THE BLOCKADE.

The Situation on the Southern Pacific Growing Serious.

IT IS WORSE THAN EVER.

No Trains South of Roseburg—Snow Piled Up Merely High—Engines Without Fuel—Provisions Growing Out.

The Herald's Special Dispatch.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—Dispatches from the north of California state that the situation of the blockade is becoming serious to parties above Sims. The reports state that there is no road open above Sims. Several engines are without wood or water and cannot be reached. Provisions at Dunsmuir are getting scarce and high.
Sissons and Dunsmuir are cut off from approach either way. A rain that is and has been pouring down endangers the roadbed much more from landslides than from snow.
The telegraph wires are down just above Sims and reports are not to be had. The railway clerk in charge of the mails which left this city on the 15th on the Oregon & California railroad did not get further than Sims. He gave up the idea of getting through and came back yesterday morning. All northern mails are being shipped by steamer for the present.

"How's the blockade?" This is the prevailing question at present, and unless there is a very early movement throughout the country it is likely to maintain the same position.

The officers of the Southern Pacific railroad company are unable to furnish very much information concerning the condition of their lines beyond a general statement, supported by elementary evidence, that it is in a hopeless condition.

Snow abounds everywhere, and not only does it become a standing terror as a blockade, but the fact that warm and copious rains cannot do otherwise than cause a general flood, adds horror to the situation.

The telegraph wires broke down yesterday between Oakland and Kiddies, and since that time not a spark of intelligence has flashed through. The north bound train is now bound a short distance south of Kiddies, and the south bound train is blocked in snow at Wolf Creek. At those points snow has drifted almost mountain high.

THE SITUATION IN OREGON.

PORTLAND, Jan. 24.—Mr. J.
Brandt, superintendent of this division of the road, left Wednesday night for the scene of the trouble. When he got to Roseburg he got a large force of men and started southward but soon came to grief in great banks of snow.

The north-bound train is stuck last north of tunnel No. 9, between Leand and Grants' Pass. The train at Wolf creek has about 100 passengers aboard, and fully one-fourth of these are women and children.

The local train which left here yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock for Roseburg failed to reach that city on account of washouts a short distance north of there.

At Riddle's a train was made up of three engines and a snow plow, behind which were several passenger cars, but what success has been made cannot be learned.

MURDER IN SAN FRANCISCO.

President Brownwell of the California Insurance Company Shot.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—Bromwell, president of the California Insurance Company, was shot and seriously, if not mortally, wounded by G. C. Pratt, general agent of the same company shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon. The shooting occurred in the office of the company, 318 California street.
Pratt, who was sitting near Bromwell, fired three shots, all of which it is thought took effect, one striking him in the body just below the heart. The shooting created an intense excitement on the street.
Pratt was immediately arrested and taken to the city prison. He refused to make any statement until he had consulted his lawyer.

PLEASANTRIES IN PARIS.

A Boulangerist Seceder Given a Sound Beating.

PARIS, Jan. 24.—(General Boulanger has sent a telegram to M. Paul Renouille and his colleagues in the chamber of deputies, who led the recent revolt in that body, when M. Jeffrin attempted to speak congratulating them upon showing themselves to be real defenders of universal suffrage. Martineau, member of the chamber of deputies, who recently seceded from the meeting of the Boulangerists held last night. He was immediately attacked, kicked, cuffed and spit upon, and compelled to sign a resignation to his seat in the chamber.

England Bitterly Denounced.

CAIRO, Jan. 23.—The National W. C. T. U., in an address issued today over the signature of President Frances E. Willard, and addressed to the South American, Central American and Mexican commissioners of the Pan-American congress, stated that the ladies read with surprise that during the round of banqueting to which the nation's guests were subjected intoxicating liquors were served upon every occasion and indulged in by the Pan-American delegates.

The W. C. T. U. expresses regret at this fact, and assures the Southern delegates that no better end can be subservied by them while in this country than to study the vast benefits of the prohibitory law as practiced in eight states of the Union.

A NEW ORGANIZATION.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 23.—The seceders from the W. C. T. U. organized a non-partisan league to-day. The morning session of the convention was devoted to consideration of the constitution. A letter was read from John G. Whittier, commending the non-partisan purpose of the new organization. The preamble of the constitution says: "Viewing with the deepest solicitude the appalling evils of intemperance, and believing a non-partisan, non-sectarian organization of Christian women, devoted solely to the cause of temperance is greatly needed, we unite ourselves together for this purpose."

The organization will be known as the American Woman's Christian Temperance League. There are to be five departments of work, evangelical, educational, legislative, literary and young women's. One section of the constitution declares that no officer shall pledge the support of the organization to any political party or any religious sect. Any temperance society can become an auxiliary by signing the constitution. The constitution was adopted; the non-partisan and non-sectarian planks being received with applause.

THE CRONIN CASE.

Will Lead to Reform in the Illinois Jury System.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—One outcome of the long trial in the Cronin case has been that the Illinois Bar Association at its annual meeting, just concluded at the State capital, has declared in favor of a radical reform in the jury system of this State. Sigmund Zeiler echoed the sentiments of the association in his address upon the subject, in which he said: "There is no doubt that the verdict finally rendered in the Cronin case was not in accordance with the conviction of a single one of the jurors. Eleven men voted for hanging and the twelfth for acquittal, and yet on the polling of the jury each member was compelled to prostitute his solemn oath by the declaration that the verdict rendered was his verdict. Attempts at jury-bribing are being constantly made, and so long as the unanimity of juries is required the easier can it be accomplished."

The association declared itself in favor of a law making the verdict of two-thirds of a jury legal in civil cases; in criminal cases the defendant to be acquitted unless two-thirds of the jury return a verdict of guilty, and the death penalty be not inflicted unless the jury is unanimous in its verdict. A committee was appointed to draft a bill for presentation to the Legislature.

THE SAMOAN TREATY.

German Papers Denounce It—The Anti-Alcohol Clause Remarkable

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Publication of the Samoan treaty in Berlin has led to its denunciation by the German press of both parties. Dispatches received here say that radical and conservative papers alike call it a German retreat.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The Times says: The Samoan treaty hears handsome testimony to Bismarck's reasonableness.
That so complete an equilibrium should be established is much more than we could have expected from him. That he quietly consented to prohibition of arms and alcohol and the land clauses is probably due to British influence. Their insertion in such a treaty is a remarkable event in the history of the relations of civilized with semi-civilized nations.

The Standard says: While it is good theoretically it is likely that difficulties will arise. In any case, provision is made for revision.

exchanged a few words Davis started to walk away. The little man, whose
