OVER THE WIRES.
Gov. Penoyer and Others Honor the Late Ex-Gov. Woods.
EXCITEMENT IN PORTUGAL.
England Bullheads the Little Kingdom into Meek Submission: Ohio's New Governor Sworn into Office.

THE HERALD'S Special Dispatches.
PORTLAND, Jan. 13.—The lawyers who spoke of ex-Gov. Woods to-day had only kind words of the dead man. Governor Penoyer, ex-Governor Moody, ex-Governor Chadwick, Hon. Rufus Mallory, Hon. Cyrus Dolph, Hon. M. C. George, Col. F. V. Drake and A. F. Sears Jr. acted as pallbearers. He was buried in Riverview cemetery.
At 10 o'clock last night death claimed another prominent lawyer, Mr. George W. Yocum.
It was announced Saturday that the county court would make an inspection of the babies' home, as it had been charged that the infants had been improperly cared for. Judge Catlin and Commissioner Ben Smith went to the home Saturday afternoon to see for themselves how matters looked. Mr. Smith, who was seen this morning, stated that they found the home neat and clean and as far as could be seen the infants were properly kept and fed. However they did find that the building is not large enough nor arranged as it should be, but this is no fault of the ladies who have charge of the institution.

OHIO'S NEW GOVERNOR.
He Makes Broad and Sweeping Recommendations.
COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 13.—Governor-elect James B. Campbell took the oath of office at noon to-day. In his message he strongly recommends a system of ballot reform, commending the so-called Australian system, sketching briefly the success with which it has met in other countries and states. On the question of cheaper school books, the governor says:
"Popular education is found at the center of freedom and prosperity. Knowledge should be furnished at the lowest possible cost. The State builds school houses, hires principals and teachers, and controls every detail of education save the furnishing of school books and there is no reason why it should not assume this function also."
He favors the abolition of the office of commissioner of railroads and telegraphs, and thinks those duties could be better performed by the railroad superintendent.

EXCITEMENT IN PORTUGAL.
The Cabinet Has Resigned and Trouble Is Threatened.
LISBON, Jan. 13.—The cabinet has resigned. The liberal conservatives assembled with the ministry at a meeting of the council, when the demands of England were acceded to. The minority was in favor of evacuating the shore districts, but opposed the other demands made by England unless that country submitted the dispute to arbitration forthwith.
There is much excitement in the city. A crowd paraded the street last night crying "Viva Pinta" and "Viva Portugal."
ENGLAND'S BOAST.
LONDON, Jan. 13.—The Times says: "The impudent attitude of Portugal required sharp treatment. We rejoice that Salisbury is equal to the occasion."

Uncasiness in Chinatown.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—The proclamation recently issued here by Chinese Consul Haigert Alton Kang, in which he threatened punishment for law-breakers under his jurisdiction, has caused uneasiness among Chinatown's disturbing element.
Don't Miss It.
The chance to double your money by purchasing lots in the Railway addition to Astoria. These lots will positively be raised in price on the 15th (Wednesday) to $85 for inside and $100 for corner lots. This property is nearly all sold, and but few more lots can be had. Do not make a mistake and buy Astoria property without first carefully comparing locations. You will then buy in the Railway addition and plenty of Albany people to keep you company.

The Albany & Astoria Railroad.
The Albany & Astoria Railroad Company is fitting up neat offices in the Flinn block, over LaForrest & Thompson's grocery store. They are getting in readiness to put 1000 men to work on the line between this city and Astoria early in the spring.
Removal.
The office of the Daily and Weekly Herald has been removed into the Foster block up stairs in the rooms formerly occupied by the Masonic lodge, where larger and more commodious quarters have been fitted up. Patrons of the paper will please observe the change.
Ladies all wool scarlet underwear 75 cents at Barrows & Sears.

BABY FARMING.
A Roxbury Woman's Cruelty to Infants.
BOSTON, Jan. 13.—Evelyn Abbott keeps a lying-in hospital and baby farm in Roxbury. She appeared before the Board of Health to-day, asking that her license be renewed. She told without hesitation when examined that she took babies to board at so much per week. She said she had adopted babies for cash, usually $25, and then advertised for families who wished to adopt a baby. She charged a family who wanted to adopt a baby enough to pay her for her time and trouble.
Dr. Draper, medical examiner for Roxbury, said that he would present a fact, which, though hardly admissible in a court of law, was nevertheless strongly against the petition in question. In February, 1887, he was acquainted, he said, with a case where a child died under the charge of Mrs. Abbott, and from the autopsy it was shown that the child died of neglect and insufficient feeding.
The dead bodies of thirty children, Dr. Draper said, have been found within a radius of three quarters of a mile from Mrs. Abbott's place, and all have borne traces of starvation. From evidences on the bodies he had solid presumption, he said, that they were traceable to the premises of Mrs. Abbott.

