

Morning Daily Herald

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city.

ON SALE. The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at the new stand of W. F. Kuhn's, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. For Albany and vicinity—Following is the forecast for 24 hours, ending at 8 p. m. to-day: Clear weather; colder.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN. W. H. Parker, of Yaquina, is in the city. Do not miss the play at the opera house to-night.

Babies Chamois moccasins at Barrows & Searls. Jefferson is to have a newspaper to be called the Review.

For the skin Hubbard's Elegant Lotion is bound to win. If you want something to read call at Kuhn's news store.

If you want a choice cup of tea try my 40 cent tea in bulk. C. E. Brownell. Ala Harris and wife, of San Francisco, are spending a few days in this city.

A good second hand organ for sale cheap at the art studio over Linn County bank. The Oregon Land Company will make a specialty of Astoria acre property for a short time.

Barrows & Searls have just received an invoice of ladies fine shoes from George W. Ludlow. Smoke the celebrated Havana filled 5-cent cigars, manufactured at Julius Joseph's cigar factory.

G. M. Strong has at his produce stand a fine lot of dressed fowls, also some choice apples at $1 per bushel. The state horticultural society will meet in Portland next Tuesday, at which time new officers will be elected.

J. K. Weatherford has returned from Salem, where he was engaged in legal business before the supreme court. Railroad men will find a good shoe branded Engineer, at Barrows & Searls. Cheap, suitable and durable.

Dr. R. C. Hill, who recently fell down a stairway in the Foster block, is lying in a critical condition at his home on Fifth street. D. H. Gotshall, who was married to Mrs. Dairymple, of the firm of Merie Davis & Co., milliners of this city, has opened a saloon at Tillamook.

Navigators is entirely suspended on the Columbia river with the exception of the R. R. Thompson, which will try to get to Astoria with the mails. Mr. David Scott, postmaster at Fox Valley, was in the city yesterday. He reports about 13 inches of snow in Fox Valley making feed for stock a desirable acquisition.

The meeting of the directors of the Farmers & Merchants' Ins. Co. was postponed last evening until Saturday night, at which time the officers of the company will be elected. Mrs. Dr. H. B. Bagley, of Seattle, is visiting her cousin, Mr. J. K. Elderkin, in this city. She will be joined by her husband in a few days, when they will leave for Mexico to spend the winter.

To be convinced that the railway addition to Astoria is the nearest, cheapest and best property now offered for sale by any agent. Call on E. G. Beardsley and see the maps showing the location of all the different additions to this booming city of Astoria.

Frozen Up. River navigation is almost at a standstill at present. The Three Sisters and the Wm. Hoag are both frozen in at Oregon City. The river from that point to Portland is frozen over to the depth of one and one-half inches. The ferry boats at Portland are making regular trips under difficulties. A few warm days will loosen everything up and clear the river of all ice.

Sure Cure for La Grippe. There are a great many cases of bad colds in our city, and not a few think it to be the Russian ailment. The best thing the people of Albany can do to prevent being taken down with this terrible la grippe is to use nothing but the best groceries, fine pineapples and other delicacies. To be found at the Willamette Packing Co.'s at the lowest possible figure.

Estimable Woman Dead. A dispatch from San Diego, Cal., of the 7th inst. says: Mrs. Mary E. Henderson, of Eugene, Or., while visiting her son, Judge J. J. Henderson, in San Diego, died at his residence last night. She was the widow of the late Hon. J. H. D. Henderson, who represented Oregon in congress. The remains will be taken to Oregon.

STATE DISPATCHES.

Death of Ex-Governor Woods in Portland—Salem Notes.

Special to the Herald. PORTLAND, Jan. 8.—The well known vice-president of the California Athletic Club, W. N. Rice, will arrive in Portland in a few days to represent Choyinski for his battle with the "Irish Giant" on the 16th inst. Choyinski writes that he is training hard in the California Athletic Club, and will not arrive until three days before the fight. The "Giant" is hard at work, and expects to fulfill the expectations of the young men who are backing him. A pool of $1200 has been subscribed to back him on January 16.

