

Morning Daily Herald

SPECIAL, 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city.

Geo. W. Smith.

ON SALE.

The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at the new stand of W. F. Kuhn's, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Albany and vicinity—Following is the forecast for 24 hours, ending at 8 p. m. to-day: Fair; slightly warmer.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Shaving 15 cents at Viereck's, Hon. Jeff Myers, of Scio, is in the city. Fresh fish received daily at Shultz Bros. market.

Shaving 15 cents on Sundays or holidays at Viereck's. E. C. Pontland, of Independence, was in the city yesterday.

Geo. Fish, one of Corvallis' business men, is in the city. Damon Smith, of Harrisburg, was in the city yesterday.

W. W. Briggs, of Harrisburg, was in the city yesterday. Mr. K. F. Ashby has retired from the Oregon Land Company.

County Treasurer H. Farwell returned yesterday from a trip to Portland. John Webber, of Portland, is spending a few days with his parents in this city.

The members of the Women's Relief Corps are arranging to give a merchants' carnival at the opera house in the near future.

Mrs. Margaret Hill, the aged wife of Dr. R. C. Hill, one of Albany's oldest pioneers, is lying very low at her home in this city.

This is the first day of spring according to the calendar. The flowers that should be blooming now are conspicuous by their absence in Oregon this year.

Portland capitalists are considering a proposition of offering a subsidy for G. W. Hunt's railroad system to be built into that city. The metropolis also realizes the advantages of railroads.

For sale, No. 8 Superior cook stove, 1 cluster leg walnut dining table, 1 kitchen table, 1 safe, 6 cane bottom chairs, and 1 A grade phonograph for sale at a bargain.

Mrs. Dr. Whitney will give instructions in landscape painting and oil portrait painting, also the Italian portrait painting. Studio at residence on Seventh street, between Vine and Calapooia.

SOUTHERN OREGON BLOCKADE.

A Transfer Connection Made Between Ashland and Roseburg.

Mr. O. W. Ayers, the well known architect of Ashland, who has made arrangements to locate in this city, arrived yesterday morning from his home in that place. The trip from Ashland was made in two days, and the transfer through the Cow Creek canyon was a rough experience.

When he left Ashland there was 12 inches of snow and in the Cow Creek canyon there was five feet of snow, which has been packed down and frozen into almost solid ice. The great lake caused by the big slide has been drained off somewhat, but it is yet three miles long and seems to have come to stay.

The Southern Pacific company now propose to use the slide for a bridge, as it naturally forms one. This would leave a fine lake and eventually make a magnificent waterfall nearly 100 feet high, adding to the already wild scenery of that region.

The railroad is buried about 75 feet beneath this lake, and Mr. Ayers suggested that future generations might, in searching for geological formations, unearth the old road-bed and set it down as evidences of a pre-historic age.

About 12 or 13 miles of new road will have to be built to connect the broken road. A dispatch from Ashland states that the people have set the time of completion of repairs at the big slide at Cow creek canyon at about a month hence.

In the meantime, commencing yesterday, passengers can travel through from Ashland to Roseburg by irregular trains by making a wagon transfer between Glendale and Kiddle's. They are allowed to carry not exceeding 50 pounds of baggage each.

No mails have as yet, since the blockade, taken this route for the north. North of Roseburg regular passenger trains run on schedule time. South of Ashland trains run each way about every alternate day as far as Sisson, beyond which to San Francisco a daily train has been kept going.

The only impediment now in the way is that of the slide at tunnel 9, where a transfer has to be made. It is expected that by Monday this will be removed.

The Albany & Astoria Railway. Dr. A. Kinney, of Astoria, is in the city. It is rumored that his visit is for the purpose of conferring with the Albany & Astoria Railway Company, and that in connection with other land owners of Astoria he offers the company about $80,000 to locate the terminus of the road at a certain point.

One of the directors of the road states that the company has received offers of plenty of capital to build the entire road, and that it will be built as fast as a work of that magnitude can be accomplished.

A Boat Capsized. O. F. Taylor and Albert Thompson, while rowing in a boat seven miles below Harrisburg Wednesday, met with quite an accident. They had been up to Harrisburg on a hunting expedition, and while returning their boat was overturned.

Jumping on a drift that happened to be close at hand they fortunately escaped from being drowned. Losing their boat, guns, blankets and game they were compelled to resume their journey on foot to Halsey, arriving at that place in time to take the morning train for Salem.

