A numerously signed petition was presented to the county court yesterday, asking the right of way over certain county roads for the extension of the Albany street railway.

The sidewalk on Ferry street is to be extended out through the Elkins addition which will make it a long and popular promenade on sunny days and moonlight nights.

Hon. P. W. Haley, of Independence, was in the city yesterday. He is engaged in moving the house on his place down the river, which the floods floated off back on to the foundation or on to higher ground.

Mr. James Shelton was in the city yesterday, having an application before the county commissioners for a voting precinct at Jordan. The petition is a worthy one and should receive the favorable consideration of the board.

The Salem Woolen Mills make a formal opening next Saturday, which will mark an epoch in Salem's prosperous march. Our Albany mills are turning out excellent material, and are in excellent working order.

Writsmann & Hulbert sold yesterday to L. W. Moench one lot in Hackleman's addition to Albany, the price paid being $650. They also sold to L. B. Wittzell a house and lot in the same addition owned by C. B. Harnish for $1800.

Jas. F. Haswell, former superintendent of the woolen mills in this city, is talking of going to Pendleton to start a woolen mill plant in that city. It is a commendable move and Pendleton should hitch on and make it a success.

The Salem Journal says: Misses Genevieve and Elsie George of Albany have been in the city visiting their friend Miss Edith Harris. Miss Genevieve went to Portland this afternoon, and Miss Elsie goes home this evening.

The committee appointed by the Marion county court to investigate and report upon plans for rebuilding the bridge across the Willamette, reported yesterday in favor of a steel truss or a steel wire suspension bridge, but against rebuilding the old bridge.

The Red Crown Mills, whose flour is known far and wide for its intrinsic superiority, has added to its permanent excellence by putting in a full complement of electric lights. They are alive to all the latest improvements and reap a full reward for the enterprise and push.

The means of communication at Jordan, where the bridge across Thomas Creek was taken out by the high water, for quite a number of people who were shut in by the loss of bridges, was by a letter weighted down with a stone so that it could be thrown across. A log has been improvised as a bridge until a new bridge can be built. Mr. Shelton, of the firm of Shelton & McCully, was over yesterday urging the rebuilding of the bridge, which should be done right away.

BRIDGE MEETING.

Jefferson Alive to the Benefits of Its Building.

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD. JEFFERSON, March 4.—The citizens of this place held a meeting yesterday to consider the necessities of a bridge over the river here, at which they appointed a committee for each county to confer with their respective county courts in regard to the matter. The people here are in earnest about getting a bridge.

Insane Man.

Wm. Carstens was brought in yesterday from Tangent, and examined before the county court for insanity, the examining physicians being Dr. G. W. Maston and Dr. D. M. Jones. His mania was in the suicide line, having tried to kill himself with a razor and also having attempted drowning. He was pronounced insane and will be taken to the asylum to-day.

JUNCTION CITY ITEMS.

Section Foreman Moore, and family left for Kansas on last Saturday.

Mr. Mills, Editor of the Pilot has sold his interest in the paper to Messrs. Buck and Morin.

Rev. Kershaw of Monroe preached here on Sabbath, and will hold revival meetings during the week.

School election on Monday resulted in the election of F. W. Folsome director and Earnest Lee clerk.

The late fire has left quite a scar on our town which will not be healed over until the building are rebuilt.

Circuit Court which convened in Eugene on Monday has taken several of our citizens there. We have three terms this year.

Mr. Guthrie, an old Junctionite but now of Portland, and father of the late Quint Guthrie, who lost his life in the R. R. disaster at Albany, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Amanda Wait of the place.

Already, the average candidate begins to loom up, and there is more handshaking and friendliness being manifested than common, except on such occasions. It is said to be a foregone conclusion that Junction will present the next candidate for county clerk on the democratic ticket. But the question is, will he be elected.

Dr. Patton treats successfully all diseases of women, and guarantees to cure all curable private diseases. He has a sure remedy for catarrh of the head. He sleeps in his office and answers city calls day or night. Consultation is free and everything is strictly confidential. He can be found in his office in Blumberg's block from 10 to 12, 2 to 4 and 7 to 8.