At 7 o'clock last night Ex-Gov. George L. Woods died at St. Vincent's hospital, after suffering from a complication of diseases for the past three years. He was a native of Boone county, Missouri, and was born there in 1831. In 1847 he accompanied his parents to Oregon, and lived with them on his father's donation claim in North Yamhill. In early manhood he evinced an aptitude for the legal profession, and after studying law for some time he was admitted to the bar. He speedily gained a prominent position in the profession, which he maintained until stricken by disease. Soon after his admission to the bar he made himself felt in politics as a logical debator, and in 1866 he was chosen governor in this state. Subsequently he was appointed governor of Utah by the late President Grant.

The exact time of the funeral has not yet been fixed, but it is expected to take place before Sunday.

SALEM NEWS.

SALEM, Jan. 8.—The following articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state to-day: The Portland and Oregon City Railway Company, with principal office at Portland, capital stock $200,000; and D. C. Thompson, Frank Dekum, James B. David, Geo. H. Durham, R. L. Durham, Cleveland Rockinwell and H. C. Stratton, incorporators. The object is to build and operate a railway between the two points.

Also the Star Milling Company, of McMinnville, principal office at McMinnville; capital stock, $14,000, with J. S. Higgs, W. C. Helmsy, David Stout and J. S. Marham as incorporators.

James White, superintendent of the street car line, had his men out in full force this morning clearing off the track and opening the switches, so as to be ready to run the cars as soon as the snow thaws off. The street cars have not been running this week.

The following notaries public were appointed to-day: L. W. Hoobling and Wm. Roberts, Portland; A. R. Kanaga, Astoria; H. C. Porter, Aumsville.

The Elleford-Brophy Co.

The presentation of Hazel Kirke at the opera house last night by the Elleford-Brophy Company was not attended by as large an audience as it deserved. This play has been put on a number of times in this city, but never in as altogether a satisfactory manner as it was played last evening. James M. Brophy in the character of the stern old Quaker mill owner, Dunstan Kirke, brought out all the power, and at the same time all the delicate shades of acting the part contained, and left no room for criticism. Lotie Beaumont in the leading role of Hazel Kirke was simply charming and won a hearty applause. Jessie Norton as Dolly Dutton played this sparkling, vivacious part to perfection, and introduced some taking songs. W. J. Elleford as Pittacus Green was irresistibly funny, and indeed there is not a weak member in the entire company. To-night they will play Lady Audley's Secret, followed by the one-act farce, "Confusion." There should be a crowded house.

Oregon Claims One.

The New York Mail and Express says: "Thirty-five years ago at Balaklava the charge of the Light Brigade, made immortal by Tennyson, took place. Out of the 600 men who went into that memorable charge, but 198 came back to tell the tale. A roster is kept of those now living who were members of the Light Brigade, and according to the latest accounts there are but twenty-one names on the list. Of these nineteen are in England and two in the United States. The latter are Captain Thomas Morley, who is connected with the army medical department at Washington, and Captain Victor Robert Gurney, who resides in this city." The above must be a mistake, for Oregon claims the honor of having one of these heroes in the person of Rev. A. LeRoy, Baptist pastor of Brownsville.

Yaquina Steamships.

The steamship Willamette Valley sailed from San Francisco for Yaquina yesterday. She will sail from Yaquina on Sunday, January 12th. Yaquina has one advantage over the Columbia, noticeable just now. There is no river to be blockaded with ice. When rail connection is made with Astoria this trouble will also be avoided largely there.

Pioneer Lady Dead.

Mrs. Sarah Lane, mother of J. H. Lane, of Halsey, died at her home at that place on the 21st inst., at the advanced age of 80 years. She came to Oregon from Indiana in 1833, and has lived for many years in Linn county, where she had many warm friends.

COAST NOTES.

Newly Notes as Reported by Exchange Throughout the Northwest.

