Boulanger Wants a Divorce—Duke of Orleans to be Pardoned.

PARIS, Feb. 18.—General Boulanger was notified yesterday that the sacred congregation at Rome had decided against his application for divorce. The general has sent to the Papal Nuncio at Paris entreating him to ask the holy father to over-rule the decree. Should the application be successful the general will marry Mme. Bonemain, to whom he owes 100,000 francs.

SNOW STORMS IN NEVADA.

Exorbitant Prices Demanded for Shovelling Snow.

NEVADA CITY, Feb. 18.—Eight inches of snow has fallen at this city in the last five hours, and although yesterday's fall has settled several inches, the snow is two feet deep on a level. Shovelers this morning demanded 75 cents per hour for clearing roofs, and figure on getting $1 an hour before night.

The barometer stands 29, being the lowest this winter; the thermometer was 31 last night and 33 this morning. The Narrow Gauge company's snow plow had a hard fight this morning getting up the grade to the town. It then came back to the station, and taking one coach with passengers, baggage and mails, started for Grass Valley.

The deepest snow will be encountered below Grass Valley.
Stages for North Bloomfield and Camptonville left this morning loaded light and were accompanied by swimmers to clear the roads, if possible, of snow and fallen trees.

The telegraph wires are being frequently grounded and need constant attention. Very little water is in the streams, owing to the choking by snow.

STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS.

A Full Confession Promised from a Cronin Murderer.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—A Times special from St. Louis says the police made a mysterious capture last night, and although they gave no information it is believed they have secured the noted Cronin suspect Cooney the Fox. The police deny that the man is Cooney the Fox. They decline to say who he is, but admit that he is one of the Cronin conspirators. It is surmised by some that he is Simonds, the man who bought the trunk in which Cronin's body was carried from the cottage.

Later—it is now said that the man is even a more important personage, so far as the state is concerned, than Cooney, and that it promises to result in the complete unraveling of the Cronin mystery.
The man arrested is supposed to be Smith, the friend of Dan Congh-lign, who came from Hancock, Michigan, and is the man believed to have driven the white house that conveyed Dr. Cronin to his death in Carlson cottage. The arrest was made at Little Rock, Arkansas.

The chief of police says the man arrested as the Cronin suspect is J. B. Kelly, a Chicago book canvasser, otherwise known as J. B.
Simonds, alias Smith. He has consented to return without a requisition, and it is understood he will make a full confession.

A DENIAL.
The Cronin suspect under arrest here says his name is J. B. Kelly, and denies that he is in any way connected with the Cronin case.

NAUGHTY SPIRITS.

They Are Unmanned and Led Off to Jail.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—Three reporters and detectives last night attended a dark cabaret and were managed to unmask Mrs. Carrie Sawyer and her husband, Frank Burk and Kattie Rainger who played disembodied spirits. Mrs. Sawyer played male parts with wigs. Burk was manager. They were arrested and locked up. Mrs. Sawyer was formerly a well known medium in San Francisco. She was doing a big business.

Killed by a Train.
SELMA, Cal., Feb. 18.—This morning at 9 o'clock, D. D. Stephens, who owned the Pioneer store and was largely interested in the lumber business here, was struck by an engine and killed while attempting to cross the track.

Valuable Horse Dead.
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—Capt.
Sawyer's 2-year-old filly, which beat the best for the 2-year-old stakes at Santa Rosa last fall, died at the Bay District track yesterday morning. Captain Harris had refused an offer of $15,000 for the filly.

Speaking For the Liberal Party.
ROCHESTER, Feb. 18.—At the Chamber of Commerce dinner held here L. P. Ross, presiding, the leading speakers were Judge Danforth, congressman of this city, Board of Trade and Ernest Wimser. The latter in replying to the toast "A committee That Should Be Continental!

said that the Liberal party in Canada, at the next general election to be held within eighteen months, with a slight encouragement from the United States, would make this a test question, and if successful, would elect a Parliament that would favor a commercial intercourse between the two nations, as free and unrestricted as that which prevails between the States of the Union.