Try Hubbard's flavoring extracts; they are pure.

ALBANY STREET RAILWAY.

First Annual Meeting and the Election of New Directors.

The first annual meeting of the Albany Street Railway was held in Burkhardt & Keeney's office last evening, and the showing of the company was excellent.

Election of directors resulted in re-electing nearly all of the old board. The directors for the ensuing year are: C. G. Burkhardt, S. E. Young, C. H. Stewart, J. A. Gross, E. F. Sox, L. Flinn and W. H. Goltra.

No further business was transacted, awaiting the election of officers by the board after they have been qualified.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE.

Mrs. Mariette Palmer Shepard, died Feb. 22, 1890.

Mariette Palmer was born in Delhi, Delaware Co., New York, May 18, 1834, and was married to Mr. Wm. Shepard on Christmas, 1851. In the following year she crossed the plains with her husband, and in the fall of 1852 they established their home on the Donation claim, already taken by Mr. Shepard, on the banks of the Willamette four miles above Peoria, Linn Co. Here they raised their family of four girls and two boys, and were permitted to enjoy life together nearly forty years.

Mrs. Shepard professed her faith in Christ in the Willamette U. P. church in 1853, and was a member in good standing in the U. P. church at Halsey at the time of her death. She was an affectionate wife and mother, a kind neighbor and a hospitable friend.

A good woman, the esteem in which she was held was well attested by the very large circle of friends who attended her funeral Feb. 24.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." T. J. WILSON, Albany, March 4, 1890.

EUGENE NOTES.

EUGENE, March 3.

We are fast recovering from the effects of the flood, but the old fashioned ferry will run for a while.

We are making every effort possible to give the G. A. R. encampment next week a rousing welcome.

Our county tax the past year was 18 mills, and the damage by floods, etc., will probably make the coming year's taxes still heavier.

Everybody sympathizes with the relatives of young Saltmarsh of your city. Fity that the destroyers of the happiness of families could not all be exterminated.

Our neighboring town of Springfield is fairly booming now. They say it is sure to be a railroad center. Real estate is jumping—I suppose with joy.

People here are indignant, beyond measure—at the fearful death of Millie Waud, who was left with a babe only a day or two old, to perish from want. Her distantly husband being within a quarter of a mile or so. This happened near Cottage Grove.

One of the most enthusiastic school meetings ever held in Eugene has just occurred. It was voted to build a $12,000 school house the coming summer in the west part of town, and the necessary tax was levied. The sum of $900 was also voted to buy another lot for school purposes in the east part of town. We have in Eugene now 1069 children between 4 and 20 by the exact census just taken. Our present school building is crowded to suffocation.

Durno's Catarrh Snuff. Sure cure for sore eyes, deafness, headache, and the worst forms of catarrh in the head and throat. Price 25 cents. Sold by Foslay & Mason, Albany, Oregon.

Shaving 15 cents at Viereck's.

Wright's Addition TO ALBANY IS now on the market and comprises 165 large, level and beautiful building lots. The blocks have eight lots to the block, each lot being 60 by 100 feet. The streets are 60 feet wide with two large avenues, one of 100 feet and the other of 90 feet in width. There will probably be a motor or electric line to this addition before long. For terms of sale apply to any real estate agent in the city.

Wilson & Townsend, REAL ESTATE, LOAN, INSURANCE

TRANSFER AGENTS.

We have customers for farm property and town lots. Parties having property to sell will do well to call and see us. We also have money to loan on long time. Low interest.

Office on First street, next door to Thompson & Overman's.

STONE MEN ATTENTION—Bids will be received up to 12 o'clock noon on Saturday, March 8, for the furnishing and cutting of stone for the Bank of Oregon building. Bids must state the quarry from which the stone is taken and a sample piece of the same presented. Information given and plans can be seen at the office of C. W. Ayers, in the room of Albany & Astoria railroad company, First National bank building, Albany, Oregon. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

McDonald & Lassell, HARRISBURG, OREGON.

Are prepared to furnish first-class lumber in car load lots at ruling prices for the coming season. They solicit correspondence.