THE EARTH GETTING LARGER.
A Theory Which Indicates That We Are Becoming Younger.
American Geologist.
The earth traveling in its orbit around the sun and onward with the entire solar system around some unknown and still greater center of attraction, is constantly traversing new regions of space, which it depletes of meteoric dust and meteorites, thus steadily—no matter how slowly—increasing in diameter. Now let this growth continue till the earth has just twice the attractive power which it now possesses; we would then have double the number of meteorites and double the quantity of dust falling annually upon it now. Fortunately for our heads the earth has not as yet attained very formidable dimensions, but we may look upon it as an established fact that it constantly gains in weight, and that in proportion to such gains its attractive power steadily increases. The attractive force of the sun is so enormous that a perpetual hail of meteoric and a torrent of dust particles must rush upon it from all directions, and some of the foremost observers are of the opinion that these falling bodies are the sole cause of the sun's heat. In the light of this theory our earth is a young and growing, not an old and dying planet, a planet with a future which ought to be cheerful news to all of us, although we will not live to reap the benefit of it; and the sun, far from being on its last legs as an expiring luminary, is steadily gaining in heat and lighting capacity.

POTATOES ARE SCARCE.
San Francisco Will Soon Be Relieved by Shipments from the East.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—There is just now a shortage of potatoes in the market, but it is likely to be relieved soon by shipments from the East. A special train of twenty car loads is en route from Chicago, having left that city over the Santa Fe yesterday. The Southern Pacific company will, in the next few days, move about 100 car loads of potatoes, chiefly over the Southern route where the frost will not injure them. One of the principal causes of the present local west bound shipments of potatoes is the new tariff which went into effect Friday last.
Rates East bound on car load lots have hitherto been higher than the West bound tariff. The new rates are 90 cents per 100 pounds on car load lots, from Sioux City, Missouri river, and common points, Mississippi river, St. Louis and common points, and 95 cents from Chicago and common points.

STONED THEIR TEACHER.
A Remarkable Scene in Cultured Boston.
BOSTON, Jan. 13.—The unusual sight of a crowd of 500 school children hooting and throwing missiles at their teacher took place in East Boston this afternoon, and an escort of police had to be furnished him.
The pupils claim that Charles Pfeiffer, the newly appointed teacher, has been harsh and violent. The whole trouble was caused by a fifteen-year-old boy named William Murphy, who is now suffering from the effects of a sound thrashing administered by the teacher.

DISCOVERIES IN OLD EGYPT.
Amelia E. Edwards Begins a Series of Lectures at Cooper Union.
Amelia E. Edwards, a pleasant, gray-haired woman, who is well known as an explorer of buried Egypt, lectured recently in the great hall of Cooper Institute, New York. It was the first of a series of lectures that Miss Edwards will deliver in that hall under the auspices of Columbia College. Her subject was "The Explorer in Ancient Egypt," and an immense audience listened to her. Professor Driener, the acting president of Columbia College, introduced her, and Seth Low, the president-elect of the college, sat in one of the front seats.
Not only did Miss Edwards entertain and instruct her audience with descriptions of the many important discoveries made of late years in Egypt, but she vividly described some of the experiences that explorers have to undergo. Her story was finely illustrated by stereoscopic pictures.
The principal enemy of Egyptian explorers is the Arab thief, who strips himself naked, anoints himself until he is as slippery as an eel, and then glides into a tent and seizes everything portable. Miss Edwards's story of the recent explorations in Bubastis was particularly interesting, because there were discovered many relics of the Biblical Pharaohs. Among them were statues, and fragments of statues, of the Pharaoh of the Israelite oppression, Rameses II, and of statues appropriated by him, because, as Miss Edwards said, he was "one of the greatest forgers in the world," and used to carve his name, or his son's name, on statues of monarchs who antedated him by a trifle of a thousand years. The legs of a colossal statue of Ra-I-an, written by the Arabs "Raysan," the Pharaoh under whom Joseph served as Prime Minister, were also exhibited on the screen. This fragment is one of the latest found in Egyptian exploration, and has attracted a great deal of attention among scholars and antiquarians.

Sure Cure for La Grippe.
There are a great many cases of bad colds in our city, and not a few think it to be the Russian ailment. The best thing the people of Albany can do to prevent being taken down with this terrible la grippe is to use nothing but the best groceries, fine poultry and other delicacies, to be found at the Willamette Packing Co.'s at the lowest possible figure.

Wanted the Old Song.
Merchant Traveler.
"Mister," said a haggard-looking man, as he walked into the hardware store, "can you tell me where I can buy a phonograph?"
"I guess we can order one for you, sir," said the salesman who met him at the door. His face expressed surprise, but his tone conveyed assurance.
"Can you get one that'll work automatically—one that you won't have to grind yourself, but can fix it all up and let it go of its own accord?"
"I think we can arrange an attachment that will accomplish that result."
"All right; get it as quick as you can, will you?"
"You want it as a sort of amanuensis, I suppose."
"No; my wife has gone out of town. I find that when I get home at night everything is so kind of solemn and still that I can't stand it. So I thought if I could get a phonograph and have the hired girl talk into it for about three-quarters of an hour—something about its being a nice time of night for a self-respecting married man to be getting home, and all that sort of thing—I would set it before I went to bed and succeed in getting to sleep. It's funny how a man will miss these old familiar sounds."

A CONNECTING LINK.
With the Southern Pacific Build the Road From Corvallis to Junction.
CORVALLIS, Or., Jan. 12.—A committee of three, acting with similar committees from Junction, Independence and McMinnville, leave for Portland to-morrow to confer with the Southern Pacific Company regarding the completion of the west side to a connection with the main line. A committee also will go to Brownsville to arrange for the preliminary survey of the proposed road to this city.