SHOT DEAD IN A BALLROOM.

A Jealous Husband Kills His Brother in Morrow County—Several Persons Killed by the Fall of a Gallery.

SALEM, Feb. 18.—News was re- ceived in Salem about dark last night that E. A. Johnson, a bartender of Portland, had attempted to murder a woman and her daughter yesterday evening out near Swartz's, about six miles east of Salem.

Particulars as near as could be learned are that Johnson came up from Portland on the noon train yesterday and hired a livery horse, and drove out to Lou Swartz's farm, about six miles from Salem, where Mrs.
Daisy Wanless, a relative of the Swartzes was stopping. He called for her at the house and tried to persuade her to go away with him.

She positively refused to do so and left him, going back into the house.
He followed her, and as she entered the house he drew a razor and attempted to cut her throat, in which attempt he would have been successful but for the interference of Lou Swartz, who rushed to her rescue.

Swartz drew a gun and Johnson fled, going over to Richard Swartz's house, where a daughter of Mrs. Wanless was stopping. He attempted to cut her throat also and would have succeeded had he not been stopped by some of the Swartz family before he could accomplish his work. Again he fled, the second time in the direction of Salem.

A young man named Brown, who lived in the neighborhood, was informed of the twice attempted murder and started immediately for Salem to inform the authorities and have Johnson arrested. Brown took a short cut for Salem, arriving here in advance of Johnson, and told Sheriff Croisan of the circumstances.

Deputy Sheriff Wain started after Johnson and arrested him just as he was coming into the city. Johnson was committed to jail last night and will have a hearing to-day when he will no doubt be held to await the action of the grand jury now in session.

The facts as related were given by the young man Brown, who came to inform the sheriff of the attempted murders, for which no cause is assigned other than that Johnson wanted the woman to go away with him and get married.

War On The Deadly Cigarette.
BALTIMORE, Feb. 18.—A vigorous fight is being made against the sale of cigarettes in the State. There is now a law prohibiting the selling of cigarettes to minors, but it is not properly enforced. Several more stringent bills are now before the Legislature. The Tobacco Board of Trade is assisting the Society for the Prevention of Vice among Children to abolish cigarette smoking. A new bill will be introduced in the Legislature this week, as a substitute for all other bills, providing for an extra license of $50 on tobacco dealers selling cigarettes, and interdicts the sale of cigarettes in which any deleterious ingredient is used in the manufacture. As the smoking of the paper used in cigarettes is considered deleterious to health, the bill, if passed, will break up the trade entirely.

Explorer Stanley, when he started up the Congo, carried for his personal use a tent, which was a gorgeous canvas villa containing no less than six apartments—parlor, bedroom, dining-room, kitchen, bathroom, etc., with every convenience that could be provided in a movable dwelling. But he was forced to abandon it because of the difficulty of transportation had risen up and passed away, each in turn bearing his testimonial of the justice of their demands. The woman suffragists, were here to-day, she continued, to ask Congress to take the necessary steps for the speedy enfranchisement of women; and there were three great reasons for this re- quest: first, for the benefit that self- government would be to woman her- self; secondly, for the immense advantage it would be to the family to have liberally educated wives and mothers, well informed on all ques- tions of public interest; thirdly, for the good of the State.

Miss Susan B. Anthony then discussed at length the reasons above set forth. As yet political parties were taking no cognizance of the appeals of women for justice; but women's discontent, though neither noticed nor understood, slept deep down in the hearts of one-half the people. This growing discontent, keeping pace with woman's virtue, intelligence and larger freedom, she continued, was the most dangerous menace to the State to-day, because, with her religious enthusiasm, she was a power to carry any measure which demagogues may declare for the public good. In view of the great poets, novelists and historians among women, who can question, she asked, the wisdom woman might bring into the discussion of the questions so puzzling to our statesmen of to-day.
