NOTES FROM BROWNSVILLE.

Str is Real Estate—The Calapooia and Eastern Railroad.

BROWNSVILLE, March 12.—The incorporators of the Calapooia & Eastern railroad met in this city last night to make arrangements for a survey up the river. Five acres of land in South Brownsville was platted into lots yesterday, and still the work goes on, as more will be surveyed to-day. The county surveyor is expected here this week to survey the Galbraith farm for a Brownsville syndicate, and some twenty acres more will be laid off into lots. A. C. Hausman, is also going to lay off another addition near the narrow gauge road.

C. C. Sperry, whose foot was badly cut by a plow last week, is able to be out with the aid of crutches.

Court convened at Albany this week, and a crowd departed for that city yesterday morning to attend the trial of Messrs. Montgomery and Keeney, the two young men who were bound over for assaulting the marshal last Christmas night. Montgomery is sick here and unable to attend himself. T. S. Pillsbury, the jeweler, is able to be at work again, after a long and severe attack of rheumatism.

Will Become a National Bank.

It is perhaps not generally known that Albany is soon to have another National Bank. It however is the case. The Linn County Bank will become such. The following application for authority to organize a National Bank has been filed with the comptroller of the currency: Linn County National Bank of Albany, Oregon, by J. L. Cowan, of Albany, Oregon, and associates.

At the Opera House.

John S. Lindley and company completed their engagement in this city last night, playing Richelieu. Mr. Lindley appears perhaps at his best in this play. He is certainly a gifted actor, and interprets this great character with a power and finish that is positively refreshing. From here the company goes to Eugene. They deserve to meet with success.

State Teachers' Association.

The Oregon State Teachers' Association meets in Salem in annual session July 1st, 2nd and 3rd. The session will be held at the state house, and the indications are that the meeting will be largely attended by the teachers of the state.

Hon. R. G. Horr, ex-congressman from Michigan, is expected to be present, and will, no doubt, address the association. The National Teachers' Association, to be held at St. Paul in July, will be attended by about fifty of Oregon's teachers. Superintendent McElroy is in correspondence and is arranging to secure state headquarters. The fare for the round trip will be $68.80, being a trifle over half fare.

About a Big Hotel.

Considerable has been said and done concerning the needs of a big hotel in Albany, and a good many correspondents have expressed their views concerning it in the columns of the Herald. There is no disputing the fact that Albany needs a big brick or stone hotel. The hotels of the city are conducted as well as in Oregon, but the growth of this city, with the attending increase of people coming from abroad, demands something better in the way of a hotel building than the city now possesses, and along with the other improvements it should and will receive attention.

Woolen Mill Talk.

The Eugene Register says: Mr. Haswell, who at present is stopping at Albany, came up last Friday to talk with our citizens in regard to establishing a woolen mill. He was met by several of our prominent citizens, who escorted him around town and showed him our water power, etc. But his proposition didn't suit them. His proposition was that if he could procure a suitable site, and our citizens would give him $25,000, he would invest a similar amount and would erect a building large enough to conduct a four set mill until the business was sufficient to warrant a larger one. Our citizens didn't see fit to take him up and he left the first of the week.

Maps of Albany.

The new maps of the city published by C. W. Watts have been received from the lithographers. They are the best maps of the city ever published, being truthful in every detail and show all the new additions. They are about three feet square and are gotten up in an excellent manner. They can be had at Mr. Watts' office at 25 cents each.

Horse Show.

The horsemen of Linn county have arranged to hold a big horse show in this city on March 28. The parade will occur at 1 o'clock, some of the finest horses of the state are owned by horsemen residing in this portion of Oregon, and the show will be a fine display of horsemanship.

PORTLAND NEWS.

Sensational Arrest of a Furniture Dealer for Seduction.

