Morning Daily Herald

SPECIAL, 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city. The stoves we offer were not bought as an experiment but as a certainty. We know what each stove will do, and they were bought for cash, so the price is right. We have specialties in heaters, beside our regular lines of Garland, Argand and Superior stoves and ranges.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Albany and vicinity—Following is the forecast for 24 hours, ending at 8 P. M. to-day:

Fair; slightly warmer.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Special city election April 7.

Messrs. Sam May and J. L. Fuller of Harrisburg were in this city yesterday.

J. B. Hughes steam well boring outfit is now at work in the Eastern part of the city.

Jos. Webber Jr. of Portland is spending a few days with his parents in this city.

Dr. Scroggins has let a contract for a neat cottage to be built upon his fruit farm near this city.

W. E. McPherson has removed his real estate office into new quarters opposite the Russ House.

There are no flies on Albany's city council and mayor, and there will be no idle men in Albany this summer.

Marriage license was issued yesterday to Mr. Bert VanCleve, of Scio, and Miss May Louise Townsend, of that place.

The paving of First street should not be forgotten or overlooked in the improvements in this city during the coming summer.

Mr. C. Scott Stokes, who has been at work in the Cow Creek break on the Southern Pacific railroad, has returned to this city.

Special services are being held at the U. P. church each evening this week, conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. G. Irvine and Rev. G. W. Hays of Waitsburg.

Ves. Cannon tells us that in his vicinity the wheat is not injured, but oats are mostly killed and will have to be resown. In the low places considerable of the cheat has been killed out.

An advertisement for bids from contractors for the erection of the three story building of the Bank of Oregon will be found in our advertising columns this morning. It will be a fine structure and an ornament to First street.

Hon. W. H. Holmes, clerk of the supreme court, has tendered to that honorable body his resignation as clerk. Mr. Holmes was appointed to that position March 2d, 1887, and made for the supreme court of Oregon a most efficient clerk.

The city council deserves great credit for bringing the matter of bonding the city for public improvement before the people of Albany at a special election. There will be no question as to the result of the election. The improvements will win.

The Oregon City locks, which are the key to the navigation of the upper Willamette, have not yet been repaired. But the hope is once more held out that the locks will be opened in a few days. This will be the signal for active resumption of boating. The vessels are all ready to moved.

Mrs. S. A. Wayne wishes to say to the ladies of Albany that she is on hand with a new and well selected stock of millinery, which she assures them can not be surpassed in style and elegance. She can be found at the St. Charles until she can make suitable arrangements for a store, as she wishes to locate permanently.

H. A. Sommerville of Harrisburg precinct was in the city yesterday. He reports feed for stock in his vicinity almost entirely gone, and that grass has not yet started sufficiently for stock to live upon. While no one in that vicinity has lost very heavily, nearly all have lost a few head which in the aggregate will amount to pretty heavy losses.

The object of calling the special city election on April 7th is to begin the proposed improvements this summer. After the people have decided in favor of such a system of improvements the work can be at once undertaken, and paid for in city warrants due next year, after the bill is passed by the legislature giving the city the right to issue the bonds.

Tin Wedding.

Mr and Mrs. Omar Hendricson celebrated the tenth anniversity of their marriage at their residence on Ellsworth street Monday evening. A large number of their friends were present, who tendered their hosts and hostess some appropriate presents. The wedding ceremony was pronounced over again in a happy manner by Rev. J. F. Stewart and Rev. E. R. Pritchard. An elegant lunch was served, and the evening was pleasantly spent.

AN IMPORTANT MOVE

The City Council Favors Public Improvements.

SPECIAL ELECTION ORDERED.

To Vote on the Question of Bonding the City for $75,000 to Be Expended in Improving the City.

The full board of city councilmen were present at the city council meeting last evening.

The committee on streets and public property reported favorably on petitions of R. Earl and others for sidewalk on block 34 Hackleman's 2d addition, and J. C. Powell and others for new sidewalks and sewers on blocks 1 and 2 of Western addition, which was adopted. Also a similar report on petition of E. J. Lanning and others for new sidewalk on South Water street.

The recommendations of the street commissioner at former meetings, referred to the committee on streets and public property, were approved and adopted.

SPECIAL ELECTION ORDERED.

