heavily investing in mills and manufacturing in some of the Western states.

The low rate of interest in the East is driving much capital toward the great and growing West, and in addition to a heavy immigration during the coming season, some important investments by capitalists may be looked for.

This Week's Attractions.

The sterling and brilliant dramatic company known as the Elletors & Brophy Combination is about to commence a brief engagement in Albany at the opera house on next Tuesday January 7th, for five nights and a grand family matinee on Saturday at 2 P. M.

They have an extensive repertoire and will change their programme entirely each evening. The company is composed of some of the shining lights of the dramatic stage, and during their present season throughout California they have met with a grand reception wherever they have appeared and have gained unstinted praise from the press everywhere.

The aim of the company has been to please the public and they never make any idle boasts, but are studious and painstaking performers. The opening play will be the emotional four act drama "The Planter's Wife" followed by the laughable farce of "Turning the Table," in which Mr. Elletor will assume the character of an Irish servant.

The handsome dresses worn by Miss Lottie Beaman will be on exhibition in W. F. Read's show windows on Tuesday next between 6 and 8 P. M. thus giving the ladies a chance to view them before the opening performance.

Prices of admission during this engagement will be 25, 35, and 50 cents with no extra charge for reserved seats which can now be secured at Blackman's drug store.

A Desideratum.

Bright new tinware is the joy of the housekeeper's heart, for it is handsome and its general utility cannot be supplemented by any of the other materials, however much they may be said to the contrary notwithstanding. When that tinware can be made that is proof against rust, then it is near perfection as can be wished for. That is just what is claimed for the new Evans' patent anti-rusting tinware, kept by Matthews & Washburne Fry it.

More Boats for Yaquina.

The Yaquina Republican says that there is considerable steam boat talk on the bay just now. It may eventually result in the building of a fast boat of light draft to ply on the waters between Newport, South Beach, Yaquina, Toledo and intermediate points. A boat of the kind would be of great accommodation to the varied interest of the bay.

More Buildings.

There are no vacant store buildings in Albany, neither are there any vacant residences. This condition of things in the face of nearly half a million dollars expended in building during the past year is most flattering. Plans are being made for an immense amount of building next year. The demand for first-class business houses and the subsequent advance in rents for such rooms, should lead to a large amount of brick building during the coming season than ever before.

Pleasant Reception.

The teachers of the Albany College met at the residence of Prof. E. N. Condit Friday evening, when a reception was tendered Miss Stevens, a former student of Mrs. O. S. Pollock. A most enjoyable evening was spent, and an elegant lunch was served by Mrs. Condit.

The Albany & Astoria Railroad.

The Albany & Astoria Railroad Company is fitting up neat offices in the Flinn block, over LaForest & Thompson's grocery store. They are getting in readiness to put 1000 men to work on the line between this city and Astoria early in the spring.

For the Ladies Only.

I am now prepared to do all kinds of stamping and have over two thousand designs to choose from. Also a nice line of embroidery materials, such as arrases, crewels, No. 1 and 2 embroidery, chenilles, princess chenilles, etc. etc. And the finest pompons, tassels, crescents, cords, plushes, felts and fancy work materials ever in the city. Zephyr is going at five cents an ounce. Miss Minnie Cowell has charge of this department, and has had several years experience in all kinds of fancy work and stamping. At the store of G. W. Simpson, Albany, Oregon.

Ten Days Only.

Ho ye business men! Listen to the voice of the most conservative and successful men of our town. Buy an acre of land in Albany's addition to Astoria, which to-day costs you less than $25 per lot, and which will double in value in less than one year. Now don't be a gun up, but buy now. For further information inquire of the Oregon Land Co., Albany.

MY MISTAKE IN DISAPPEARANCE

Mrs. W. H. Greenwood, of this city, writes to the photographer, whose gallery is located on the corner of Second and Ferry streets, left her home at the gallery to call at the residence of Mrs. G. L. Blackman. She did not go there, and has no recollection of her departure since.

Mr. Greenwood did not wish to give any publicity to the matter, and has been quietly searching for any trace of her. He says she went away in the best of humor and took her extra clothing, and had little money with her. He does not think she intended to leave the city.

