Daniel E. Bandmann, the Shakespearean actor, returns to Albany Saturday night and presents "Hamlet" by a special request. If the people of that city knew what a treat this will be the opera house would not hold the number that would be present.—Salem Journal.

Bandmann as Hamlet.

A rare treat is in store for the people of this city this evening in the presentation of Shakespeare's sublime tragedy, Hamlet, by Daniel E. Bandmann and his excellent company. Harper's Magazine of November places him equal to Salvini, in the character and speaks of him as a remarkable talent.

After seeing this wonderful man (who plays as well in the German language as he does in English) in different Shakespearean characters, all must admit that he is a prince of genius, and possess himself of a rich, unobscured, and remarkably well supported, and thoroughly well trained company, who seem to be in accord with all his movements and second him in an able and interesting manner. The price of admission to-night will be 50 and 75 cents.

FOR AN ORPHANS' HOME.

Citizens' Meeting at the Opera House Last Evening—Funds Pledged.

An enthusiastic meeting was held at the opera house last evening to consider the question of building an Orphans' Home in Albany, in accordance with the proposal of the Ladies' Aid Society.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor J. L. Cowan, and was opened with prayer by Rev. S. G. Irvine. Mayor Cowan then stated the object of the meeting and presented the subject in a brief speech.

On motion Mayor Cowan was elected chairman of the meeting. Mrs. C. C. Kelly, president of the Ladies' Aid Society, then gave the following historical sketch of the society and the proposed undertaking:

HISTORY OF THE AID SOCIETY. Friends: By request of the society I will endeavor to give you a short historical sketch of the Ladies' Aid Society of Albany, and also the object of the meeting being called to-night.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Albany was organized twenty years ago. There were some immigrants from the Eastern States came here and were found to be destitute and sick.

It was brought to the knowledge of five ladies, who banded themselves together and assisted the family and cared for the children until they were well. One of the ladies took one child to her own home and cared for it until the recovery of the mother.

These ladies are well known to many present here to-night—Mrs. J. H. Foster, Mrs. Geary, Mrs. Walter Monteith, Mrs. J. F. Backensto, Mrs. McMeekin. Soon after they were joined by Mrs. S. E. Young, Mrs. L. E. Blain, Mrs. Dr. Crawford and others, when their first constitution and by-laws were adopted, the same that has been used, with but one amendment, all these years.

Afterwards Mrs. Opp, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Gee, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Turrell, with many other prominent ladies of Albany took an active part in this great work, always working together harmoniously.

A good second hand organ for sale cheap at the art studio over Linn County bank. Watches, watches, at F. M. French's. The best watch in the world for the money.

Some valuable bargains in real estate are offered by E. G. Beardsley, in another column. The Oregon Land Company will make a specialty of Astoria acre property for a short time.

Mr. G. M. Warren, of Spring Valley, Minn., is in the city, the guest of Mr. E. W. Langdon. G. M. Strong has at his produce stand a fine lot of dressed fowls, also some choice apples at 1¢ per bushel.

ment for the needy sick. We do not wish to be misunderstood when we speak of the orphans. There are many orphan children whose natural parents are both living, children who are destitute of either love or care; these we would give a home and Christian care. There is yet another class we would reach. Mothers who would take situations and earn for themselves a good living, if they had some safe home to leave their little ones in. Nearly all such mothers would be willing to pay a small sum for the care of their children, which would go toward the support of the Home, which in time we hope to make nearly self-supporting.

In order to build this Home, we first ask your co-operation and support, which we feel sure will not be withheld. We ask that as you have freely received to freely give. We wish first to secure a site in some healthy location in which to erect this Home.

We have the report from the Home in Portland, which has been established 19 years. The ladies there found themselves in the same trouble about the care of the poor and sick that we do now. They first purchased two lots with a small house, for which they paid $2000. This they used one year, but finding this too small they erected on the same site a building that cost them $3000 and which served them until recently. When finding that too small they procured a larger lot in South Portland and now have a building which has cost them $10,000.

A little incident in connection with the building of the Home in Portland may interest the friends here. When the ladies resolved to build they had only $1000 in their treasury. Nothing daunted, however, they decided to go in debt for the remaining $9000, but when the time came to close the bargain they were agreeably surprised to find that twelve men in Portland had decided to give them $100 apiece, thereby clearing them of debt and leaving a surplus of $200 to furnish their Home. They opened 19 years ago with one woman as beneficiary. Now there are 80 children cared for.

We do not expect to build or need so large a Home for many years. We think one could be built at a cost of $2000 that would meet the wants of the city for a number of years. It could be made convenient; two dormitories would suffice for the present, with separate rooms for the sick, as it would be very unwise for the well and sick to occupy the same rooms. Then with kitchen, pantry, closets, dining-room, parlor, and a matron's room, the Home would be quite convenient.

We had still another object in calling you together to-night. We wish to get an expression from the citizens and thank any one for suggestions, or any advice will be carefully considered. We feel many times that we make mistakes but in nearly every instance the Lord has proved to be blessings. The question will no doubt be asked, have you a right to carry on this work? We answer, not in and of ourselves. We depend upon One who is able and willing to sustain us, in whom we trust. He will never leave or forsake us while we are about the Master's work. We do not appeal to you in our own name, but in His, who said, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of one of these, ye did it unto Me."

