GOV. HILL TALKS.

His Annual Message Deals With Election Reforms.

A STATE TREASURER SUEB.

A Woman Dies in Prison in New York—A Lad Attempts Poison All His Near Relatives.

The HERALD'S Special Dispatch
ALBANY (N. Y.), Jan. 7.—Gov. Hill in his annual message to the legislature is desirous of some changes in the laws relating to elections. He reviews the present election laws and says: "Yet in spite of these excellent provisions our laws do not reach two great evils which attend our elections, intimidation and corruption. These flourish unchecked, bringing shame upon our state, rendering our elections a mockery and threatening even the integrity and existence of our political institutions. It is indeed the allegation which is made and not denied is that in some parts of our state at the recent presidential election corruption was so usual that the scenes at the polls resembled an auction more than an election, and that in other places intimidation was so prevalent and undisguised, particularly at some of our manufacturing centers, that employees were verily driven to the polls and actually instructed by their employers as to what tickets they should vote." The governor reviews the Australian system and finds some excellent things in it, but as a whole condemns it. He recommends the passage of laws which will provide for a secret compartment for voters, and claims that this provision alone would do much to prevent corruption, and would secure the chief benefits of the true electoral returns. The governor objects to an exclusively official ballot, and says the present system which requires voters to vote by placing a mark opposite the name of his candidate is unconstitutional, because it makes it an educational qualification that the voter should be able to read, otherwise he can't know where to place his mark.

AN IMPORTANT SUIT.

Can State Treasurers Lean the State's Funds?

DENVER, Col., Jan. 7.—The attorney general yesterday afternoon on behalf of the state began suit against ex-state treasurers Nathan S. Culver, William C. Sanders, Fred Walden, George H. Scallo and Peter W. Brun, together with their bondsmen, for the purpose of recovering money which it is alleged these officials received as interest on state funds loaned to different banks and for which they failed to account to the state. It is believed that the amount received by the ex-treasurer during his two years' term will reach nearly $100,000. Suits are brought for the question of whether or not the state has a right to demand the return of interest upon state funds held by them during their incumbency. The principle point involved in the controversy is whether the state treasurer is custodian for the state, or whether, being abundantly liable for any and all losses of the state moneys entrusted to him he becomes virtually owner of the money to do with it as he sees fit until called upon to use it for state purposes or turn it over to his successor at the expiration of his term of office.

A FIENDISH SON.

He Attempts to Poison the Whole Family.
HUNTINGTON (W. Va.), Jan. 7.—N. Church, aged 15, made an attempt to poison his father, mother, brothers and sisters Sunday night near Guyandotte. One child, a girl aged 13, is dead. One brother and sister are dying, and the father, mother and fourth child are in a critical condition. It was done in revenge for a scolding which his father gave him. The murderer escaped.

A TRAGIC DEATH.

Mrs. Southworth Dies in Prison in New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Mrs. Hannah B. Southworth, who shot and killed Stephen Pettus on November 23d, died in her cell at the tombs prison this morning. Dr. Chetwood, who granted the death certificate, gives as the cause of death, primarily heart failure and general debility.

INFLUENZA ON THE WANE.

Fewer Deaths in New York—Philadelphia Policemen Afflicted.
NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Vital statistics for the twenty-four hours ended at noon to-day show the number of deaths to be 146, a decrease of nearly 100 compared with the previous twenty-four hours. It is believed that sanitary headquarters that the worst of the influenza epidemic is over. The sick list in the police department, however, shows no abatement, but the reverse.

Abolished Staggs.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 7.—Staggs, the missing Northern Pacific ex-

A ROYAL VICTIM.

The Dowager Empress Augusta Dies from Influenza.

SHE SUFFERED A RELAPSE.

Diphtheria and Black Tongue Raging in West Virginia—Many Deaths—Physicians at Work.

Special to the HERALD.
BERLIN, Jan. 7.—Dowager Empress Augusta, who has been suffering from influenza, has had a relapse. The emperor and empress, and their two eldest sons, Crown Prince William and Prince Frederick and Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Baden, son-in-law and daughter-in-law respectively of the dowager empress, are at her bedside. Count Ven Heltke left her palace at noon. He is most affected at her alarming condition. A large crowd assembled before the palace and much sympathy is shown for the empress.

LATERS.

The Dowager Empress Augusta died at 4:30. The news of her death was received with most profound sympathy throughout the empire.
A STRICKEN DISTRICT.
MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Jan. 7.—Physicians who have returned from the country in the mountain district along the Cheat River, in which diphtheria was reported as raging, tell horrible stories of suffering from the effect of two diseases, diphtheria and black tongue. The latter has broken out in the last two weeks, and about thirty deaths have occurred. The county has erected a temporary hospital, and a large force of physicians and surgeons are attending to it.

DRIVEN FROM HOME.

Two Young Girls Found Drunk, Asleep With a Man in Tacoma.
TACOMA, Jan. 6.—Three persons were arrested early this morning concerning whom there promises to be something interesting developed. William Smith, Barbara Jandus and Lucy Fryer were sleeping together in a room above the Etna saloon on C street. William Smith is a young man about 22 or 23 years old, and holds a responsible situation. Barbara Jandus is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jandus, who have become well known to the public from their recent adventures in the police courts and jails. To Justice least the girls told a painful story. Barbara Jandus said that her mother had driven her away from home and that she would gladly return if her mother would treat her well. Lucy Fryer said her mother kept a boarding house, and that she also had been driven from home. It being the first time the girls had been under arrest, they were discharged. The girls were taken to the White Shield Home, and an effort will be made to induce them to reform. Smith is still under arrest at the city jail. Chief Chesney intends to swear out a warrant and have him prosecuted to the full extent of the law. As the girls are both under 16 years of age, the charge to be made against Smith will be a serious one.

LOST IN THE MOUNTAINS.

California Mail Carriers on Snow-shoes Overtaken by Night.
NEVADA, Jan. 6.—Malcom F. McLeod, a mail carrier, was frozen to death this morning. Yesterday afternoon he and John Griswell started on snowshoes to carry the mail and express to Washington, eight miles distant, expecting to get there by dark. Each had a twenty pound load. Two miles from Washington McLeod began to fail, when his companion carried and dragged him to within half a mile of the town, but could not get him beyond there, as he too was rapidly succumbing. He went into town for relief. A party hastened to McLeod. He was still breathing when they reached him, but died before they got him to town. The carriers had become bewildered and traveled in a circle many hours.

Better Than Ever.

I am now better prepared than I have ever been to suit my customers in the shoe line. I have just received a large invoice of the celebrated Laird, Scholer & Mitchell fine shoes for ladies.
