William Scott, Husband of the Murdered Woman, Arrested.

McMINNVILLE, Or., Feb. 24.—The coroner's jury in the case of Mrs. Scott, who was murdered one week ago last Sunday, rendered a verdict this evening that the deceased died from two gunshot wounds fired by Wm. Scott, husband of the deceased. The testimony showed that the accused tried to give the deceased strychnine, but she refused to take it. He had also torn leaves from her account book, where she had written a few lines complaining of her hard lot since marrying Scott. Scott was arrested at once, and lodged in jail.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—No objection was raised in the Senate to the consideration and passage of Senator Heat's bill "for the erection of a statue and monument to James Madison"; and the Joint Committee on the Library, if the bill gets through the house, will soon be on its hands the difficult task of hunting out a proper site for the proposed memorial in a city fast filling up with all sorts of public monuments. So great is the pressure already for good places for bronze statemen, soldiers, sailors and heroes generally, at once or on horseback, that the Senate has now under consideration a bill for the removal of the so called Naval or Peace Monument from the Capitol grounds, to make room for a worthy substitute, in the way of a bronze statue of Christopher Columbus. The Peace Monument, about the irremovable ungainliness of which there is, by the way, no dispute, is to be exiled, according to this scheme, to a plot of ground at the far northwest corner of the city, beyond Dupont Circle; and Columbus is to have the choice and commanding plot now occupied by it at the head of Pennsylvania-ave. The bill to honor James Madison with a monument does not provide expressly for a new "deal" in statues but it will surprise no one if some other less favored statesman, now pleasantly situated, will be ousted in time for the benefit of the fourth President. The Joint Committee is to have $40,000 to spend on the "monument and statue."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has transmitted to the Senate a report from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, enclosing a draft of a bill to amend the first section of the act providing for the allotment of lands in severalty to Indians. The Commissioner, in his report, says that in August last a special agent held a council with the Sac and Fox Indians of Kansas and Nebraska for the purpose of obtaining their consent to the provisions of the Act of 1883, which provides for the allotment of their lands in severalty. The Indians unanimously refused to accept the provisions of the act. The Quipaw Indians have also declined to take their allotments. An agreement, the report continues, has recently been negotiated with the Sisseton and Wahpeton Indians of the Lake Traverse reservation in Dakota for the sale of their surplus lands, upon condition that the allotment shall first be equalized so as to give each Indian 160 acres. The commissioner thinks that the Act of February, 1887, should be amended so as to give all the members of a tribe equal quantities of land. The bill, as amended by the committee, fixes the amount of land to be allotted to each Indian, where the quantity of land in the reservation is sufficient, at 160 acres, and also provides for the equalization of allotments already made in whole or in part where there is sufficient land.

Chicago Chronicle.
We have the best authority for saying "salt is good," but when a person pays two bits for a little capsule filled with common chloride of sodium it is too good a joke. Can anybody bear witness that any one in Chicago has invested that amount for a capsule filled with salt? There was a fellow in town yesterday, visiting from house to house, supplying families with the above-named article and assuring the good housewives that if it was placed in a lamp the light would be so improved as to rival the best gas. It is commonly reported the agent for the great salt capsule illuminator made many sales in town. It is hardly to be expected, however, that any of those who purchase will to-day own up to it. Ask your neighbors if they invested.

A Good Investment.
Twenty-four feet on First street, in the best block in Albany, for sale at a bargain. The property will double in value in two years.

Jacobs former owner of the American sailing schooner, Nellie Adams is still confined in goal, not having yet convinced the court that he is unable to pay. Hester the sum owed him for breach of contract by Jacobs, for failing to deliver sail skins over to him. This is the case in which Judge Drake decided that Behring Sea was a high sea open to all comers.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE
HARRISBURG, Feb. 22, 1890.
At the regular meeting of Harrisburg Grange No. 11 P. O. A. the following resolutions were adopted:
WHEREAS, God in his kind providence has been pleased to call our beloved brother Wm. McCoulloch, one of the few remaining charter members of this grange to lay down the implements on earth and join the brotherhood beyond. Therefore be it,
Resolved, That while we humbly bow to the decree of the divine ruler we truly mourn the loss of one who was always ready with good council and advice to his fellow grangers.
Resolved, That in his death this order loses one of its most honored members, his family a kind and affectionate father, and the community a good citizen.
Resolved, That the grange hall be draped in mourning for thirty days.
Resolved, That these resolutions be placed on the record, a copy sent to the bereaved family and a copy be furnished the county printers for publication.
B. A. STAFFORD,
Geo. M. ALFORD,
E. E. UPMYER,
Committee.