Special to the Herald. PORTLAND, March 13.—A sensation was caused in East Portland this morning by the arrest of Mr. John Foran, a furniture dealer doing business on Fourth street, between H and I streets. The complainant is Mrs. Fanny Calkins, mother of a beautiful young girl just budding into womanhood, who, according to the allegations, has stooped to folly and learned how easily men betray. It is claimed that on the 28th of last November, under promise of marriage, Miss Ida surrendered to Foran all her claim to virtue. At that time her family lived in Stephens' addition. Her father was away from the city working on a ranch which he recently located down on the Columbia. The household consisted of two sons, both grown, the younger being very sick, and two small children, in addition to the young woman and her parents. They came to East Portland about five years ago and formerly lived in Kansas, where they were well acquainted with Mrs. Calkins, who moved her family to Albina, where they since have lived.

Ten days since her daughter was taken ill with a violent fever and a doctor was called. He made a hasty examination, and turning to the mother said: "Madam, is the young woman married?" "No sir," replied Mrs. Calkins. "No, then she ought to be."

The broken-hearted mother then plied the girl with question regarding the author of her shame, and at last, under protest, his name was given. The physician prescribed for the girl, who was suffering from malarial fever, and the mother at once consulted the authorities. This morning, armed with a warrant, Constable Sam Simmons visited Foran at his store, and soon the accused was in the presence of Justice Wood. He is single and about 45 years old.

Late yesterday evening Henry Failing filed papers in the circuit court asking that the Willamette Falls Electric Co. be enjoined from erecting poles and doing other work tending to injure his property on Third and Washington streets.

Early this morning Deputy Sheriff Salmon found Joe McFarland, an employee of the company, perched high upon one of the poles in that locality. The man said that the courts and injuries he had, but after a brief argument Mr. Salmon placed the faithful servant under arrest. He was taken to Superintendent Morris' office and released on his personal recognizance to appear in court Monday to answer to a charge of contempt.

REPLY TO "BUSINESS MAN."

To the Editor of the Herald: In yesterday's Herald is a communication signed "Business Man." In his comments on a big hotel any one conversant with the hotel business knows that he is totally ignorant of what he writes. There are a few that would like a "big hotel" on some block that they own or adjacent to them (but some one else will build and run it) to enhance the value of their property. Capital stands ready to meet any necessity in business. Selfishness often advises doubtful schemes. There is not a time more than once in a year or two that the present hotels cannot accommodate the travel. There is not a city in the world that can accommodate travel at all times. One might as well advise mugs barber shops. At times one has to wait for hours, sometimes a day, to get a shave.

On the bridge question he is sound. The bridge is a public necessity. OSK WHO KNOWS.

A STATEMENT.

To the Editor of the Herald: Will you please give us space in your paper to make a statement. There seems to be some of our citizens who do not understand that the Ladies Aid Society intend to build a hospital together with the orphan's home. They intend to make themselves thoroughly conversant with the plans and working of the best hospitals in the state, and if the citizens come forward and assist in this, as they have done in other enterprises, we will have a hospital equal to any in the state, one that Albany can be justly proud of.

Mrs. C. C. Kelly, Secretary.

Mrs. T. Hopkins, President.

Demand for Fruit Trees.

There is a large demand for fruit trees this spring from nearly all parts of the Willamette valley. A great many farmers are setting out good sized orchards and in a few years the valley will yield twice the amount of fruit it does at present. There will always be a market for all the good fruit that can be raised and those who have good orchards can always realize handsome profits from them.

CIRCUIT COURT.

A Grist of Criminal Cases—The Barbara Hubbard Case.

In the circuit court yesterday the application of H. C. Hubbard for a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Barbara Hubbard from the custody of the Orphans' Home at Portland, was granted. The writ is returnable Monday, at which time the defendants will be required to show cause why the child is held from the care and custody of the plaintiff.

W. O. Briggs and G. A. Walker, charged with robbing Damon Smith, of Harrisburg, of $900, were indicted. The former entered a plea of not guilty.

A. J. Bell, alias F. P. Bell, arrested for polygamy, was indicted and plead not guilty.

The grand jury also returned the following true bills:

State vs. Jerry Keeney, assault.

State vs. D. E. Sullivan, burglary, not a true bill.

In the case of I. D. Miller vs. the Southern Pacific railroad for damages from fire in a grain field last autumn caused by sparks from a locomotive, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff of $1163.56.

Not only are all the members invited and urged to be present, but also all who are at all interested in the association. A general social time will be had after the programme has been read.
