There will be an immense audience at the opera house to hear Levy, the great cornetist on April 4th.

Mrs. C. W. Ayers, the architect, left last evening for Ashland, to look after the procuring of the stone for the new Bank of Oregon building.

There should be a full vote at the special election on April 7th, to show that the people of Albany are alive on matters of public improvement.

Dr. I. N. Woodley, who will on April 1st, assume charge of the delivery business, will put on new rigs and make the service as complete as possible.

The voters of Albany should not let it slip their memory that the question of bonding the city is to be submitted to them on April 7th. There should be a rousing vote in favor of it.

G. W. Simpson had $50 worth of shirts stolen by railroad employees in a recent shipment of goods over the Northern Pacific road. He has presented a claim for damages to the company.

Miss Mattie Hearst was tendered a peasant birthday party yesterday at the residence of her parents on Washington street, which was attended by about twenty-five of her young friends.

Messrs. Hundley & Eastburn will start in the delivery business in this city on April 1st, with new wagons and outfits throughout, and will guarantee to give satisfaction and deliver goods promptly.

A little five-year old son of J. N. Duncan, while playing with other children on the banks of the Santiam canal on Friday evening, fell into the stream, but luckily was fished out by a lady who was passing by.

The Burns Herald, Harney county, gives the following prices ruling here Mar. 29: Eggs, 33 1/2 cents per dozen; milk, 40 cents per gallon; potatoes, 4 cents per pound; flour, $4.50 per hundred; beef 12 1/2 cents per pound.

With the approaching of spring, fanners of the Northern and Middle states, are turning their attention west with thoughts of migration. The large number of immigrants that are daily arriving on every through train from the East is something remarkable.

At the Oregon penitentiary the three men who each cut a hand off of their fingers all were released from the dungeon a few weeks ago and are now at work in the foundry.

There was a flurry in the necktie market in this city yesterday. Fine silk ties dropped at Blain's to 25 cents. Then followed a decline at G. W. Simpson's to 20 cents, and last evening the admiring crowd was carrying them away from Blain's at 19 cents each.

NEARLY DRAGGED TO DEATH.

William Churchill Meets With a Serious Runaway Accident in This City.

Shortly before noon yesterday William Churchill a well known farmer who resides nine miles south of this city, was unloading his team on the square in front of the court house, when the horses became frightened and ran away.

Mr. Churchill seized them by the bits, but the team which was a spirited span of horses, ran down Broadalbin street toward Second street, striking him with their heads, and knocking him down. He was thrown beneath the feet of the horses, and the heavy wagon passed over his body. He was picked up and carried into the office of Dr. Maston on the adjacent corner, when it was found that his shoulder was broken, his back hurt and serious internal injuries received which caused a severe hemorrhage.

The team ran into the fence of Frank Wood's residence, and after breaking the wagon to pieces, was stopped.

Mr. Churchill's injuries are of a serious nature, but it is hoped they will not prove fatal. He was removed to the St. Charles hotel and his family sent for. He was given every attention, his son and his brothers being with him.

Oregon & California Trains.

Trains on the Oregon line have been making through trips in about two hours more than the schedule time since the repairing of the road, owing to heavy travel and the necessity of running carefully over the reconstructed portion of the road. Sunday a new schedule, making the time of departure of the Oregon express from San Francisco 5 p. m., instead of 7 p. m., will go into effect. When the road is again in good condition the old schedule will be resumed.

An Exciting Adventure.

John Mullan, while driving a team owned by Curran & Monteith yesterday west of Tangent, attempted to cross a stream, across which the bridge had been washed away by the flood. The horses swamped in the muddy bottom and one of them fell down in the water and its head was submerged until it was drowned. The other horse and the buggy were extricated. Mr. Mullan escaped without injury.

Linn County Coal Mines.

Mr. James Lindley, who resides above Lebanon, and who has been one of the pioneer prospectors upon the coal veins in the county, was in the city yesterday. In his investigations, which included quite extensive tunneling and boring to find the extent of the veins, he fully demonstrated that the article was there in paying quantities. His tunneling brought to light many veins whose croppings could be traced, and in boring his drills passed through a vein of 14 feet in thickness, certainly a mine of great value and one that will eventually be opened up and worked.

Special Industries.

