ON SALE

The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at the new stand of W. F. Kuhns, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Albany and vicinity.—Following is the forecast for 24 hours, ending at 8 p. m. to-day: Rain; stationary temperature.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Bandmann in Othello to-night. Geo. H. Keeney returned last evening from Portland.

Dr. Pratt and family of Mehama, are visiting in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin.

Mr. W. H. Pierce and Miss Jane Froman, daughter of Thomas Froman of this city, were married at Independence Thursday last.

Miss Nellie Kizer, daughter of Hon. M. Kizer of Harrisburg, has accepted a position as bookkeeper in the Willamette Packing Company's store.

Tuesday evening at Corvallis S. G. McCadden gave a teaspoonful of carbolic acid to a sick boy by mistake, and the little fellow narrowly escaped death as a result of the dose.

A letter received from Mrs. Geo. S. Royce from San Bernardino, Cal., states that her husband is improved somewhat, but is still lying in a critical condition at that place.

The various committees appointed to arrange for the dedication of the Masonic temple in this city are requested to meet at the hall at 7 o'clock sharp this evening. By order of the general committee of arrangements.

The Corvallis Times says: The adjustment of a general average of loss on the steamer Yaquina Bay has just been made and figures about 18 per cent. The steamer was wrecked over a year ago, and after the long delay in adjusting the loss, many of our merchants are expressing their dissatisfaction very emphatically.

The Herald's Portland dispatch yesterday contained an account of the arrest of Wm. B. Daniels for enticing away and accomplishing the ruin of a 15 year old girl at that place. Daniels formerly resided in Albany and occupied a good position until a similar crime committed here sent him adrift.

Quite a pleasant social time was spent at the G. A. R. hall last evening, in spite of the excessive rains. It was the gathering of the Post and Corps to witness the installation of the Corps officers. Mrs. M. J. Train assisted by Mrs. Martin performed the installing ceremony, and the new President Mrs. Louisa Woodin made a very neat inaugural address. Comrade Kent added beauty to the scene by robbing his extensive conservatory of its choicest blooms for the ladies. His generous deed was fully appreciated. After the ceremonies a lunch was brought out and a pleasant social time enjoyed.

The Trains.

As indicated in our dispatches this morning the south bound overland train did not proceed any further south than this city last night. The danger of damage to the track from floods was so great that the officials of the road ordered the overland train to lie over here. It will proceed south at 8 o'clock this morning. The local train from Eugene will arrive on the time of the north bound overland train this morning, and a special train with mail and express from Roseburg will arrive at 11:20.

Bandmann To-Night.

Daniel E. Bandmann and his talented company, who will play Othello to-night as a special return engagement by the request of a number of prominent citizens of this city, arrived last evening. About 150 reserved seats have already been sold, and the opera house will be filled to-night by those who desire to see Bandmann in this Shakespearean masterpiece.

The Rising Rivers.

The Willamette is 13 feet above low water mark and was still rising last night. At the docks of the river boats all merchandise had to be removed to the upper floors to prevent their damage. The Santiam is reported to be up booming, and threatened yesterday to do considerable damage to property along the stream.

Held to Answer.

Moy Sing, the Chinese cook who assaulted Mrs. Murray, proprietor of the Exchange hotel, with a butcher's cleaver on Saturday last, was arraigned in Justice Humphrey's court yesterday. He waived examination, and in default of $200 bonds was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

WORSE THAN EVER.

Prospects of No Trains from San Francisco Within a Month.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY FLOODS

The Overland Train Order to Run No Further South Than Albany—The Track Under Water.

Special to the Herald.

PORTLAND, Jan. 29.—The condition of the Southern Pacific railroad is rapidly growing from bad to worse. The train which is to pull out of the East Portland depot south bound at 4 o'clock this evening will go under orders to run no further south than Albany. One train from Ashland will arrive here about 5 o'clock.

A reporter called on Superintendent Brandt this afternoon. He said the Santiam is rapidly rising and between Turner station and Salem the track is under water. Near Clackamas station about 18 inches of water covers the track. The greatest trouble is between Cottage Grove and Drain. The situation there is somewhat dangerous. I do not think any serious damage has been done north of Roseburg. There is no snow between here and Riddle, but in the canyon south of there I do not know how much snow may be piled up. I shall run a train no further than Albany. Nothing could induce me to run one at night over the dangerous stretches, as some of the culverts may be washed out, consequently a terrible accident would follow. The Santiam river has raised four inches to-day and is still going up. The Willamette is also rising very fast.

