At the Opera House. The play Damon and Pythias at the opera house last night by John S. Lindsay and company was witnessed by an enthusiastic audience, who were delighted with Mr. Lindsay's powerful delineation of the character of Damon. He possesses a happy faculty of bringing out the delicate shades of feeling as well as the stronger passages without tearing a passion to tatters, wherein lies his great success as a tragedian. H. E. Rogers as Dyonisides exhibited some clever acting, as did also Miss Fifth Lindsey, Miss Marie Annette and Miss Luella Lindsay in their respective roles. To-night the company's great play Enoch Arden will be presented, in which Mr. Lindsay will appear at his best. This will be the last appearance of this talented tragedian, and there will doubtless be a large audience.

The entire day was consumed yesterday in the circuit court in the trial of the case of Emil Schneider vs. the Oregon Pacific Railroad Co. to recover money in a wood cutting contract. A BIG SCHEME.

A Proposition to Invest About $75,000 of Eastern Money in Sewers in This City.

At the meeting of the city council last night a proposition was read, which is entitled to more than the passing notice of the proceedings of that body as published this morning.

The scheme is a big one, but whether or not it would be wise to adopt it is a question that can be better determined after it is more fully investigated. The proposition is simply this: A firm of St. Louis proposes to undertake to construct in this city a complete system of sewerage, which will cost from $50,000 to $75,000. This firm proposes to do at little or no cost to the city, but wants a franchise for 25 years, and the right to collect regular tolls from property owners who use the sewers, until such a time as the city can purchase the sewers.

The scheme on first consideration would not seem to be a wise thing to adopt, but when fully explained it may present a different aspect. At least there should be no haste in taking action upon such a project, especially with a 25-year franchise attached to it.

The communication was referred to the committee on health and police, who will doubtless consider it in its different bearings, and make an intelligent report upon the plan proposed.

State Sunday School Convention. The Fifth Annual Convention of the Sunday School workers of Oregon will be held in the Christian church, McMinnville, commencing Tuesday, April 15, and closing Thursday, April 17, 1890. While this is a Mass Convention, and all interested in Sunday school work are most cordially and earnestly invited to be present, yet, to insure representation, each Sunday school in the state is requested to select two or more persons pledged to attend. The friends of the work at McMinnville will open their homes and hearts and take care of all who may attend the convention. That they may know who are to be entertained, all those expecting to be present will confer a favor by sending their names to Rev. J. Hoberg, McMinnville, that places may be assigned them. Friends of the work will notice the change in time of holding the convention from June to April. This is done that Oregon may fall into line with our sister states in a chain of conventions arranged by the International Executive Committee. Mr. Wm. Reynolds, president of the last International Convention will be present at the convention and take a prominent and active part. Arrangements have been made with the S. P. R. R. in Oregon and the O. P. R. R. for the usual reduced rates. That we may know the number of schools and pupils, and the work being done by the Sunday schools of Oregon, the superintendent or secretary of each school is requested to send Prof. Henry Sheak, Philomath, Or., statistical secretary, a full report. E. W. ALLEN, President. W. N. HULL, Secretary, Corvallis.

Fatal Landslide Near Shasta. New has been received of a fatal landslide which occurred at Weaverville near Shasta, Cal. last Friday, drowning two brothers named John and James Sowden. The slide came from the mountains filling their dam and sending a large body of water rushing down the gulch where the men were at work on their claims. The bodies were found half a mile below.

Board of Trade Meeting. A meeting for the purpose of reorganizing the Board of Trade will be held at the W. C. T. U. hall Friday evening. Those interested in securing an active, working board of trade should be present. Respectfully, Mrs. S. E. Wayne.

To the Ladies. To my patrons and ladies of Albany—I shall be in Albany with a full stock of the latest styles in millinery by the 15th to the 1st of April. Thanks for past favors. Respectfully, Mrs. S. E. Wayne.

STATE DISPATCHES.

Portland's Jail Is Almost as Insective as Albany's—A Mysterious Death.