He says she has sometimes been inclined to be hysterical, and feared in such a mood she had boarded some of the trains. Mr. Greenwood says she is an estimable woman, and he cannot account for her strange disappearance.

Any information leading to the discovery of her whereabouts will be thankfully received by him at this city.

COAST NOTES.

Newly Items as Reported by Exchanges Throughout the Northwest.

Oregon is enjoying a genuine touch of winter.

A revival preacher named Webster was fined $5 and costs at Eugene Thursday for ejecting a young man from the church.

About three miles of the jetty are finished at Astoria, and work has shut down for want of funds. They will have to await another appropriation from congress.

The steamer State of California, which was overdue at Portland, and was thought to have been wrecked, arrived Friday. She broke her rudder, which occasioned the delay.

On last Saturday, while out hunting near Junction, Frank McCadden, son of G. W. McCadden, of Corvallis, was accidentally shot in the foot by a companion. Latest reports announce that it will probably be necessary to amputate the member, which is to be very much regretted. The boy is but 13 years of age. His father started immediately for Junction on hearing of the accident.

On Sunday afternoon, just at the time when the wind equal came, says the Yaquina Republican, Mrs. J. R. Bayley and the doctor were trying to get the cows into the barn. Mrs. Bayley stepped to the door as it blew to with great force. Her arm was caught at the wrist and thrown out of joint by the force with which the wind struck it. She pulled the wrist into place without help. She suffered considerably from the accident.

The death of Judge Luther B. Ison occasions a vacancy in the judgeship of the Sixth judicial district, which will have to be filled by appointment by Gov. Penneyer. The candidates for the position are as follows: H. E. Courtney, T. C. Hyde and A. J. Lawrence, of Baker; Thomas H. Crawford and J. W. Shelton, of Union. From Grant county Morton D. Clifford's friends will urge his claims. Umatilla county also has a man for the place in the person of Judge W. M. Ramsey.

It is said by those who ought to know if they don't take Portland daily newspaper. Its publication will be commenced two weeks from Monday, the paper being issued from the type of the defunct Journal and the old presses of the San Francisco Examiner. It would seem from the current rumors that the new paper is to be a part of the big Examiner, and it is to be backed by plenty of money. This may be a realization of the oft repeated prophecy that the Hearsts would start a daily in Portland to share honors with the Oregonian. A few weeks will tell.

During the past few days Representative Hermann has been camped at the pension department with a voluminous budget of business for Oregon old soldiers. He has been making an effort for the establishment of pension boards in various towns in Oregon to facilitate and lessen the expense of medical examinations, and to this end he obtained the appointment of the following board for Dallas: Des. L. N. Woods, H. B. Stanley and E. S. Ketchum.

HALESEY NOTES.

Halsey, Jan. 4.

Miss Mary Marten is intending to start for her old home in the east next week.

The Halsey public school will commence Monday the 6th after a vacation of two weeks.

Mrs. Sarah Lane, mother of Joseph Lane, is very ill. She is over eighty-nine years old.

Mr. J. W. Adams of Halsey, is manufacturing cultivators for the spring market. It is his intention to make one hundred this winter.

Some unknown person or persons, entered the house of Mr. Henry Bressler of Halsey last week, and helped themselves to a loaf of bread and three glasses of jelly. There was some silver ware and money in the house, but happy to say they did not take any.

A number of persons collected at the home of Charles Watson near Halsey on New Years eve, and had a very pleasant time. The following is a list of those present: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frisby, Mr. and Mrs. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Godly, Mr. and Mrs. John Bressler, Miss Viola Lane, Miss Anna Godly, Melvin Bond, Fred Ralston and Samuel Ralston.

THE CITY DADS.

The New Members of the Council Will Take Their Seats To-Morrow Night.

A regular annual meeting of the city council will be held to-morrow evening, when the newly elected members will take their seats, and Mayor Cowan will deliver his annual message.

The members who retire are Councilman Gradwohl and Parker. The new council will stand: First Ward, E. M. French, B. F. Tabler, Second Ward, W. R. Garrett, C. G. Burkhardt, Third Ward, G. W. South and L. W. Deyoe.

They are good men, and will properly look after, guard and promote the city's interests during the year 1890.