Concerning the situation south of Ashland, I cannot speak accurately, because our wires are all down. I think we are on the eve of one of the worst spells of high water that has been here for years. This cannot occur of course should the foothills retain their snow, but if it comes down all at once, there will be serious calamities. Another gentleman connected with the road said that he is satisfied that there will not be a train in here from San Francisco before the 1st of March. The tracks are being threatened everywhere and nothing can prevent scores of washouts from occurring.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL.

Heavy Snow in the Coast Range of Mountains—The Supreme Court.

Special to the Herald.

SALEM, Jan. 29.—In the supreme court to-day the matter of the assignment of the Lost Lake & Columbia Manufacturing Co., insolvent, Joseph Mebrath and Tatum & Bowen, E. L. Smith and Ed. Miller, contestants and respondents vs. F. A. Wood, claimant and appellant, appeal from Wasco, was argued and submitted.

Reports from the mountains back of Dallas say it is snowing there now, with six feet of snow six miles back and 15 or more at the summit.

J. F. Esterhart, of Gervais, an Irishman, aged 40, was committed to the asylum for the insane to-day. A fall received several years ago is the cause of his insanity.

Frank Anderson, sentenced from Portland 14 months ago for two years for robbing Wells, Fargo & Co. of $10,000, was released from the penitentiary to-day, Governor Pennoyer having commuted his sentence. Anderson returned the stolen money, it will be remembered.

REBEKAH ENTERTAINMENT.

Beniah Rebekah lodge will give another of their popular entertainments next Friday evening, January 31st. All Old Fellows and their families are cordially invited, with the privilege of inviting two or three of their friends. The following programme will be rendered: Recitation—Erma Carter. Song—Ora Durbulle. Recitation—Lottie Ketchum. Song—Maud Crosby. Recitation—Josephine Barnes. Vocal duet—Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Vanwinkle. Recitation—Miss Lora Vance. Vocal solo—Mrs. Lee. Recitation—Miss Helen Crawford. Vocal duet—Mr. Young and Mr. Hart. Quartette—Messrs. Sears and Hart, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Vanwinkle. Address—Hon. G. W. Wright.

LETTER LIST.

Following is the list of letters remaining in the postoffice in Albany, Linn county, Oregon, Jan. 15, 1890. Persons calling for these letters will give the date on which they were advertised: Bennett, Miss Ottilie; Bargebaugh, H. M.; Bennett, George; Bigham, M. M.; Burthell, Mrs. Mary; Costello, Larry; Cox, G. B.; Eastwood, Will B.; Duward, Wm.; Habin, Mrs. E. A.; Grubb, Albert; King, W. H.; Lockwood, Anna—2; Muller, Wm—6; Maxwell, J. C.; Mattson, Isaac—2; Ogle, Delvin; Park, Mrs. E. B.; Solomon, Abraham; Spriggs, John L.—2; Smith, J. B.; Versing, John; RUFUS THOMPSON, P. M.

A Remarkable Scene.

Early yesterday morning there was a long line of expectant purchasers persistently holding their places in line outside the door of the Willamette Packing Co.'s grocery store. Although Albany is a progressive city it is an unusual thing to see a line of staid and sober citizens waiting for a place of business to open as early as 6 o'clock in the morning. This determined assemblage was occasioned by the announcement that the sale of pure and fresh groceries and provisions commenced early every morning and that the rule of first come first served will be strictly observed.

THE CONTEST NEXT JUNE.

The Approaching Election Promises to Bring Some Political Fun.

It is announced that Hon. L. T. Barin, chairman of the republican state central committee will call the committee together in Portland on March 5th, and that the date of the state convention will then be fixed.

Political prophets are already beginning to forecast the result of the contest in June. There are half a dozen candidates for the various state offices, from governor down, who are confident that they are as good as elected, but it is not improbable that there will be several surprises about the time the convention meets. The big republican majority in Oregon will make the contest in the convention more exciting than the election. Albany has never asked for very much in the election of state officers, but this city will have one or two candidates to present when the proper time arrives, who will not take no for an answer, and the delegates from Linn county will go into the convention with a determined demand for representation for this growing portion of Oregon.

In county affairs there is a change over former conditions. The increased immigration has added a population from republican states which will nearly, if not quite, equalize the democratic majority which has heretofore been conceded to Linn county, and which especially flourished in the historic "Forks of the Santiam." This quantity being eliminated from the election the parties in June will enter the field about on an equality, and the contest promises to be an unusually warm one. Although it is yet early a number of candidates, including about every official at the court house, are willing to enter for the June races, and a reasonable amount of political fun may be expected.

Bold Thieves.

Thieves entered the butcher shop in the Third ward yesterday afternoon during the temporary absence of the proprietor and robbed the till of several dollars. They then made good their escape without being detected.

OBITUARY.