Few persons have any idea of the extent of some of our special industries. It is estimated that during the past ten years the amount of capital invested in vineyards and grape-growing has increased over one hundred millions of dollars, with an annual product of over twenty-five millions of dollars. A special investigation into this rapidly growing branch of horticulture has been ordered by Superintendent Porter, of the Census Office, through its Division of Agriculture and a vast amount of valuable information and figures will be obtained.

After the Dogs.

For the hundred years or more of our country's history the dogs have been after the sheep, but now for the first time the census will be after the dogs; they will be accounted for the same as the horses, cattle, sheep, swine and other animals on the farms, and in the cities and villages as well.

Church Notice.

Preaching services to-morrow at the Presbyterian Church at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sabbath School at 12:15 P. M. Young people's prayer meeting at 8:30 P. M. In the eve the sixth and last discourse of the series on the general topic of "Womanhood" will be given. All will be made welcome to these services.

At Cost.

Having purchased a drummer's samples consisting of ladies' and children's muslin underwear, babies' footie caps and hoods, infants and children's slips and dresses, etc., etc., and receiving on the same a great discount, I will offer the same to the public at their wholesale price. From 25 to 50 per cent can be saved on all these goods. Call early before the stock is broken. G. W. Simpson.

Last Chance Without More Money.

Only thirty more lots to be sold in the Wasson addition. A large flouring mill has just been located across the R. R. and adjoining the Wasson addition, and when thirty more lots are sold, the balance will be taken off the market until the first of July and no one will then get a lot unless they commence building in thirty days.

The Portland Branch.

Going away, going away. We have decided to close our business, and our entire stock of clothing, boots, shoes, gents' furnishing goods, furniture, stoves, tinware, crockery, etc., must be sold by April 15th, next, regardless of cost. Remember this is your last and only chance to get goods at almost your own price. Come one, come all, and take advantage of this great opportunity. Also house and lot for sale cheap in the best locality in Albany. The Portland Branch, E. F. Wise & Co., proprietors, S. E. Young's old stand.

BRAINED WITH A WHISKY BOTTLE.

Two Italians Quarrel and Fight in a Down Town Barber Shop.

Yesterday morning Louis Ivanovitch, who runs an oyster joint down below Lyon street, went into the barber shop of Joseph Bain, his next door neighbor. Although both men claim the sunny skies of Italy as their common home, they bear no friendship for each other. Bain claimed that Ivanovitch owed him $1.00, and when he came into his shop he tried to force a collection. The latter said he did not owe it, and told him to go easy or he would run him out of town. Bain seized a big black whisky bottle and struck the other across the side of the head with it, cutting a frightful wound, from which the blood flowed profusely. Dr. W. H. Davis was called and sewed up the wound.

Ivanovitch then swore out a warrant of arrest for Bain, who was arraigned before Justice Humphrey and fined $10 and costs.

COAST NOTES.

Whatcom has lavished over $100,000 on street improvements since last July.

April 26th is the seventy-first anniversary of the Odd Fellows order. Most of the lodges in the state are preparing to celebrate.

A human arm and hand was found by a small boy in a Portland sewer the other day. It had been stolen from a doctor's dissecting room by a dog and carried away.

The loss of stock in the Kittitas valley, upon close investigation, is ascertained to be less than was at first reported. The snow is fast going, and the green grass, just peeping forth, furnishes a sight that gladdens the heart of the stockman.

The Olympia Partisan launches forth the following paragraph: "Do not confound the term 'mossback' and 'old settler.' To be an 'old settler' is not necessary to be a 'mossback.' Conservatism is as often inbred as acquired. Some of the most enterprising citizens of Olympia for years have boasted of their rights to the title of 'old settler' and have proudly worn the pioneer's badge."

The soil, except on the uplands, is too wet for plowing, hence spring seeding is retarded. There has been such a heavy snow fall in the mountains the past winter that the ground will be kept in a moist condition for a long time, and the farmers say there will be no trouble in obtaining good crops, even with the late seeding.

The Yaquina Republican asks that the next legislature should use every effort to reduce the expenses of the state where economy can be practiced without detriment to the material interest and development of the commonwealth.

