Idaho's Chances for Admission Into the Union Are Good.

TWO LAND OFFICES FILLED
The German Election Led to Bismarck's Resignation—John Jacob Astor's Will.

The Herald's Special Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The house committee on territories has decided to report favorably a bill for the admission of Idaho. The action is not entirely unanimous. Two reports therefore in all probability will be submitted.

STORMS IN THE SOUTH.

Houses Blown Down and Trees Uprooted in Tennessee.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 25.—The storm here last night nearly reached the proportions of a cyclone. The new cotton compress near the depot, a brick mill and the Northern Methodist church were completely wrecked, and many houses damaged. Trees were uprooted and tossed about like straws. In the business portion of the city not much damage was done beyond tearing down signs and breaking windows. A severe wind and rain storm visited Memphis again this morning, but beyond general prostration of wires no serious damage was done. At Brownsville half the business portion of the town was badly wrecked and many residences damaged. So far no fatalities are reported, but lack of wires makes communication difficult.

JOHN JACOB ASTOR'S WILL.

How the Dead Capitalist's Millions Will be Divided.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—At noon today William Waldorf Astor and lawyer Southmayd, executors, entered the surrogate's office with John Jacob Astor's will and filed a petition for its probate. The will covers only two and a half sheets of parchment. By the terms of the will St. Luke's hospital receives $100,000; the Metropolitan Museum of Art, $50,000; New York Cancer hospital, $100,000; Astor library, $150,000; Alexander Hamilton $30,000; Joseph Simmons Armstrong, $30,000. All the residue of the estate goes to his son, William Waldorf Astor.

FROZEN CALIFORNIA.

The Plot Thickens and the Snow Continues to Fall.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 26.—Train No. 4, due here from east at 6 a. m., arrived all covered with snow, the result of last night's severe snow storm and blizzard in the mountains. Train No. 2, scheduled for 6:25 p. m., will be at least three hours late, caused by heavy snows of yesterday. At this hour 11 a. m., the sun is shining with mercury still below freezing point on the mountains.

THE NEW SILVER BILL.

The Provisions and Principal Features of the Measure.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—In the senate the substitute for the Windom silver bill was reported and placed on the calendar, to authorize the purchase of gold and silver bullion and the issue of treasury notes in payment. The bill directs the purchase of silver bullion to the amount of $4,500,000 per month and as much gold bullion as may be offered, and the issue of treasury notes, and repeal of the law directing the coinage of 2,000,000 silver dollars per month. Beck said the report from the finance committee was not unanimous. He opposed it. Sherman and McPherson also said they opposed the bill.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

A Bill Will Be Drafted in Accordance With Chicago's Wishes.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The special house committee on World's Fair met this morning to begin consideration of the second stage of its work of completion of bills. After hearing a statement from Pitt to Chicago's wishes in the matter, a sub-committee was instructed to draft a bill in accordance therewith.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 26.—Reports from Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Dakotas show that a severe blizzard is raging on the prairies, to-day. It is twenty degrees below zero at several places, and no doubt much stock and some lives will be lost.

Woman's Discovery.

Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She sought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle had been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at Foshay & Mason's Drug Store.

That's The Way, Some Times.

From the Buffalo Courier.

The railroad car window is probably responsible for as much profanity as the hammer and the nail. Who is there who has not tackled one of these obdurate institutions. On a train Saturday, a woman made a fruitless little effort to raise the window. A gentleman from across the aisle immediately offered his services. He grabbed the catch and with a confident air started to put the window right up without any fuss. A look of surprise came over his face as the window didn't budge. Then he got mad, and bracing his knees against the seat tugged away for life. But the window stayed right there. He wriggled and writhed and shipped off the seat until his face was crimson and great globules of perspiration stood upon his massive brow. The passengers looked thoughtful and considerate. The window would not budge, and with a smile and apology, but with a writhing volcano of words suppressed, he gave it up. Just here a little puny individual stepped on a corner seat, rapped lightly on the bottom of the window frame, and pushed up the slide with a triumphant look, and quietly taking his seat, started his newspaper again.

Kaiser and Workingman.

From the Washington Post.

If it (the German Emperor's recent overture to the laboring classes) be a merely political move on his part, it loses none of its moral force, and is significant also, as showing that in the present advanced temper of the times a policy of peace and practical reform in the interests of peace is more to be depended on than a war scare or a call to arms.

The New York Tribune says that President Hypocrite, of Hayti displays a profound egotism in his treatment of those persons whom he suspects of disloyalty. When he is himself in Port au Prince, his capital, he keeps them there also busily engaged upon public affairs directly under his eye. When he leaves his capital for the interior he goes with an army and "invites" them to go along with him. This plan is more constitutional than that of keeping them in prison, and equally effective.
