The Potato Market.

Potatoes, usually so abundant in the markets of Oregon and Washington, are now scarce and high, an ordinary article retailing at $1.50 per bushel in Portland, and the supply being anything but ample. The usual acreage was planted last spring, but the crop was short in many sections, owing to the unusual dryness of the growing season, while the demand, owing to the unexampled increase in population has been largely in excess of that of any former year.

Sure Cure for La Grippe.

There are a great many cases of bad colds in our city, and not a few think it to be the Russian ailment. The best thing the people of Albany can do to prevent being taken down with this terrible la grippe is to use nothing but the best groceries, fine poultry and other delicacies, to be found at the Willamette Packing Co.'s at the lowest possible figure.

COUNTY COURT.

Appointment of Judges and Clerks of Election—New Voting Precincts Created.

The January term of County Court adjourned last evening, after a three days session.

The matter of the application of the Albany Street Railway Co., for right of way over the county roads adjoining the city, was continued and the petitioners requested to furnish in writing the entry desired to be made.

The petition of citizens for a bridge at Jefferson, to be built jointly by Linn and Marion counties, was also continued.

Several important changes were made in the voting precincts of the county, three new precincts being created, which makes the number now 23.

The steady immigration during the past two years has swollen the number of voters in some of the precincts adjoining Albany so that it was deemed advisable to divide them.

The name of East Albany precinct was first changed to Albany. Then the east portion of the latter and a small portion of Lebanon precinct was cut off, forming East Albany precinct. The dividing line in the city is Jefferson street.

The voting place was fixed at the office of the Farmers' warehouse.

Tangent precinct was created from portions of West Albany and Center precincts, the dividing line being four miles south of Albany.

Peoria precinct was created from portions of Halsey, Shedd and Orleans precincts.

A free scholarship to the State Agricultural College, at Corvallis, was granted to David P. Adamson.

The following road supervisors were appointed, and the several expense accounts of the retiring supervisors allowed:

A Bloody Foot Race.

Wednesday afternoon some 200 persons gathered at the race grounds south of Independence to witness a foot race between W. M. Martin, a McMinnville sprinter, and Harry Gilbert, a resident of Independence, recently from the East. The track was scraped out of the snow, and was 100 yards long. The stakes were $250 a side.

A bad start was made by Gilbert, and Martin got at least ten feet the start. Gilbert crept up on Martin, and when within thirty feet of the goal, was almost abreast, when Martin fell. A few feet further Gilbert fell, and both scrambled to get under the line first. The judges decided no race, and after much quarreling it was decided to run it over at McMinnville on Saturday, the 18th.

Considerable excitement existed among the betters, and some went on the train asking that their stakes be paid back instead of held until the next race. Both men were cut and bleeding about the knees and breast from the fall. Time, 13 seconds.

Better Roads Needed.

Farmers' institutes are becoming popular in every section of the state. At a meeting held recently at Eugene, Professor John B. Letcher of the agricultural college, read a valuable paper on road making. The paper is well worth attention from Oregon's law-makers, who may be called upon at the next session of the legislature to revise the road laws. The whole state is suffering from the lack of ordinarily good roads.

The discussion of such practical questions will build up the farmers' institute into the affections of the people.

Political Prescription Prepared.

An exchange rises with the remark: We would mildly suggest that, at the next state election, the people would kindly elect Portland men to all important offices it would be nearly in harmony with the federal appointments, and by this means the metropolis, of which we are all so proud, might manage to exist until another Portland man could be elected to the United States senate. The country districts might just as well walk right up and take their medicine. The prescription is being prepared.

The Last Night.

The Elleford-Brophy Company presented East Lynne at the opera house last night in a most satisfactory manner. It was played in their most finished style. This company has given those who attended a week of splendid entertainments. They will conclude their week's engagement with a double bill this evening, playing "Fun in a Boarding School," followed by a most laughable farce. This is one of the company's best plays, and they will doubtless be accorded a crowded house.

Church Dedication.

Rev. I. B. Fisher, pastor of the Evangelical church of this city left last evening for Sweet Home to assist in the dedication of a new church edifice at that place. Hence there will be no services in the Evangelical church in this city on Sunday. The new church at Sweet Home is under the pastorate charge of Rev. Thos. A. Yost. Rev. C. C. Poling, presiding elder, will assist in the dedication service on Sunday.

Ladies Aid Society.

The yearly meeting of the Albany Ladies Aid Society will be held at the residence of Dr. C. C. Kelley on next Thursday at 2 P. M. Election of officers and other important business will be attended to. A general attendance of all charitably inclined ladies are earnestly requested to be present. By authority of the society.

Cold in Eastern Oregon.

A correspondent at Prineville, who writes under date of January 4th, says that there is eight to nine inches of snow at that place and much deeper further out. The thermometer indicated on the 4th inst. 20 degrees below zero. Stockmen are feeling somewhat uneasy.

Found Lying on the Sidewalk.

The other evening Nightwatchman Jones picked up a tramp lying on the walk in front of the Willamette Packing Co.'s store. Every one present thought him intoxicated, but it was a mistake. He was very hungry, and on looking in the front door the sight of so many first-class eatables paralyzed him and he dropped to the sidewalk like a dead man, where he was found by Nightwatch Jones.

Removal.

The office of the Daily and Weekly Herald has been removed into the Foster block up stairs in the rooms formerly occupied by the Masonic lodge, where larger and more commodious quarters have been fitted up. Patrons of the paper will please observe the change.

FROM FAR OFF COREA.

Green Seeds Fruit Trees in Exchange for Angolian Pheasants.

Judge O. N. Denny, who introduced the Mongolian pheasants into this state, has been conferring a somewhat similar favor on Corea by introducing Oregon fruit trees into that country. In a letter to one of his Oregon friends he says: As this seems a suitable climate and soil for the purpose, I have decided to push the introduction of our valuable varieties of fruit.

Upon my recommendation several hundred fruit trees have been ordered from Oregon, beside small fruits, such as raspberries, currants, gooseberries, grapes, etc. I am sending orders by this mail for about 650 trees for myself, which will no doubt be repeated from time to time. While my wife and I are both in good health, we are growing very restless for at least a visit to our dear home in our cherished country, and shall surely leave here in April, after the expiration of my second contract.
