RETURN ENGAGEMENT.

Bandmann, the Shakespearean Tragedian, Will Play Hamlet Saturday Evening

Daniel E. Bandmann, the great Shakespearean tragedian, who with his excellent company delighted the audience at the opera house in this city Wednesday evening in the Merchant of Venice, will return and play Hamlet on Saturday night.

Bandmann has acquired a national reputation as a finished Shakespearean tragedian. In Salem he was interviewed by a Journal reporter. The actor, who possesses a rich and refined German accent, was arrayed in a slouch hat and ranching costume, with loose flannel shirt open at the throat, and told with pride of his 1100 acre ranch at Missoula, Montana, where he is engaged in rearing Percheron horses. His converse in the mother tongue is still more charming than his English, and his versatility as an actor is largely due to his perfect training in these two most powerful and graphic of modern languages.

Daniel E. Bandmann is a native of Prussia. Coming to New York as a boy of 16 he at once entered upon the German stage. His career of distinction was so rapid that in three years he returned to Germany and played leading parts in Berlin, Prague, Pesth and Vienna theatres. Here he laid the foundation of his Shakespearean studies. He returned to the American stage in a few series of farewell concerts attracted the attention of the dramatic critics of New York, who urged him to enter on a career of the English stage.

In six weeks he appeared in Nello's Garden as Shylock, supported by McCulloch, Frank Mayo and the most eminent actors of the city. He has played on the English and German stage ever since. His phenomenal career attracted the attention of Edwin Forrest, who invited him to play at his home theatre in Philadelphia, and on his first appearance threw him a bouquet plucked with his own hand, entertained him and traveled with him for years. Forrest regarded Bandmann's Hamlet as the most wonderful interpretation of his day, and competent critics continue to so regard it. The presence of only about 250 people at this play last night must be explained in part by the hold la grippe has on so many of the first citizens. For the rendition of this masterpiece of Shakespeare the citizens of San Francisco presented Bandmann a gold medal set with diamonds.

After a career of thirty-two years as actor, this illustrious man has lost none of his versatility, vigor, or boundless enthusiasm for the great English master of human passions. He has played in London, Australia, India, and with a party of twelve people went to the principal cities of China, Burma, and the Malay peninsula. His passion for travel and the stage is unabated. The time has tinged his flowing hair it has not dimmed the luster of his flashing eye. This man who has been the guest of the Duke of Edinburgh; the guest of the late Emperor Fritz for a week at the Kaiserhof; who was the personal friend and companion of Horace Greeley, Bayard Taylor, Emerson, and for whom Longfellow wrote his drama, "The New England Witches,"—surely, should receive a cordial welcome in this city to-morrow evening.

A New Land Ruling.

The following new ruling has just been made by the board of school land commissioners, in the matter of quit claim deeds to certain swamp lands. State of Oregon land department: In the matter of the application of M. C. Casson et al for quit claim deeds to certain swamp lands, it was held, first: that under the law of Oregon relating to swamp lands, approved Feb. 25, 1889, homestead and pre-emption settlers on such lands under the United States land laws upon proof of full settlement for the entire period of time required in any case by said laws, are entitled to quit claim deeds from the state without charge; but in case such settler desires deed to such land before the above requirements are fully complied with, a deed thereto will be given by the state upon the payment of $1 per acre. Second: that the register and receiver's final receipt for fees paid by a United States settler is the final certificate of proof referred to in said act; but a receipt for cash payment as a commutation of entry shall not be so regarded.

Another Man Hung

His "stocking by the chimney with care" was tickled almost to death to find that his good wife had anticipated his near at hand wants and filled his stockings with standard seeds, grown and put up by D. M. Ferry Co., Detroit, Michigan, who, on application, will mail you free a copy of their Seed Annual for 1890. This is the most useful of all seed catalogues, not only for experienced gardeners, but for the novice as well. Send your name and address for a copy to D. M. Ferry & Co., Detroit, Michigan.

Petty Thefts.

A number of petty thefts have been reported about the city recently. Some miscreant stole a ham from the residence of J. F. Haswell the other night. A tramp also entered the wagon factory of A. J. Anslin yesterday and stole an overcoat. Some petty thief also stole an overcoat yesterday owned by William Martin, at the Oregon Pacific Company's river office.

NEWS ABOUT THE TRAINS.

A Fresh Snow Fall of Fourteen Inches at Ashland—The Weather Moderates.

Special to the Herald. ASHLAND, OR., Jan. 23.—A fresh fall of snow at and north of this place prevented the regular local train, which has been running since the overland trains were blocked, from leaving. During the past 24 hours 14 inches of snow has fallen. Superintendent Brandt arrived to-day from Portland. He came with a snow plow, which opened the track north of Ashland. A train will leave here in the morning for Portland. It is warmer here to-day, and it is hoped the worst is over.

The situation at Sims and northward remains much the same. The snow fall has abated somewhat, and it is now hoped to have the track open by the end of the week. Much anxiety is felt for fear that should the weather turn warm washouts are likely to occur, which will delay all trains as completely as the snow blockade has done. The track has been submerged so long beneath its covering of alternate melting snow and ice that it is not in a good condition, and it will require days to put it in order again.

The damage and loss to the Southern Pacific Company by blockade has been immense. The company has used every effort and has taken prompt measures to clear the track and to render the belated passengers comfortable, and those who have been caught in the tieup are not disposed to complain.

The Astoria Railroad.

