

Morning Daily Herald

SPECIAL, 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city.

ON SALE

The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at the new stand of W. F. Kuhns, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. For Albany and vicinity—Following is the forecast for 24 hours, ending at 8 P. M. to-day: Rain; stationary temperature.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Bandmann in Othello Thursday evening. Regular meeting of the city council will be held this evening. J. N. Duncan and Geo. H. Keeney leave this morning for Portland to look after some real estate investments there.

The wires of the Postal Telegraph Co. are now in working order through to San Francisco, the first through connection for several days.

A district teachers' institute for the counties of Linn, Marion, Polk, Yamhill and Tillamook will be held in this city on March, 13, 14 and 15th.

Two prisoners, Frank Byron and Samuel Newton, escaped from the jail at Salem Sunday night. A reward of $500 each is offered for their capture.

The steamers Willamette Valley and the Farallon are lying at the docks at Yaquina, unable to put to sea on account of a severe gale prevailing.

Next Monday a meeting of citizens will be held at Halsey to consider a plan of tapping the McKenzie river with a canal, to be run down the valley to that place.

Jim Murray has returned from Palouse, Idaho, and will make his home in Albany. He has sold his ranch up there, and will take charge of the Exchange hotel on Feb. 1st.

E. C. Phelps has his new job printing office now in operation. His adv. will be found in this issue. He has a new and complete stock of type, presses and material and guarantees satisfaction.

The proceedings of the Eighth annual session of the Northwestern Firemen's Association and tournament held at Tacoma last September, are just out, having been printed by C. W. Watts of this city, who is secretary of the association.

Mr. Lee Brown, manager of the Albany lumber yard of the Santiam Lumber Company, states that the recent articles of incorporation filed in Salem were for a logging company connected with the mill. The capital stock of the company itself is $30,000, and the capacity of the mills is 50,000 feet per day.

Dr. W. H. Rowland has bought out the Pacific Medical Co. of this city, and has formed a co-partnership with L. C. Stratton, who will continue the business under the same name. They have rented rooms in Foshay & Mason's building over Matthews & Washburne's hardware store, which will be used as their office.

C. W. Ayers, a prominent architect of Ashland, who has decided to locate in Albany left last night for that place. He will return in a few days. He has completed plans of a fine front for the new Bank of Oregon building. Mr. Ayers will fit up an office in the Flinn block in the rooms with the Albany & Astoria Railway Co.

PERSONAL MENTION.

R. F. Ashby is down at Astoria. D. B. Monteith has returned from a trip to Astoria.

Miss Nellie Kizer, of Harrisburg, is visiting in this city.

Geo. Fish and Lake and Frank Dorris, of Corvallis, spent Sunday in this city.

Bert Van Cleve has returned from Portland to the home of his parents in Scio.

William Green, of Jackson, Michigan, is spending a few days with his brother-in-law, Fred Blumberg, in this city.

Linn County Council. The regular monthly meeting of the Linn County Business Council, P. of H., will be held at Knox Butte next Saturday at 10 A. M. Arrangements have been made to have the Oregon Pacific train stopped at the hall both going and coming. The train will leave Albany at 8:30 A. M. and return about 4 o'clock. Those desiring to go on the train should notify Hon. K. A. Irvine.

The census takers will begin work June 1st. There will be required five or six men in Linn county, and there will no doubt be plenty of candidates for the places. Hon. John H. Shupe, of Oakland, Douglas county, chief clerk of the last senate, is the supervisor of the census of the western district of Oregon, and he will no doubt visit this part of his field soon.

AN UNBLUSHING BIGAMIST.

Held in $2000 Bonds for Possessing Two Many Wives.

F. J. Bell, who was arrested at Oakland and brought to this city by Chief of Police Hoffman on a charge of polygamy, was arraigned in Justice Humphrey's court yesterday morning.

His wife, who resides at Roseburg, also Ellen Beard, of Tangent, a grass-widow, whom he married about four weeks ago, appeared in court. Bell did not attempt to deny his crime and waived examination. He was held to await the action of the grand jury, his bonds being placed at $2000. In default of this amount he was lodged in jail.

