ON SALE.

The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at the new stand of W. F. Kuhn's, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Albany and vicinity—Following is the forecast for 24 hours, ending at 8 P. M. to-day: Rain; stationary temperature.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Supt. Bowen, of the Oregon Pacific Railroad Co., is in the city.

The Oregon Land Company has established an office in Portland.

Several brick business houses will be built on Second street during the coming season.

The Willamette reached 17 feet above low water mark at this city last evening, but is now falling.

Mr. H. S. Crissman, of DuBois, Penn., is in the city and expects to locate in Albany and engage in business.

On account of the high water in the river the mills of the city have been compelled to shut down for a day or two.

The Albany woolen mills have commenced turning out a fine grade of finished cloth from the new mills in this city.

The south-bound overland train last evening left this city on schedule time for Roseburg. A train from the latter place will reach this city on regular time this morning.

Mr. J. C. Phelps and family, of Chicago, who recently visited this city, have returned to Albany after an absence of some two weeks, the attractions of the queen city proving irresistible.

There will be a dime social this (Friday) evening, at the residence of W. S. Thompson, at the corner of Fourth and Montgomery streets. All are cordially invited, and a pleasant evening is anticipated.

Mr. E. G. Beardsley has refitted his real estate office on Broadalbin street, having provided his rooms with electric lights and improvements preparatory to a lively business during the approaching season.

Surveying a Line.

The Eugene Register says that surveyors in the employ of the railroad company have been at work around Springfield the past week surveying for a line there. They began at a point a short distance north of the present Springfield station on the O. & C., and ran their line so as to cross the Willamette just south of the wagon bridge. They made two preliminary surveys last week, and expect to make a final survey this week.

Grounds for depot purposes have been selected almost in the heart of the city. The surveyors, after completing their work there, will commence at Clatsop and run a line across from the narrow gauge to Springfield. They also expect to run a line up the Middle Fork route and across the mountains. It is expected that cars will be running into Springfield in less than a year.

Criminal Destruction.

Last summer the farmers of the Willamette valley purposely destroyed by fire thousands of tons of straw. Now at Dallas straw readily commands $12 a ton. From this it would seem that the farmers of the valley are annually guilty of the destruction of many thousands of dollars worth of something that they had far better preserve. Baled straw makes first-class rough feed for stock. It is also worth considerable in the manufacture of paper and there is a steady demand for clean straw for this purpose. But perhaps the farmers will one day take a hint and think twice before applying the torch to their stacks of thrashed straw.

Bandmann in Othello.

Daniel E. Bandmann and his talented company in their return engagement at the opera house last evening was greeted by a large audience. Othello, the Moor of Venice, was presented in a most satisfactory manner. Bandmann appeared at his best in this Shakespearean masterpiece, and won a hearty and oft repeated applause. Miss Oliver as Iago and Miss Ellsworth as Desdemona each exhibited some clever acting. Bandmann and his excellent company are entitled to a leading position in the dramatic world, and certainly deserve success wherever they go.

Landslide at Yaquina.

On Wednesday night the high bluff behind the docks at Yaquina and the hotel came down in a mighty landslide, bringing several thousand tons of earth and loose rock to the level below. No damage was done beyond burying up a few dirt cars and blocking the street.

STATE DISPATCHES.

The Railroad Blockade—An Indian Murderer Sentenced to Be Hung.

Special to the Herald. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—The railway blockades continue to be the topic of popular conversation. The Southern Pacific is in better condition than it was yesterday. The inundations are less dangerous and the wire now reaches Roseburg.

The Stark street ferry has been blocked in the middle of the river all day. At 6 o'clock this morning the boat started towards the Portland side and some snags came down against her, impeding further progress. At one time it seemed she would upset, but the danger was averted.

AN ABSORBING CASHIER.