The committee to whom was referred the Eastern proposition for sewers reported adversely upon the matter, and recommended that a special election be called upon the 7th day of April, 1890, to vote upon the question of bonding the city for $75,000, the money to be used to put in a complete system of sewerage, to build a city hall, and to assist in the construction of a free wagon bridge across the Willamette. The report was adopted.

The street commissioner recommended that a gravel bed on the land owned by the city near the Jewish cemetery be opened and the gravel used on the streets, also that Ellsworth street, between Third and Fourth, be graveled, also that a new crosswalk be built on the south side of First street, across Hill street, and also on the north side of Second street, across Hill stret. The recommendations were referred to the committee on streets and public property.

The matter of a place to confine prisoners, in consideration of the fact that the city jail was not safe or humane, was referred to the committee on health and police, with instruction to confer with the county sheriff upon the subject.

The matter of a nuisance in the shape of dumping garbage from the bridge near near the Albany Iron Works on First street, was referred to the committee on health and police.

JUDGES AND CLERKS OF ELECTIONS.

The election provided for in the adoption of the report of the committee was arranged for by the appointment of the following judges and clerks of election:

First ward—Judges, D. Froman, T. J. Stites, M. Payne; clerks, C. W. Watts, F. M. Redfield.

Second ward—Judges, W. M. Ketchum, L. Sanders, Ellis Knox; clerks, J. R. Wyatt, C. G. Rawlings.

Third ward—Judges, R. A. Irvine, John Isom, Geo. P. Warner; clerks, A. F. Hammer J. H. Warner.

A Musical Club.

A new musical organization has been formed by a number of the vocalists of this city, which will be known as the Apollo Club. The members are J. C. Littler, Prof. W. H. Lee, Prof. W. H. Young, Messrs. Arch Hammer, O. H. Irvine, J. P. Mead, William and Fred Fortmiller, F. E. Allen, C. W. Sears, Collins Elkins, C. E. Hawkins, C. E. Barrows, and Messrs. Goff and Goss. Following are the officers elected: J. C. Littler, president; Prof. W. H. Lee, musical director; Prof. W. H. Young, secretary. The objects of the club is mutual improvement and culture in vocal music.

Too Albany Boys.

Mr. J. J. Charlton, who is attending Princeton College from this city will complete his course there in June. He has been elected president and valedictorian of his class, and will graduate with distinguished honors. Quincy Propst is also attending Princeton from Albany and will graduate next year. He stands high in his class. Albany is well represeneed at Princeton in these two young men.

Levy's Cornet Concert.

Next week our citizens will be treated to something first-class in the way of a musical concert. The Willamette Packing Co.'s display adv. is suggestive also of many fine treats. Don't fail to read it over carefully and place your order early.

Ochoco News.

Mr. Marston, of the Ochoco mines, was in town Wednesday, says the Prineville Review. He said the owners of the mines on the head of Ochoco were making active preparations for doing considerable work in the placers the coming season. His company will work two shifts of hands during the season, and he expects to have a profitable run. There is plenty of snow in the mountains, which insures an abundant water supply for a longer period than is usual in the spring, and the miners will be able to do more work this year than for many years past. There is evidently good ground in the Ochoco mines, and with a season the output of gold should be several thousand dollars.

In Crook County.

Crook county farmers, says the Review, feel confident of being able to raise enough wheat this year to supply the local demand for flour. This will retain about $150,000 in the county, as that amount has gone out of the county for flour each year for the past three years. Now if the farmers will raise enough bacon and lard to supply the market, they will save about $20,000 more to the county.

Shameless Women Arrested.

Lou Bush and Mamie Keckler, two women who have become notorious for participating in brawls in houses of ill fame in this city, were arrested yesterday for disorderly conduct and were arraigned in Recorder Henton's court. They plead guilty and were fined $10 and $5 respectively. They were unable to pay the fine and were left in charge of the marshal until to-day.

Disgraceful if True.

The usually quiet little town of Monmouth, in Polk county, is very much excited over some trouble in the State Normal school there. It is reported that charges were made that Prof. D. T. Stanley, president of the school, has been on too intimate terms with one of the lady members of the faculty; and that his resignation was asked for. This was Saturday last. It is reported that Prof. Stanley and the lady both emphatically deny the charges, and, as Prof. Stanley has been the life of the school and the town, and the lady has sustained a high reputation, it is certainly to be hoped by all that the charges are false, and that the matter may be cleared up to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. —Salem Statesman.