Died on the 25th of January, 1890, at Sweet Home, Linn county, Oregon, Dr. J. N. Gilbert. This is a sad and heavy blow to this section of the country. Previous to becoming a citizen of Sweet Home he had made us several visits, and on one occasion delivered a series of lectures on physiology, which were quite interesting, and he proved himself well versed in regard to the science of the properties and functions of human beings. When the doctor announced his intention of becoming a citizen of Sweet Home the people were much rejoiced, and he received a warm welcome. He was soon busy ministering to the many afflicted ones in this vicinity. But he himself soon fell a victim to disease, and no doubt in his anxiety to relieve others he forgot his own suffering, and so through his exposure in his round of visits, when he should have been in bed, his troubles were aggravated and his life was the forfeit. The news of his death was a shock to the neighborhood—so sudden, so unexpected. The people could hardly believe it. His funeral services were held in the Evangelical church in this place, and though the house was almost impassable, the rooms were filled with people who felt that a prince had fallen. The tears that flowed from the eyes of many testified in unmistakable language that he was held in high esteem by these people. He leaves a wife and son to mourn his loss. Mrs. Gilbert, who is a highly cultured and most estimable Christian lady, has the sympathy of the people of this neighborhood in this her time of sad bereavement.

Sweet Home, Jan. 28.

Better Than Ever.

I am now better prepared than I have ever been to suit my customers in the shoe line. I have just received a large invoice of the celebrated Laird, Schober & Mitchell fine shoes for ladies. There is no manufacturer who claims anything better than these shoes. I intend to keep a full assortment of them in all prices, widths from A EE, and can suit the most fastidious in fit and price. I also received another invoice of the popular shoe, E. P. Reed's in waukeonahast and patent leather tip. These shoes are well known in Albany as a first-class nice style shoe. Orders from the country filled with care and satisfaction guaranteed. Samuel E. Young.

Prof. E. C. Palmer's Conservatory of Music.

Twoedale's block, First street, Albany, Oregon, opened January 20, 1890. The course of instruction will consist of classes for piano, organ, harmony and voice culture. There will be a normal class and diplomas furnished to teachers, specifying capacity and experience. Students participate in monthly recitals, and are graded to insure equality in rendition. This conservatory will be conducted on the same basis as those in Boston, New York, etc. This is the only recognized successful system known for a thorough musical education. Send for circulars and references. Office hours from 1 to 3.

S. J. Brown, who recently purchased the cigar store of H. S. Ellis & Co., opposite the Revere House, keeps a fine assortment of the best brands of domestic and imported cigars. Smokers are invited to try his goods.

Smoke the celebrated Havana filled 5-cent cigars, manufactured at Julius Joseph's cigar factory.

THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

The Blockades and Storms Have Made Traffic in Dirt a Trifle Slow.

The continued storms and blockades have interfered somewhat with the traffic in real estate, yet there are many who realize that by investing now before the big march of improvements is made in the spring they can make a handsome profit, and the recorder of deeds is by no means idle.

Following are the sales for the past three days:

ALBANY.

The queen manufacturing city and railroad center of Oregon, Albany, to-day has the brightest future before it of any town in Oregon, and she will certainly by the end of 1890 have a population of from 10,000 to 15,000 souls. She is maintaining a steady and healthy growth, and is destined to be the great railroad center and manufacturing city of Oregon. Real estate to-day in Albany is cheap compared with other towns in Oregon and Washington that have not one-half the future before them that Albany has. It will only be a short time until the speculator will prefer Albany to any other town in Oregon or Washington to invest his money in and those now who are smart enough to embrace the present opportunity to buy real estate in Albany while it is cheap will be the ones that make the money. The real estate firm of Burkhardt & Malin have some excellent bargains in inside property, as well as some good bargains in some of the closest additions. They have lots for from $50 to $1000 and on the installment plan. Parties who wish to get in on the ground floor should call at their office and be shown their large list of city property, which embraces residence property in all portions of the city. A few special bargains we note below, to which we respectfully invite the attention of the public:

A good 2 story house and 96 front by 110 feet deep, corner of 4th and Montgomery streets, for $3500; part cash, balance on time.

Two good vacant lots corner of 6th and Montgomery streets for $2500; a bargain.

A good new house and one lot with in two blocks of the court house for $2500. A No. 1 bargain.

1 good lot and small old house near the corner of 4th and Railroad Sts. for $750.

2 good vacant lots on 4th street within 3 blocks of the court house for $1300, half cash and balance on time.

A good new house and 1 good corner lot within 4 blocks of the central school house for $1100.

We are now offering: Lots on the installment plan in Goltra's Park addition for $30 down and $10 monthly. This is the choicest and most sightly addition to Albany, and is situated directly on the proposed street railway line. Lots in this addition will double in value in the next six months.