Wm. C. Roberts, late cashier of Wm. Dunbar & Co., wholesale commission merchants of Portland, has been arrested and is now confined in the county jail at Jacksonville. He was taken into custody Tuesday by the county sheriff through a warrant telegraphed to him by Sheriff Penumbra Kelly, of this city. Mr. Dunbar stated to a reporter that Mr. Roberts made an attempt yesterday to get out of jail on a writ of habeas corpus, but the court refused to grant the plea, and consequently the refugee remains behind the bars. The report at first published that Roberts was guilty of taking only the cash book was erroneous. He is suspected of taking both the cash book and three merchandise books. It is not known just when he will be brought to Portland, but owing to the present blockade of road it will be perhaps a week any way.

SENTENCED TO HANG.

Pellio, the Indian recently convicted of murder in the first degree on the killing of Agnes Tasso on the night of the 20th of last May, was sentenced by Judge Sabin to-day to be hanged on the 6th of next June.

SUPREME COURT.

SALEM, Jan. 30.—In the supreme court to-day the case of the state of Oregon vs. Clinton Pennington app., appeal from Baker county, was argued and submitted.

FROM THE METROPOLIS.

Mails on the Revenue Cutter Rush—Floor for China.

Portland Oregonian.

Postmaster Roby, of Portland, has received a dispatch from Postmaster W. J. Bryan, of San Francisco, on Wednesday, stating that he had started for Portland on the revenue cutter Rush 467 tons sacks, nineteen pouches of letters and three registered pouches. The Rush will be due in Portland Saturday, and will leave for San Francisco the day following with all mail for San Francisco accumulated here.

The Canadian Pacific Steamship Company's steamer Danube has loaded and will take away from Portland 1000 tons of flour for China, which is all she can carry at this season. On her last trip she was pretty well loaded down, and had a rough trip, the seas making a clean sweep over her. She leaves flour enough for another cargo behind, which goes to show that it will not be long till we shall need a line of steamers direct from this port to China. Some one ought to try and have such a line established as soon as possible.

Farmers who bring in loads of onions now go home with their pockets full of cash, and a happy, contented smile on their faces. These nutritious, odoriferous and wholesome esculents now bring $2.25 per cental, and the man who kept his onion crop through the winter has reason to rejoice, for last fall they sold for 75 cents per cental. There has been but little loss as yet from the onions sprouting, but this will soon make a serious inroad on the profits from holding them, and if the farmers begin to pile them too fast the price will probably go down, for there is no outside market for them at present prices. The prospects for additional profits by holding, however, depends on the quantity in the hands of the farmers, for onions have gone up to five cents a pound when they were scarce, and on one occasion they retailed here for ten cents a pound. When they get very high most people prefer coutechoue or some other compound for sweetening their breath.

Bridge Wrecked.

Word was telephoned from Springfield to Judge Scott at Eugene Monday that the wind was about to blow down the bridge across the Willamette at that place. They reported that some of the timbers had given away. Judge Scott, E. J. McClanahan, H. C. Humphrey and L. N. Roney went over at once to see what could be done, but found that the bridge was not so bad as the report stated, though it had shifted some more. She high wind of about a month ago sprung the bridge to quite an extent and it has not yet been repaired. The bridge is a long one and closed, and the wind Monday struck it broadside.

Prof. B. C. Palmer's Conservatory of Music.

Tweedale's Block, First street, Albany, Oregon, opened January 20, 1890. The course of instruction will consist of classes for piano, organ, harmony and voice culture. There will be a normal class and diplomas furnished to teachers, specifying capacity and experience. Students participate in monthly recitals, and are graded to insure equality in rendition. This conservatory will be conducted on the same basis as those in Boston, New York, etc. This is the only recognized successful system known for a thorough musical education. Send for circulars and references. Office hours from 1 to 3.

A MISTAKEN IMPRESSION.

Concerning the Railroad to Astoria—No Road From Albany Will Be Built.

