REMOVAL.

The office of the Daily and Weekly Herald has been removed into the Foster block

LAND OWNERSHIP.

The question of obtaining possession and ownership of large tracts of land, in this country, by individuals or corporations, is one that every citizen is interested in, and should cry out against.

The New York legislature placed upon the statute books of that state a law compelling railroads to heat passenger coaches with steam, or some means that would do away with a stove fire in the car.

ing argument to those opponents of Civil-Service Reform who foolishly argue that the examinations give an advantage to youths just out of school and college.

The newspaper seems to be pre-eminently the American's safety-valve of expression. No matter what comes up or what pickle is gotten into, a newspaper must be shown to work off the super-abundant energy of feeling.

The statement that has been published in regard to a misunderstanding between Mr. William Reid and Vice President Kinney, of the Astoria and South Coast railroad, does not in fact affect the work of progress upon the road in the least.

The Montana senatorial muddle seems likely to be settled by the senate rejecting all four of the elected senators—both the democratic and the republican elected ones—and allowing Gov. Toole to appoint until the next election.

The senate in acting upon Hermann's house bill to appropriate $75,000 for work upon the Columbia river, raised the amount to $500,000 on Senator Dolph's motion.