The Solemn Oath He Took.
Judge Corwin's famous temperance address, which was printed in postscripts a few weeks ago, recalls an incident which occurred during one of Francis Murphy's blue-ribbon addresses. A drunken man sat in the audience and listened with awful gravity to the remarks. Murphy was telling of a formal occurrence alleged to have happened in a distant State—where such things always happen.
"And my friends," said he, "this poor wretch was so filled and saturated with alcohol that he fairly breathed alcohol, and one night when he tried to blow out a candle the flame set the alcohol flames a-fire, and the wretch a rot was burned alive."
The drunken man arose to his feet and huskily demanded:
"Is that so?"
"It is most assuredly so, sir!"
"Got or—lic—got or took?"
"Yes, right down here in front."
The horrible example waiked uncertainly down in front. The audience were on the toes of expectancy. Here was another brand plucked from the burning.
"I solemn swear," said the inebriate, "that never, so long as I live, will I—lic—will I ever blow out another candle."—Washington Post.

A Lost Farm.
Santa Maria Graphic.
Billy Gage, who owned and farmed a forty-acre tract of sand beam land, which extended to the bank of the Santa Maria river, near the railroad bridge, mourns the loss of his whole farm, the high water having washed away every inch of it. From the condition of things on his ranch he believes irrigation would be necessary. He kept moving his house—a small cabin—back as the river advanced, from time to time, until it now rests on another man's land.
Billy takes his loss good naturedly, saying that the river will eventually reach the town, and more land than his will go toward the ocean; his farm will be on the opposite side. Mr. Gage is not the only one who lost valuable real estate this winter. All who own land along the bank on the Santa Maria side are losers, more or less.

Woman's Discovery.
"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle she was miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelby, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at Foshy & Mason's Drug Store.

Files! Files! Files!
Dr. William's Indian File Ointment is the only sure cure for blind, itching or itching piles ever discovered. It never fails to cure old cases of long standing.
Judge Coons, Mayville, Ky., writes: "Dr. William's Indian File Ointment cured me after years of suffering."
Judge Coffinbury, Cleveland, O., writes: "I have found by experience that Dr. William's Indian File Ointment gives immediate and permanent relief."
We have hundreds of such testimonials. Do not suffer an instant longer. Sold by druggists at 50c and $1 per box. Sold by Foshy & Mason, Albany, Oregon.

LOST AT SEA.
Four Men were Seen Clinging to a Wrecked Schooner.
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Captain Turner of the American schooner Harry Prescott, reports that on February 8th, in latitude 34, longitude 75, he observed a wreck of a three-masted schooner, dismasted and water logged, with the sea making a clean breach over her. Four men were clinging to the after house. On account of the dangerous sea Capt. Turner says it was impossible to render them any assistance. When last seen the wreck was drifting toward Hatteras shoal.

The Faulkner Pure Food Bill.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The senate committee of agriculture and forestry to-day had under consideration the Faulkner pure food bill which establishes a bureau in the agricultural department with authority to inspect and analyze food and drugs, with power to destroy articles dilatory to health. Several important amendments were proposed and the bill put into shape by a sub-committee for action next session.

The Poet, Tennyson Ill.
LONDON, Feb. 25.—Lord Tennyson's illness has become serious, and the gravest result is apprehended. A courier has just informed the queen that Tennyson's condition is very serious to-day.

Kilrain is Not Sick.
BALTIMORE, Feb. 25.—Kilrain has written to the Sun to say that he goes to hot springs not because he had rheumatism or any ailments, but to make money. He was sick when he met Corbett who hit him in the eye with his elbow and would not give him a match afterwards.