Bell said in court that his name was Frank John Bell, although his name in the marriage license was given as Francis P. Bell. He seems to have made a profession of marrying one woman after another, and had letters in his possession from women in various portions of the country in answer to advertisements of his inserted for wives. He is one of the most unblushing scoundrels ever brought into court, and ought to have died himself to Utah long ago. He is now well on his way to the penitentiary.

At the Opera House.

"Lynwood" was the play presented at the opera house last evening by the Russell-Jewell Dramatic Company. It is a thrilling military drama, the scene being Kentucky during the war of the rebellion. The plot is well laid and the leading part, that of Lucille Carlyle, is taken by Miss Lizzy Langham, who is a charming actress. Sam Morris, the war correspondent, kept the audience in a good humor, while Frank Cleares, the villain, was all that could be asked. Mr. W. M. Russell took a double part and exhibited some clever acting. Miss Jennie Dorrage and Miss Fannie Yante sustained their parts well. The company is deserving a good patronage wherever they go.

Bandmann Will Return.

Daniel E. Bandmann and his talented company who so pleased the people of this city last week with their Shakespearean plays, will return Thursday and play Othello. The return is made at the request of some of the prominent citizens of this city, and in their presentation of this masterpiece of Shakespearean plays there will no doubt be a crowded house.

The Boats.

The Union Pacific steamboat, Modoc, passed down the river yesterday. She was loaded with 200 tons of grain from Harrisburg. The Oregon Pacific boat, the Bentley, took on 30 tons of hay at this city for Salem. The river is slowly falling. During the recent rise it reached 6 feet and 9 inches above low water.

Installation.

The installation of officers of McPherson Relief Corps, No. 13, W. R. C., will occur this (Tuesday) evening. The members of McPherson Post, No. 5, G. A. R., and of the Relief Corps and their families are invited to be present, as an enjoyable social is expected at the close of the installation.

Snow in the Logging Camps.

The Brownville Times says: "Nelson Cochran returned Wednesday from the logging camp above Crawfordville. He reports snow plentiful, there being from four to five feet. It seems rather singular to see snow on the hills around us, while here in the valley green grass can be seen nearly everywhere he seen."

Still in Jail.

The Chinese cook Moy Yan, who made a savage attack with a butchers' cleaver upon Mrs. Murray, proprietor of the Exchange hotel, Saturday, is still lying in jail. On being arraigned yesterday morning in Justice Humphrey's court, the time for examination was continued until 2 o'clock Wednesday.

Pioneer Woman Dead.

Mrs. S. A. Clark, of Salem, one of the pioneer women of the state, died at her home in Salem Sunday night. Her husband was formerly editor of the Willamette Farmer, and has recently been engaged on the agricultural department of the Oregonian.

Paid for Their Folly.

J. H. Mattoon, father of the two girls who were engaged in wholesale stealing in this city, has returned to his home at Drain, having settled up as far as possible for the articles taken by the girls. He regrets their actions very much, and wants the young men who were with them brought to justice.

Almost a Fire.

A lamp which was left burning in the tailor shop of W. R. Graham last evening caught fire when no one was in the building, and the burning oil made a blaze that caused some excitement. The flames soon consumed the oil and went out without doing any damage.

Only the Jim Jams.

A report yesterday that W. H. Greenwood had committed suicide proved to be no more than an exaggeration of the fact that he was indulging in the jim jams in getting over one of his customary big drinks.

Important Announcement.

We are now prepared to do what we have advertised. Sell cloaks, both ladies' misses' and children's, for 60 cents on the dollar. All we ask is to call and see us at Sample Room, opposite the Revere house, as we are here for only a few days. A good cloak man wanted.

Great clearance sale at W. F. Read's for the next 30 days.

STAGE DISPATCHES.

The Southern Pacific Open to Ashland—Portland News.

