CONGRESS MOURNS.

For Judge Kelley, the Dead "Father of the House."

DRAPED IN SABLE BLACK.

Briefs Nomination Was Bought With Gold—The Infant King of Spain on His Death Bed—Other News.

The HERALD'S Special Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The house is draped in somber black, and adorned with emblems of white flowers, stood the desk so long occupied by Judge Wm. D. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, this morning reminding the members that "The Father of the House" has departed from their midst.

The funeral services here will take place in the house of representatives Saturday noon. His remains will be buried in Laurel Hill cemetery, Philadelphia.

BRICE'S NOMINATION.

Simply a Tribute to the Money Power—Democrats in a Hole.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Murat Halstead in referring to the nomination of Brice to-day declared that it had put the democrats in a hole.

"It is simply a tribute to the money power," continued Field Marshall, and they have openly endorsed a member of such power. How can the democrats ever again pose before the country as opponents of monopolies, trusts and grasping millionaires. Brice is not an Ohio man, and his admission to the senate is simply giving New York three senators."

THE INFANT KING.

He Is Better, But Will Probably Not Recover.

MADRID, Jan. 10.—The infant king suffered from another cardiac attack last night, but later the attack decreased in severity, and there was a slight improvement in his condition, but his physicians think his recovery is extremely doubtful.

The government has adopted special measures to prevent an eruption in the event of the king's death.

IN HIS OLD PLACE.

Beggs Having Escaped the Gallows Is Honored by Camp 20.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—The News Service: In all probability John T. Beggs will be senior guardian of camp 20, Clan-na-Gael, to-night.

Beggs may and may not be president, but it is said that his re-election is assured. The camp 20 members have held a caucus and decided that Beggs' acquittal is, in outline, a verdict not guilty for camp 20, and that suspicion that the murder was hatched in that therefore they have decided to elevate Beggs to his old place.

JUDGE KELLEY DEAD.

The "Father of the House" Passed Quietly Away.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—At 6:20 this evening Congressman Kelley, the veteran father of the house of representatives, died.

Speaker Reed was notified, and at once directed Sergeant-at-Arms Holmes to take charge of the remains, and conduct the funeral in accordance with the wishes of the family.

Mr. Kelley was in his 76th year, and had lived to finish his term would have served continuously thirty years in congress.

TWO LORDS INDICTED.

Frequenters of an Immoral London Club—Their Names Suppressed.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—At the trial today of persons charged with connection with the West End scandal, a boy witness referred to two aristocrats who frequently visited the house in Cleveland street. The court ordered that their names be suppressed for the present, and that they be indicted as "Lord C" and "Lord L."

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Nearly Fifty Tons of Postal Matter Destroyed by Fire.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 9.—The westbound Union Pacific fast mail train was wrecked at Sidney, Neb., this morning. Of seven cars, five were burned. Two locomotives, moving at a high speed passed over a broken rail, but the cars were thrown down an embankment, and two were in flames at once. Loss to the railway company is about thirty thousand dollars, but compared with the damage to persons whose letters were in transit the sum is nothing. Two mail cars contained nearly fifty tons of postal matter. No water could be secured, but the train men and passengers made strenuous efforts to save the mail of Wyoming, Oregon, California and other western states but none is left.

Declared a Forgery.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—Parnell has written a letter stating that the letter published under his name Wednesday, addressed to Ennis Board, is a forgery.

Gaiteau's Nephew an Absconder.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—L. P. Scoville, a nephew of Gaiteau, the assassin of President Garfield, has disappeared, and his whereabouts are unknown. He is secretary of a local building and loan association, and it is alleged he is short in his accounts to the extent of between $5000 and $6000. He is a son of George Scoville, whose wife was a sister of Gaiteau.

Chicago Banker Captures a Robber.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—At Neilson, Gepak & Rozier's bank this afternoon, two men attempted to grab $1500 while Ferdinad Gepak was alone in the bank. Gepak grabbed both men and struggled so manfully that the thieves dropped their booty, and only one of them got away.

"That's pretty cheeky," replied one of the astonished men.

"Yes," she said, as she began addressing the card. "But this is a special case. I've no meat in the house and must hear from my old man, who is in Buffalo, but intends jumping out to Philadelphia to-morrow. Staud back and give me room to swing my arm and tell him it's either five dollars before Saturday or I'll skip with a Pittsburg bill poster."

Justice Harlan's Little Joke.

Washington Post.

Judge Harlan is delivering an interesting series of lectures on the Constitution and constitutional law before the Columbian Law School. Many people avail themselves of the opportunity to hear the distinguished jurist, and the lecture-room is crowded.

The Judge may be a humorist in a sly way, but it doesn't often crop out. One interesting point was being discussed.

"This matter," said he, "will come up before the Supreme Court next February, by which time Judge Brewer will undoubtedly be on the bench and the bench will be full."

The class howled and the Judge blushed. Now it is a question whether he was intentionally or not.

Lightning in Medical Cases.

New York Sun.

The use of electricity in surgery is extending daily. It is now largely employed in England in gynecological cases. It has long been known to be capable of relieving neuralgic pain, and has now been applied to cases of ovarian neuralgia, the treatment of which presents peculiar difficulties.

Dr. Apostoli, in giving the results of his practice, states that he has often had patients whose ovaries began to be so painful and tender that they could not bear the slightest pressure, but who after a few minutes' application of the induced current could submit to firm pressure with an indication of pain, declaring that both pain and tenderness had entirely disappeared.

Character in Typewriting.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The use of the typewriter does not baffle the writing expert. Men and women who use typewriters show nearly as much individuality in their work as they would if they used a pen. It is harder to detect, but that is all the difference. Any business man who is used to reading correspondence from concerns which employ several typewriters can tell at a glance which one of the half dozen wrote the letters he receives. Signs of carelessness
