the Pan-American congress one of the objects of that body is distinctly stated to be the consideration of the question of establishing a uniform double standard system of coinage throughout the nations of the American continent.

The misguided farmers of France have insisted on the fiscal policy of the government being regulated so that they may avoid the hard fate of English agriculturists who have been starved in the interest of free trade.

The death of the Sultan of Zanzibar has been pronounced by medical examinations to have been produced from the effects of sunstroke. The examination and its results speaks loudly for the progress toward civilization, as but a short time ago his death would have led to the accusation of half of his court of being guilty of his taking off, and probably led to a number of executions.

The overtures made by the Emperor of Germany, and his Prime Minister Bi-marek to the socialistic element do not appear to have had the desired effect. At least judging from the recent election, in which the socialists virtually scored a success.

The owners of lots in Albany should be looking them over to select and donate a suitable site for the Orphan's Home, which is to be erected by the ladies of the Ladies Aid Society.

A GENTLEMAN just on from the east says that Albany is the cleanest, handsomest, and best kept city that he has seen in his travels.
