THE PRESIDENT'S VACATION,

Pradulent Issuance of Patent to Lands Valued at $1,000,000 - A Hold-Gver Official in Trouble.

Special Correspondence. | WASHINGTON, Jan, 1.—The president took advantage of his holiday to make a little trip in pursuit of recrea-tion and fresh air. He went down the Potomac with a small party of friends on a steam yacht, and after shooting as many wild ducks as they cared to, the party proceeded down to the mouth of the James river, and up that stream to Richmond, stopping on the way at Lower Brandon, the ancestral home of the Harrison family. The president returned from Richmond on a late train Saturday night, and expressed himself to your correspondent as having had a delightful time. He was particularly pleased with his reception at Richmond. Secretary Proctor and Senator Morrill left here this morning for South Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, for the purpose of examining the facilities of the iron works at that place for making heavy guns for the Army. They are expected to return to Washington to-morrow.

Secretary Tracy says there is not the slightest foundation for the sensational story sent out from here by the correspondent of a New York paper alleging that our new squadron of war ships had been sent to Lisbon to enforce certain demands that this Government had made upon Portugal. The squadron stopped first at Lisbon simply because it had been arranged so to do, and will keep right on over
