LURED TO CANADA.

The Mysterious Disappearance of Two English Gentlemen.

THE REPUBLICANS IN CAUCUS.

A New York Minister Receives $10,000 Damage for Malicious Libel—The Exclusion of Chinese.

TORONTO, March 26.—Detective Murray has received a letter from Alderson & Son, of New York, telling of the mysterious disappearance of August Hawkins and Frank Keganie, sons of English gentlemen, who were lured to Canada under the impression that they would be placed out as farm pupils. One of them was the writer understands, paid $1000 in England, and one-third of this sum was sent to an agent in Toronto. The first named young man paid $300 for a part interest in a farm, and the other sent a letter from Niagara Falls, in which he said he would give an account of the place in his next letter. He has not been heard of since.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.

The Senators Approve of the Order of Business.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—A brief caucus of republican senators to-day approved the order of business arranged by the committee. The programme includes the anti-trust bill, the dependent pension bill, the administrative customs bill, and the bill for the admission of territories. Besides these there will occur a debate on the Montana election cases.

MALICIOUS LIBEL.

Rev. Dr. Rylance Secures $10,000 Damages Against His Defamer.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The jury in the superior court to-day gave Rev. Dr. Rylance a verdict of $10,000 against Nicholas Quackenbush for alleged libel consisting of certain slanderous stories. The judge told the jury that it was certainly a clear case of malicious libel and the only question to decide was the amount of damages. The court gave the plaintiff's counsel an extra allowance of $6000.

MUST STAY IN CHINA.

A Chinese Laundryman Cannot Send for His Family.

PLATTSBOROUGH, N. B., March 26.—Quong Lee, a Chinese washerman at Plattsborough, N. B., recently asked the treasury department whether he can send to China for his wife and children. He says he intended to become a United States citizen.

AMERICAN MUSIC.

Washington Society Desires to See It Properly Promoted.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—This evening at Lincoln Music Hall, in the presence of a distinguished and critical audience, the parent step was taken in the work of placing American music on a plane with the other branches of American art by the rendition for the first time of a concert programme selected wholly from compositions of American authors. The entertainment to-night, which was under the auspices of the National Conservatory of music, was intended to be the inauguration of a series of strictly American concerts, which Mrs. Thurber, projector of the scheme, hopes will embrace the leading cities of the country.

CUSTOMS COLLECTORS.

Puget Sound to Be the Chief Port of Entry on the Sound.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Secretary Windom has recommended the passage of a bill to establish a customs collection in the district of Puget Sound. The new bill modifies the Washington customs district of Puget Sound, and Port Townsend and Seattle sub-ports of entry and delivery.

THE OXFORD WIT.

LONDON, March 26.—The great annual race between Oxford and Cambridge took place this afternoon on the Thames. The water was choppy. An unprecedented crowd gathered along the banks of the river and the interest displayed was without parallel in the annual race. The Cambridge crew was the decided favorite in the betting. Oxford won the race by a length; time, 22 minutes and 3 seconds. The course was four miles and a quarter.