Special to the Herald. PORTLAND, March 11.—George Becker, the 18-year-old son of Mrs. Emily Sheridan, living at 145 F street, died under very peculiar, not to say suspicious, circumstances, at his home on the morning of Sunday, March 2. Owing to the fact that his case assumed the color of poisoning, Drs. Rand and Wheeler were brought to the bedside of the sufferer, but too late. Within a few minutes after the arrival of the physicians the sufferer was dead. The doctors at once reported the matter to the coroner. An inquest was ordered, and yesterday evening a jury, consisting of W. Harris, W. L. Higgins, R. Hendie, E. Morrill, W. C. Warren and G. H. Lumberson, found a verdict, after listening to the testimony for a due length of time the jury reported as follows: "We find that the deceased, George L. Becker, came to his death on the 21 day of March, 1890, at 145 F street, in the city of Portland, and that he came to his death by a dose of arsenic, the jury is unable to ascertain by whom administered." Parties who are thoroughly acquainted with the domestic condition of the Sheridan family are prone to believe that the young man came to his death by his own hand, and that the partially empty box of Roush on Kats poison contained the full solution of the mysterious stuff. It is stated that the boy was very closely related to a woman whom he dearly loved, and that of late she has led a dissipated career, and it is the supposition that upon learning these facts the high-spirited, intelligent lad's heart was broken with grief, and the prospect of early disgrace drove him to take his own life. The fact that the poison in powder form was found in his stomach proves conclusively that the arsenic could not have been taken in liquid form. The mother says she did not see the box of poison till after her son was dead.

Deputy District Attorney Simon truthfully said that the city jail is so rotten and decrepit that it is impossible to detain a felon in the main cell the entire night if the prisoner desires to effect an escape. This statement was made by Simon when he learned that H. Rush, a petty thief, had broken out of the city prison at 3:30 o'clock this morning. Rush used a common stick of wood, which he sharpened with a case knife and dug a hole with it through the rotten brick and mortar in the rear wall of the prison large enough to allow him to squeeze through in a very short time.

The Night Operator Is Here. E. C. Bennett has been appointed by the Western Union Telegraph Co. as night operator in this city to take the HERALD'S Associated Press report. Mr. Bennett is a well known local reporter, had experience in taking night reports for the St. Louis Globe-Democrat and other big Eastern papers. He arrived yesterday, and beginning next Saturday the telegraph office will be open until 2 o'clock each morning, for the purpose of taking the HERALD'S dispatches, and when there is news of special importance the wires will be kept open as late as 3:30 or 4 o'clock.

Try Hubbard's flavoring extracts; they are pure.

BORN. FORD—To the wife of Edward Ford, in Yakima City on March 9, 1890, a son. WEBER—In this city on Tuesday March 11, 1890, to the wife of Frank Weber, a son.

MARRIED. WARD—CUMMINGS—At the residence of the bride's parents March 5, 1890, by the Rev. J. M. Starr, Mr. E. G. Fisher and Miss Grace B. Cummings, all of Linn county, Oregon.

Call for a Republican State Convention. A Republican Convention for the State of Oregon, is called to meet at the city of Portland on Wednesday the 16th day of April, 1890, at 10 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of Congressman, Governor, Supreme Judge, Secretary of State, and Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Institutions, State Printer and District officers, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. The convention will consist of 218 delegates apportioned among the several counties as follows: Baker 6, Benton 8, Clackamas 9, Clatsop 8, Columbia 4, Coos 6, Curry 3, Douglas 8, Gilliam 6, Grant 5, Harney 4, Jackson 7, Josephine 6, Klamath 3, Lake 2, Lane 10, Linn 10, Malheur 3, Marion 12, Morrow 4, Multnomah 25, Polk 6, Tillamook 3, Umatilla 10, Union 8, Wallowa 4, Wasco 8, Sherman 3, Washington 8, Yamhill 8. The same being one delegate at large from each county, and one delegate for every 175 votes and one for every fraction over one half thereof cast for congressmen at the June election of 1888. The committee recommends that the primaries be held on April 23rd, unless otherwise ordered by the proper county committee. All voters who favor the Republican policy of American markets for the products of American labor, liberal support of our common schools and the protection of every voter in the nation, in his right to cast a free ballot and have it fairly counted are cordially invited to unite in the selection of delegates to the Republican State Convention. L. T. BARN, Chairman. March 5th, 1890.