Married.

The following from the Hillsboro Independent contains mention of a former resident of this city and teacher in the public schools: Last Sunday evening at the home of the bride's uncle, J. A. Allison, Mr. W. E. Thorn and Miss Estella Howard were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends, Rev. B. F. Moody officiating. Friends rejoice that these two estimable citizens unite in founding another center of domestic happiness, and extend hearty congratulations. They repaired immediately to their new home, the Cliff House, without even the publicity and annoyance of the charivari. Among the wedding presents were quite a number of pieces of nice silver ware from the bride's parents and aunts in Baltimore.

The Dangerous Gun.

Norman Thatcher, aged 23 met with a serious accident while hunting near Forest Grove last Monday. While in pursuit of game he was walking through the brush in a bent posture. While in this position the breech of the shotgun became entangled in the brush and tilted this portion of the firearm upward and the muzzle necessarly downward, and at the same time discharging it. Its entire contents entered the left leg at the ankle, and passing obliquely through it, wounded the soft parts in a fearful manner, and fractured both bones in a number of pieces, several of which were removed by the physician. Amputation will probably be necessary.—Yamhill Ledger.

HORTICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.

The State Horticultural Association will hold its first quarterly meeting for the current year in the city council chamber of Portland on Tuesday April 8, at 10:30 A. M. All persons interested in the development of Oregon's horticulture in its various branches are cordially and earnestly invited to be in attendance. Business of much importance will come before the association and it is hoped that all persons engaged in horticulture will attend and take part in the discussion.

Reports will be rendered by the following committees which were appointed at the annual meeting in January last, "Tariff on Prunes," "Annual Report," "Constitution and By-laws."

The following papers will also be presented and discussed:

Oregon Horticulture—O. P. Mason, Portland.

The Prune and its Culture—Chauncey Ball, Mt. Tabor.

The Young Orchard—R. D. Allen, Silverton.

This promises to be one of the most interesting meetings the association has ever held and all members are especially requested to be promptly on time at the opening session. E. R. LAKE, Secretary.

The Fisk Jubilee Singers.

The appearance of the famous Jubilee signers from the Fisk university of Nashville, Tennesse, in this city on April 3d under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. will insure a rare musical treat. The reputation of the organization of colored vocalists known as the Jubilee Singers is national, and the mere announcement that they will appear is sure to draw a large audience. This is not a ministrel company, but a refined concert by a famous organization of colored musicians. The San Francisco Examiner says of them: The programme last night opened with that song of songs, "Steal Away to Jesus" and the "Lord's Prayer." With that as the grand opening, to the close with "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," the audience was delighted, for all the songs seemed full of the old-time fire and sweetness. The bass solo of J. N. Caldwell deserves special mention. The audience went fairly wild over him, and would not be satisfied without an encore. His voice is full, rich, and has splendid range. He sang "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," and as an encore, "Old Black Joe." Miss Laura A. Wells was at her best last night and sang "The Nightingale's Trill" with much sweetness and captivated her audience, and to a hearty recall, sang "I cannot Sing the Old Songs."

The Portland Branch.

Going away, going away. We have decided to close out business, and our entire stock of clothing, boots, shoes, gents' furnishing goods, furniture, stoves, tinware, crockery, etc., must be sold by April 15th, next, regardless of cost. Remember this is your last and only chance to get goods at almost your own price. Come one, come all, and take advantage of this great opportunity. Also house and lot for sale cheap in the best locality in Albany. The Portland Branch, F. Wise & Co., proprietors, S. E. Young's old stand.

MATHEWS & WASHBURN.

Prof. H. C. Palmer's Conservatory of Music.

Tweedale's block, First street, Albany, Oregon, opened January 20, 1890. The course of instruction will consist of classes for piano, organ, harmony and voice culture. There will be a normal class and diplomas furnished to teachers, specifying capacity and experience. Students participate in monthly recitals, and are graded to insure equality in rendition. This conservatory will be conducted on the same basis as those in Boston, New York, etc. This is the only recognized successful system known for a thorough musical education. Send for circulars and references. Office hours from 1 to 3.