Special to the Herald. PORTLAND, Jan. 27.—The Southern Pacific railroad is clear as far south as Ashland. The train which left here Wednesday night arrived here at 10:30 this morning with all the passengers who went down on it. All of them who desired were given tickets to go to San Francisco by the steamship Columbia, which sailed hence tonight.

The situation on the road south of Ashland remains much the same. The snow is melting somewhat, and there is no more danger from washouts than any other causes.

The convicted Indian murderer Pello, of Pendleton, will be sentenced to death by Judge Sabin some day this week. A reporter had a chat with him through an interpreter in the county jail this morning. Pello said that the first two days after his conviction he could not sleep or eat, but now he was feeling quite well. He remarked that if he must suffer the death penalty for his crime he wants to make his exit from earth where he can see all his people once more.

Burglars seem to be active in this city. Four cases occurred Saturday night. There is great interest in the sale of seats for the opening night of the Marquam grand theatre.

In Judge Shattuck's court this morning the case of E. K. Jones against the Portland & Willamette Valley Railway Company, involving $30,459, went to trial. On the 20th of last July the plaintiff's sawmill was burned, together with a house and a large quantity of lumber, located on the White house road, and being destroyed by fire from sparks from the engine, the plaintiff sues for that amount as damages.

NEWS FROM SALEM.

Our Usual Interesting Budget from the State Capital.

Special to the Herald. SALEM, Jan. 27.—In the supreme court to-day in the case of the state of Oregon, respondent, vs. Elzeaz Dupuis, appellant, appeal from Marion county, the judgment of the lower court was affirmed; opinion by Strahan, J.

Edgar Popperton, appellant, vs. Yamhill county, appeal from Yamhill; judgment reversed and the cause remanded to the court below, with directions to entertain a writ of review; opinion, Thayer, C. J. Samuel Kiel, respondent, vs. F. Levy, appellant, appeal from Marion; cause on trial.

Lewis C. Garrigus and Leonard Buell, of Roseburg, A. F. Wheeler, E. S. Miller and H. G. Sibray, of Portland, and Wm. A. Wright, of Roseburg, were today appointed notaries public by the governor. P. L. Hanson, from Baker City, and John Lake, from Clatsop county, were brought to Salem today and left at the insane asylum for treatment. Hanson is suicidal and often violent. Lake is a stranger in Oregon, lately having arrived from California.

Coroner D. C. Byland died this morning at his home in Woodburn of typhoid pneumonia.

Governor Penneyer is in receipt of letters from quite a number of county assessors in the different counties of the state relating to the assessors' convention. All signify their intention of being in attendance upon the session at Portland.

Hosea Pratt, a prominent man of Marion county, died at Mehama Sunday, aged 77 years. He will be buried here to-morrow.

Mrs. S. A. Clarke died suddenly last night of a congestive chill. She came to Oregon in 1853, and was a member of the E. N. Cooke party in crossing the plains. The funeral will be Wednesday.

Frank Byron and Samuel Newton, by using an iron hook and a spike that had by some means been obtained by them, dug through five courses of brick in the jail and made their escape at dusk yesterday evening. Both were pending the action of the grand jury, Byron for the robbery of Minto & Low's safe, and Newton for petty larceny at Jefferson. They made good their escape. A reward of $100 is offered for them.

Better Than Ever.

I am now better prepared than I have ever been to suit my customers in the shoe line. I have just received a large invoice of the celebrated Laird, Schober & Mitchell fine shoes for ladies. There is no manufacturer who claims anything better than these shoes. I intend to keep a full assortment of them in all prices, widths from A EE, and can suit the most fastidious in fit and price. I also received another invoice of the popular shoe, E. P. Reed's in waukenapast and patent leather tip. These shoes are well known in Albany as a first-class nice style shoe. Orders from the country filled with care and satisfaction guaranteed. Samuel E. Young.

Prof. H. C. Palmer's Conservatory of Music.

Tweeddale's block, First street, Albany, Oregon, opened January 20, 1890. The course of instruction will consist of classes for piano, organ, harmony and voice culture. There will be a normal class and diplomas furnished to teachers, specifying capacity and experience. Students participate in monthly recitals, and are graded to insure equality in rendition. This conservatory will be conducted on the same basis as those in Boston, New York, etc. This is the only recognized successful system known for a thorough musical education. Send for circulars and references. Office hours from 1 to 3.