Mr. C. E. Barrows favored the audience with a solo, "Gather Them In."

Rev. T. J. Wilson was called upon and responded with an excellent short address upon the question.

Judge L. Flinn was called upon by the chairman and responded with remarks emphatically endorsing the establishment of an orphans' home.

Speeches warmly favoring the undertaking were also made by Rev. E. N. Condit, John Foslay, Geo. W. Wright, Mrs. L. E. Blain, Mrs. Al. House, Mrs. Walter Monteith and F. P. Nutting.

Mr. L. E. Blain made a thoroughly practical speech on the benefits to accrue from such a home and pledged $100 towards a fund towards the object.

Mrs. Remington added interest to the meeting by singing a solo. The chairman read the heading of a subscription paper to be circulated. Judge Flinn suggested the chairman sign it himself before sending the ladies out with it. Mayor Cowan promptly responded by offering to duplicate Judge Flinn's subscription, which was done. The papers were then circulated, and several hundred dollars were subscribed to ward building the proposed Orphans' Home. Sufficient encouragement was given that it may be deemed certain that it will be built.

Soups, Hamley, Sago, Vermicelli, Fat Fine Chicken, Celery, Cauliflower, Parsnips, Carrots, Sauer Kraut, Cabbage, Italian Prunes, Oranges, Chow Chow, Pickles, Holland Herring, Mackerel, Spiced Sardines, Salmon, Swiss Cheese, Cream Cheese. A SYSTEMATIC ROBBERY.

Two Hired Girls Who Were Adroit Thieves and Practiced Their Arts in This City.

Two girls, Kate and Hattie Mattoon, of Drain, Oregon, who had until recently been engaged in doing general housework in several families of this city, started for home a few days ago, leaving two trunks to be sent after them. Shortly after their departure several articles were missed from the residence of F. J. Miller where they had been working, and suspicion pointed to the girls. In the presence of witnesses the trunks were opened when it was found that the two girls had stolen and placed in two trunks $200 worth of jewelry, clothing, books and other articles, including a silk cloak, several fine dresses, gloves and numerous articles of apparel. A portion of these belonged to Mrs. Miller and a portion to Mrs. F. M. French and some to other places where they had worked.

Kate Mattoon had gone home several days before her sister, and letters were found in the trunk which had passed between them showing that they had been carrying on a systematic robbery, and had previously sent stolen goods to Drain. Letters were also found from Walter and Alonzo Smith, of Oakland, Oregon, who had visited the girls here. All the letters were of the most incriminating nature, and were filled with the most obscene and vile expressions imaginable.

Chief of Police Hoffman notified the town marshal of Drain to arrest the girls and demand the return of the goods previously stolen. Mr. Miller and the other owners of the stolen goods in this city are not inclined to prosecute the case if the goods are returned. The young men, as well as the girls, certainly deserve severe punishment for sending such vile and obscene stuff through the mails, in addition to their wholesale thieving. The letters are in the hands of Chief of Police Hoffman.

Woman's Discovery. Another wonderful discovery has been made, and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle had been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. This write W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Sheepshead, N. C., a free trial bottle at Foslay & Mason's Drug Store.

A ROW AMONG THE GIINESE.

A Mongolian Who Was Not to Blame for Wasting His Life Insured.

A Chinaman applied to a life insurance agent of this city yesterday, and was very urgent his desire for a life insurance policy in favor of one Cho Bu, an attaché of the Kwong Sang Yuen Co. Of course no policy was issued, but a little questioning revealed why it was so earnestly desired. The Chinaman said that Cho Bu was the victim of a conspiracy among some Chinese who wanted to kill him. An attempt was made Thursday night to carry the plan into execution. On Fook sing was the assassin, and accompanied by two accomplices he waylaid Cho Bu and struck him over the head with a heavy iron bar, but did not kill him. The firm to which the injured man belonged was very anxious to have his life insured for a good sum before he was killed. The Chinaman refused to tell for what cause the attempt was made to take his life.

ALBANY.

The queen manufacturing city and railroad center of Oregon, Albany, to-day has the brightest future before it of any town in Oregon, and she will certainly by the end of 1890 have a population of from 10,000 to 15,000 souls. She is maintaining a steady and healthy growth, and is destined to be the great railroad center and manufacturing city of Oregon. Real estate to-day in Albany is cheap compared with other towns in Oregon and Washington that have not one half the future before them that Albany has. It will only be a short time until the speculator will prefer Albany to any other town in Oregon or Washington to invest his money in and those now who are smart enough to embrace the present opportunity to buy real estate in Albany while it is cheap will be the ones that make the money. The real estate firm of Burkhardt & Malin have some excellent bargains in inside property, as well as some good bargains in some of the closest additions. They have lots for from $50 to $1000 and on the installment plan. Parties who wish to get in on the ground floor should call at their office and be shown their large list of city property, which embraces residence property in all portions of the city.