Some time ago Arthur St. Clair, of Corvallis, was sent to the school. He did not remain in school long and his parents had been unable to learn his whereabouts. About two weeks ago his mother received a letter from him, stating that he had just arrived in British Columbia on a steamer from Japan. After leaving school he turned sailor and had been on the vessel several months. His parents scented his release when he arrived at British Columbia and he is glad to get home.

Golden Rule Bazaar.

Julius Gradwohl has decided to add to his mammoth stock of crockery and fancy goods a complete line of groceries. He has en route a large invoice of sugar, and will keep a complete assortment of choice groceries, and the best of coffees and teas to be had in the market for the benefit of his customers. He will also enlarge his hardware department. He informs us that he buys all his goods for net cash, which will enable him to sell goods as low as any house in Oregon, and there is no need of people going abroad when they can do as well at home, or even better.

Prof. H. C. Palmer's Conservatory of Music.

Twelveable's block, first street, Albany, Oregon, opened January 29, 1890. The course of instruction will consist of classes for piano, organ, harmony and voice culture. There will be a normal class and diplomas furnished to teachers, specifying capacity and experience. Students participate in monthly recitals, and are required to insure equality in recital. This conservatory will be conducted on the same basis as those in Boston, New York, etc. This is the only recognized successful system known for a thorough musical education. Send for circulars and references. Office hours from 1 to 3.

The primaries will be held at the usual place in each precinct at 1:30 o'clock p. m. on Thursday April 3, 1890.

W. M. KETCHUM, F. M. REEFIELD, Chairman, Secretary.

HORTICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.

The State Horticultural Association will hold its first quarterly meeting at the current year in the city council chamber of Portland on Tuesday April 8, at 10:30 A. M. All persons interested in the development of Oregon's horticulture in its various branches are cordially and earnestly invited to be in attendance. Business of such importance will come before the association and it is hoped that all persons engaged in horticulture will attend and take part in the discussion.

Reports will be rendered by the following committees which were appointed at the annual meeting in January last, "Fair" on Prunes, "Annual" Report, "Constitution and By-laws." The following papers will also be presented and discussed: Oregon Horticulture - O. P. Mason, Portland. The Prune and its Culture - Chauncey Hall, Mt. Tabor. The Young Orchard - R. D. Allen, Silverton.

This promises to be one of the most interesting meetings the association has ever held and all members are especially requested to be promptly on time at the opening session. E. R. LARK, Secretary.

VARIOUS ITEMS.

Dalles Times Mountaineer:—An egg from Mr. Frazer's henry measured 8 1/2 inches in circumference. This is very large hen fruit and the season is very unfavorable. Pendleton East Oregonian; The sentence of the Umatilla squaws confined in jail at Walla Walla for the alleged stealing of sheep pelts, expires to-morrow. Much sympathy is expressed for them by Walla Wallaians, and their accusers will in turn be prosecuted. Oregon City Enterprise; S. W. Moss, says of the flints which the workmen found while excavating for the woolen mill, that he saw in the old Abernethy building which washed away in 1861, no less than 10 great hoghead of flints all brought here by missionaries. Just what their office was in converting this land Mr. Moss never found out. He also adds that the brick for the Abernethy store were made in 1848 on a bench of land where the Eighth street dock now stands.

Salem Capital Journal; Sheriff Croisan concluded his pursuit of a horse thief last evening by the capture of the culprit and landing him in the county jail at a late hour. His name is Charles Anderson and the animal was stolen during Saturday night from the stable of James M. Martin, of the Waldo hills, for whom Anderson was working as a farm hand. The thief rode to Jefferson and crossed the ferry there, from which point Sheriff Croisan received the necessary intelligence after being informed of the crime and starting the wires over the surrounding country. The horse was a noticeable one, being a mouse color, so that Mr. Croisan, accompanied by Mr. Platner, a son-in-law of Mr. Martin, had no trouble in tracing the horse and his rider to Joseph Jones' farm some miles down the river from Jefferson, where Anderson was arrested while working for Mr. Jones, to whom he had hired out. The horse was recovered also and both brought back. Anderson was lodged in jail and was to be examined before Justice Goodell to-day, but prosecuting witness had not arrived at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Anderson claims no defense, so he will probably be bound over to await the grand jury.

NOTICE TO PROHIBITIONISTS.