COAST NOTES.

Keyway Notes as Reported by Exchanges Throughout the Northwest.

Pendleton has got two cases of smallpox.

Seattle complains of a very poor quality of gas.

The total clearing house receipts of Tacoma for 1889 were $25,086,677.

Pendleton expects lively real estate times in the spring. At present dirt is very cheap.

The Port Townsend Argus, a weekly since 1870, daily since 1882, has suspended publication.

A man representing $250,000,000 of English capital is trying to buy the large lumber plants of Puget Sound.

The Marquam grand opera house will be opened at Portland February 3d, making a new era of dramatic progress in Oregon.

According to the Post Intelligencer, says the Ledger, 1,832 new buildings were erected in Seattle during the last night of the year.

The salary of the governor of Montana is to be $5,000 a year. This is a contrast to the paltry amount Oregon pays her chief executive.

The Mechanic's Mill company, of Seattle are boring for artesian water in the mud flats. They expect to strike fresh water at a depth of 150 feet.

The Northern Pacific is about to build a railroad from Seattle to the international boundary line and Bellingham bay and ship's harbor, a distance of one hundred miles.

The Union Pacific is experiencing great trouble in getting engineers to do the work on the road. There have been upwards of a dozen killed on the Portland-Huntington division.

A correspondent of the Baker City Democrat says: "The immigration committee has been disorganized and the board of trade has not life enough to get out on a cold night and pay their honest debts."

Charles C. Trescott of Portland, the largest exporter of sturgeon on the coast, is preparing a bill to be presented to the legislatures of Oregon and Washington, for the protection of and propagation of sturgeon.

An Ellensburg paper says snow on the mountain ranges and in the valley of the Columbia is reported deeper than for many years past, and cattle are dying by the hundreds. The snow in the Big Bend is two feet deep, and on the mountains from three to six feet. About 3,000 head of cattle are still on the range; the streams are frozen over; there is nothing for them to eat, and unless they are rounded up and driven out every one of them will die.

Woman's Discovery

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle had been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Write W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at Foshay & Mason's Drug Store.

ALBANY.

The queen manufacturing city and railroad center of Oregon, Albany, to-day has the brightest future before it of any town in Oregon, and she will certainly by the end of 1890 have a population of from 10,000 to 15,000 souls. She is maintaining a steady and healthy growth, and is destined to be the great railroad center and manufacturing city of Oregon. Real estate to-day in Albany is cheap compared with other towns in Oregon and Washington that have not one half the future before them that Albany has. It will only be a short time until the speculator will prefer Albany to any other town in Oregon or Washington to invest his money in and those now who are smart enough to embrace the present opportunity to buy real estate in Albany while it is cheap will be the ones that make the money. The real estate firm of Burkhardt & Malin have some excellent bargains in inside property, as well as some good bargains in some of the closest additions. They have lots for from $50 to $1000 and on the installment plan. Parties who wish to get in on the ground floor should call at their office and be shown their large list of city property, which embraces residence property in all portions of the city. A few special bargains we note below, to which we respectfully invite the attention of the public:

A good 2 story house and 96 front by 110 feet deep, corner of 4th and Montgomery streets, for $3500; part cash, balance on time.

Two good vacant lots corner of 6th and Montgomery streets for $2500; a bargain.

A good new house and one lot with in two blocks of the court house for $2500. A No. 1 bargain.

1 good lot and small old house near the corner of 4th and Railroad Sts. for $750.

2 good vacant lots on 4th street within 3 blocks of the court house for $1300, half cash and balance on time.

A good new house and 1 good corner lot within 4 blocks of the central school house for $1100.

We are now offering: Lots on the installment plan in Goltra's Park addition for $20 down and $10 monthly. This is the choicest and most slightly addition to Albany, and is situated directly on the proposed street railway line. Lots in this addition will double in value in the next six months.