The Astorian has this to say concerning the railroad connection from the Willamette Valley to Astoria: "What the people of the state want to know is, will these hitches and interruptions more than temporarily retard the building of the road. They will not. "The road will be built. That is an assured fact. "We notice that there is a suspension of railroad talk in Albany and Salem. Our newspaper friends there have not so much to say as recently. They are justifiable. The trouble with Salem and Albany is that no exact, definite form of procedure has as yet been devised. "The Astorian suggests to both those enterprising communities a way that will, or it seems should be mutually satisfactory. "Of course neither Salem or Albany want to have either get any advantage. That is natural. Why not unite and agree on a Y? Let it be agreed that the road, when built, shall branch, one arm running into Salem, the other into Albany, thus putting each city on an equal footing, so far as a railroad outlet to Oregon's seaport is concerned. "In union is strength. Astoria means business. Our city would be glad to see unity prevail and have Salem and Albany unite upon some such proposition. "What say you, Statesman and Journal and Herald and Democrat, to the suggestion?"

The Astorian is in error concerning the plan of procedure of the Albany & Astoria Railway Co. of this city. The company is incorporated on a solid financial basis, with a capital of $2,000,000 backing it. They have surveyed and located the line, and have already paid out for this preliminary work over $10,000. Their plans are already matured, and the work has been commenced. They have purchased a plant, and propose to have 1000 men at work on the road during the coming season. The company has its office regularly established in this city, and its officers say there is no longer any doubt about the road being built from this city to Astoria.

CRAWFORDSVILLE NOTES.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Jan. 27. Mr. John Coy moved into town last Saturday, so as to be near his business.

There has been quite a drought in the mail for several days until Friday. There is quite a number sick with a gripe or influenza, but none have resulted fatally as yet.

J. H. Scott & son shipped about 1000 pounds of leather to San Francisco one day last week.

Mr. George Riggs of Mohawk came over Saturday. He reported snow about 3 feet deep on the summit.

The band boys have employed Mr. Pat Farrell of Eugene, to teach them for some time. The boys have professed fairly well themselves, and now that they have a teacher, they ought to make some good music. Everybody is anxiously waiting to see further developments concerning the railroad. There is considerable interest in the mines and the timber. I understand there is to be two large saw mills put in above here this coming summer by Michigan companies. There is several eastern men here now looking at timber land. The time has come when this country needs a road and must have it soon. There is now all the inducements held out that a road need wish. The country is rapidly filling up and developing.

ALBANY.

The queen manufacturing city and railroad center of Oregon, Albany, to-day has the brightest future before it of any town in Oregon, and she will certainly by the end of 1890 have a population of from 10,000 to 15,000 souls. She is maintaining a steady and healthy growth, and is destined to be the great railroad center and manufacturing city of Oregon. Real estate to-day in Albany is cheap compared with other towns in Oregon and Washington that have not one half the future before them that Albany has. It will only be a short time until the speculator will prefer Albany to any other town in Oregon or Washington to invest his money in and those now who are smart enough to embrace the present opportunity to buy real estate in Albany while it is cheap will be the ones that make the money. The real estate firm of Burkhardt & Malin have some excellent bargains in inside property, as well as some good bargains in some of the closest additions. They have lots for from $50 to $1000 and on the installment plan. Parties who wish to get in on the ground floor should call at their office and be shown their large list of city property, which embraces residence property in all portions of the city. A few special bargains we note below, to which we respectfully invite the attention of the public:

A good 2 story house and 96 front by 110 feet deep, corner of 4th and Montgomery streets, for $3800; part cash, balance on time.

Two good vacant lots corner of 6th and Montgomery streets for $2500; a bargain.

A good new house and one lot with in two blocks of the court house for $2500. A No. 1 bargain.

1 good lot and small old house near the corner of 4th and Railroad Sts. for $750.

2 good vacant lots on 4th street within 3 blocks of the court house for $1300, half cash and balance on time.

A good new house and 1 good corner lot within 4 blocks of the central school house for $1100.

We are now offering: Lots on the installment plan in Goltra's Park addition for $30 down and $10 monthly. This is the choicest and most sightly addition to Albany, and is situated directly on the proposed street railway line. Lots in this addition will double in value in the next six months.