A loose boat passed down the river yesterday and it was evidently the one that had capsized the day before. Statesman.

MANY SNAGS IN THE CHANNEL.

The Bad Effects of the Flood—The Matter Should Receive Speedy Attention.

"There ought to be some one to look after the snags in the river," says a well-known and prominent steamboat man. "I don't know whether there is an appropriation for it or not," says the gentleman, "but the matter should be looked after, for steamers coming or going on the Willamette are in constant danger of having the bottom of their hulls torn to pieces. The late flood has filled the river in many places with snags and drift, which have become entangled in the channel, and the water going down has left them just a few inches below the surface. There being nothing to warn the pilot or captain of their whereabouts, it is not unlikely that the sinking of some steamer will be reported, and then some one will have to pay."

The worst trouble is on the lower river. It is said that from a short distance below Albina to the head of Swan Island snags are so thick that it requires the greatest caution to avoid a disaster. Snags are also said to be very plentiful, as well as dangerous, in the channel near St. Johns. Few are then seen until the mouth of the Willamette is neared.

If the matter is as bad as represented the channel should be looked after as soon as practicable. Mrs. Henrietta Brown's Work. The Oregonian has this to say of a well known Albany woman:

Mrs. A. K. Riggs, Mrs. Henrietta Brown and Mrs. R. M. Robb, whose names have been prominently identified with the temperance movement for several years past, yesterday took a new step by incorporating the Women's Christian Temperance Union. The object of the corporation is to educate public sentiment in this state up to the standard of total abstinence, to overthrow the drink traffic, to enlist the women of his city in systematic temperance work and to rescue unfortunate women and girls. The value of the property now in possession of the corporation is $1000, but they hope to acquire more. The objects of these devoted women are somewhat numerous, and in the language of an immortal philosopher, "they have a large job on their hands."

Another Colony for Oregon. "There is a colony of forty German families in Southern Dakota who are making preparations to pack up their possessions to find homes in Oregon," said the secretary of the Portland immigration board to an Oregonian reporter. "They have sent four representatives to look up a location, as they all desire to locate in the same place. These men who are acting as advance guards are very favorably impressed with the country, and the probability is that they will decide upon some place in the Willamette Valley. The location will be selected soon, as the colony is anxious to get here in time to put in this season's crops. They have had nothing but poor harvests during the past four years, and they are getting tired of their present lots. If there is a place Providence smiles on with more kindness they are determined to find it, and there is no question but they will find in Oregon the promised land."

Educational Notes. The Oregon state teachers' association meets at Salem in annual session July 1, 2 and 3. The session will be held at the state house, and the indications now are that the meeting will be one of great success and largely attended by the teachers of the state. Hon. R. G. Horr, ex-congressman from Michigan, is expected to be present and will no doubt address the association. The National teachers' association, to be held at St. Paul in July, will be attended by about 50 of Oregon's teachers. Superintendent McElroy is in correspondence and is arranging to secure state headquarters. The fare for the round trip will be $67.93, being a trifle over half fare.

Pleasant Social. The ladies of the Relief Corps last evening made a surprise party call upon McPherson Post G. A. R., arriving at the hall just as the business of the evening was over, and the Post was immediately adjourned and a social and very pleasant evening was spent. The occasion was very much enlivened by impromptu music and readings, in which Mr. and Mrs. Barrows, Mrs. Thompson and Miss Lora Vance took part. An elegant little lunch was served, and all enjoyed the occasion largely.

Child Burned To Death. Thursday evening William Scott and wife, who reside on Greasy creek, near Philomoth, went out to attend chores in feeding stock, leaving their two-year-old child in the sitting room. Upon returning to the house they found that the child had fallen into the fire in the fire-place and was immediately summoned, but the child was past recovery, and died at 8 o'clock.

Piano Tuning. PARTIES DESIRING PIANOS TUNED should call upon Prof. D. Van Horn of this city, the well known and reliable piano tuner. He is well known to the people of Albany and the entire State, having had years of experience in this business, also in a piano manufacturing business, and has no equal in that line of business. It always pays to patronize home enterprise and the public should remember that they can now get pianos tuned in a more skillful manner in Albany than elsewhere in the State. Leave orders at Will & Link's.