The Willamette Valley Tribune, of Independence, thus "bunches" the proposed railroads to the sea: "The proposed Astoria, Tillamook, McMinnville, Sheridan, Dallas, Independence, Albany, Salem railroad is gaining on paper very rapidly, and we hope to soon see it merge itself into more formidable and actual existence. No road is more needed than the proposed one, none according to length will pay better. The natural obstacles to build are small as compared to many other roads already built and being built through our state, and the advantages to be gained are badly needed. The farmers need this road, the town and cities also. The farmers to get their products direct to the sea without paying towage, drayage, middle men, etc., for which they are constantly taxed, and a consequent and corresponding reduction of their produce; and the merchants for the same reason, and that they may be enabled to sell goods cheaper to the people and pay more to the producers. The men of this valley, irrespective of locality, place or occupation, should look at and treat this railroad movement with gravity and earnestness. It is what will give you reduced rates on export and importation; it will shorten the time of transportation from days to hours; it will increase the value of real estate largely; it affords a higher price for all you raise by being quicker and more direct and dispensing with the middle work and unavoidable and consequent expense of the old routes. We hope to see the action; immediate action in the matter."

Elected Officers.

The Herald recently published an item concerning the incorporation of the Green Basin Lumbering Co., of this city, the object of which is to start a saw-mill in the Green Basin district nine miles above Galesville. The stockholders have elected the following directors: J. D. Montgomery, S. W. Reece, J. D. Hiatt, B. F. Fisher and W. H. Hiatt. The directors have elected officers as follows: President, S. W. Reece; vice-president, W. H. Hiatt; secretary, J. D. Montgomery; treasurer, Jay W. Blain.

Eastern Star Chapter.

Arrangements are being made for the organization of an Eastern Star Chapter lodge by the Masons and their families in this city. It is auxiliary to the Masonic order, and admits both gentlemen and ladies as members. About 70 names have already been secured, who will join. A charter has been sent for from the East, and as soon as it arrives the lodge will be organized. Those desiring to join as charter members should hand their names to T. L. Wallace or D. P. Masop.

Citizens Meeting To-Night.

The citizens meeting at the opera house this evening for the purpose of considering the feasibility of erecting an Orphans' Home in this city should be well attended. The Ladies' Aid Society, who have begun the undertaking, will, if proper encouragement is given, commence the work at once.

Card of Thanks.

NEWS FROM SALEM.

A Linn County Resident Dies at the Insane Asylum.

Special to the Herald. SALEM, Jan. 23.—Articles of incorporation were to-day filed in the secretary of state's office by the Astoria Hotel Co., with J. O. Hawthorn, I. W. Case, G. W. Sanborn and W. T. Chutter, incorporators; principal office, Astoria; capital stock, $100,000.

Caleb Davis, aged 70 years, a patient at the asylum, died last night and was taken to his old home at Harrisburg for burial.

Salem is soon to have a first-class telephone system, with new instruments and a circuit to be provided throughout the entire city and will be running in a couple of months. In the meantime the old line is being repaired.

Will Arrive To-Day.

The steamer Willamette Valley arrived off Yaquina harbor yesterday, but the sea was so rough that she could not enter. She will reach her dock probably at noon to-day, and a special train will bring the passengers and fast freight to this city in the evening.

Monday Night.

The following remarks from the Vancouver, (B. C.) Advertiser, will give the people of Albany a partial idea of the pleasure in store for them Monday evening at the opera house, and the further fact must be remembered that popular prices only are demanded: "Lynwood" was the title of the play presented last evening in the Imperial opera house by the Russell-Jewell dramatic company. The scene of the drama is Kentucky at the time of the war between the North and South. The plot is well laid and the leading character, taken by Miss Lingham, the star of the company, was clearly portrayed. She acts with grace and without the least affectation. In the tender passages she is sweet and sympathetic, while in the heavier parts she is intensely emotional. Her youth, personal appearance and talents predict for her a brilliant future. Miss Yant's audience. Her pranks and songs were laughed at and much enjoyed. Miss Jennie Darrah had little to do but did it well. Mr. Morris was a decided success in his part. Few could have interpreted it as well as he. Mr. H. B. Stedley acted a great deal of earnestness, though he was scarcely heavy enough for the part allotted to him. The rest of the support was good. The company are certainly deserving of good patronage during their engagement in Vancouver. Last evening the audience was a large one.

For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. ALBANY.

The queen manufacturing city and railroad center of Oregon, Albany, to-day has the brightest future before it of any town in Oregon, and she will certainly by the end of 1890 have a population of from 10,000 to 15,000 souls. She is maintaining a steady and healthy growth, and is destined to be the great railroad center and manufacturing city of Oregon. Real estate to-day in Albany is cheap compared with other towns in Oregon and Washington that have not one half the future before them that Albany has. It will only be a short time until the speculator will prefer Albany to any other town in Oregon or Washington to invest his money in and those now who are smart enough to embrace the present opportunity to buy real estate in Albany while it is cheap will be the ones that make the money. The real estate firm of Burkhardt & Malin have some excellent bargains in inside property, as well as some good bargains in some of the closest additions. They have lots for from $50 to $1000 and on the installment plan. Parties who wish to get in on the ground floor should call at their office and be shown their large list of city property, which embraces residence property in all portions of the city. A few special bargains we note below, to which we respectfully invite the attention of the public:

A good 2 story house and 96 front by 110 feet deep, corner of 4th and Montgomery streets, for $3500; part cash, balance on time.

Two good vacant lots corner of 6th and Montgomery streets for $2500; a bargain.

A good new house and one lot with in two blocks of the court house for $2500. A No. 1 bargain.

1 good lot and small old house near the corner of 4th and Railroad Sts. for $750.

2 good vacant lots on 4th street within 3 blocks of the court house for $1300, half cash and balance on time.

A good new house and 1 good corner lot within 4 blocks of the central school house for $1100.

We are now offering: Lots on the installment plan in Goltra's Park addition for $30 down and $10 monthly. This is the choicest and most slightly addition to Albany, and is situated directly on the proposed street railway line. Lots in this addition will double in value in the next six months.