For about three miles the jetty is finished at Astoria, and work has shut down for want of funds. They will have to await another appropriation from congress.

A depot has been erected at Coe, the new station on the Oregon Pacific, a mile and a half beyond Breitenbush and a turntable put in. It promises to be quite an important point.

The Milton Eagle is having an angry battle with a Methodist minister named Spencer, in that town. The press and pulpit should not quarrel—they should go hand in hand—that's the way in Albany.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. South Miller, living at Milton, fell into a tub of scalding water Tuesday and was severely burned about the back and the arms. Recovery is doubtful, says the Eagle.

There is considerable steamboat talk on the Yaquina bay just now. It may eventually result in the building of a fast boat of light draft to ply on the waters between Newport, South Beach, Yaquina, Toledo, and intermediate points.

Lake County Examiner: Latest reports from the desert are to the effect that stock generally are doing very well. The poor cattle and sheep are gradually dying, but those which went there in good condition are faring about as usual at this season of the year.

At last a move has been made in the right direction for the building of a decent court house and jail in Lane county. Petitions have been prepared and are being circulated asking the county court to move in the matter and are being generally signed.

Judge Deady will sail on the steamer Alameda from San Francisco for Honolulu January 11th. He will spend two months at the islands, and hopes the change will benefit him, as he has not entirely recovered from the effects of his severe illness a few months since.

W. S. Grady, Jr., brother of the late Henry W. Grady, is now at Toledo, Or. He was until quite recently a clerk at the Siletz reservation. He came to Oregon on account of his health, and contemplates returning East. The younger brother of the great editor also possesses great journalistic abilities.

"Died On Duty," is the heading of the Baker City Blade to the following: Last Thursday Mr. Cooper, the mail carrier on the Wealden-Corner creek route was found dead on the trail crossing the Snake river divide. He had been dead but a short time when found, and his death is supposed to have been caused by heart disease.

Coquille City Herald: John Sturdivant has struck a rich quartz ledge in Iron mountain, between the forks of Sucker creek. He has been blasting for three months in beautiful rock and was about giving up in despair when he was urged to put in one more charge, which he did. This revealed the richest rock ever found in this part of Oregon, running from $700 to $2000 per ton. He had got within seven inches of it when he was about giving it up.

Printed by Electricity.

This morning the HERALD is printed in its new quarters. The press is driven by electricity, and the building is lighted from the same source, which is supplied of course from the Electric Light Company's dynamo. The removal was made in order to afford larger and more commodious quarters, rendered necessary by the increasing business and the improvements to be made in the near future. There is no longer any question as to the fact that Albany, the natural railroad and manufacturing center of Oregon, is destined to be second in importance to no city in Oregon outside of the metropolitan, Portland, and the Herald proposes to keep abreast with the growth of the city and remain as in the past an active factor in the promotion of any and all enterprises tending to promote that growth.

An Important Session.

County court is in session. The commissioners are wrestling with the appointment of road supervisors, the question of changing the boundaries of some of the voting precincts, the matter of granting the right of way to the street railway company, the Jefferson bridge question, and several other important matters. The session will probably be continued several days.

Found Lying on the Sidewalk.

The other evening Nightwatchman Jones picked up a tramp lying on the walk in front of the Willamette Packing Co.'s store. Every one present thought him intoxicated, but it was a mistake. He was very hungry, and on looking in the front door the sight of so many first-class eatables paralyzed him and he dropped to the sidewalk like a dead man, where he was found by Nightwatchman Jones.

A Progressive Farmer.

Mr. D. O. Quick of Souver, Benton county, was in this city yesterday. He has been experimenting with ensilage. He built last summer a silo large enough to put up ten acres of corn. He says it is the most economical way of putting up feed for stock, and thinks that it should become of more general use among farmers of Oregon. He left a quantity of the ensilage at the Herald office for inspection.

After a Big Job.

J. S. Antonelle, who has completed a contract on the Oregon Pacific railroad eastward from this city, has gone to New York to interview the Nicaragua people relative to taking a contract on that extensive work.
