REMOVAL.

The office of the Daily and Weekly HERALD has been removed into the Foster block up stairs in the rooms formerly occupied by the Masonic lodge, where larger and more commodious quarters have been fitted up. Patrons of the paper will please observe the change.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND CRIME.

A number of periodicals and writers have been busy of late collecting data, and publishing statements to the effect that the data collected elucidated the fact that the public schools have increased rather than diminished crime. One author showing "that our school system is not elevating the moral standard of the rising generation, as had been so sanguinely expected, but rather that, as the minds of the masses are increased in knowledge, there is an equal, if not more rapid, increase of vice and crime."

The assumption that the defect is in the public school administration, is not clearly established however, and the effort to make the public school a scape goat to carry the sins of the people, is not a creditable one to either the writers, publishers or that part of the readers who accept the statements as facts and logical deductions.

It is a clearly established legal practice, that the teachers in the public schools must bear good moral characters. It is also a fact that with very rare exceptions they do come up to that requirement. It is also a fact that not only are they morally efficient instructors but also that a large per cent of them are members and workers in the churches, giving them an additional claim—according to the underlying spirit of the articles in question—to morality in the applied ability to impart correct instruction. Then why the claim that the public school is instrumental in spreading crime.

The churches are ascendent in all parts of the country and are strongly fortified by the Sunday schools, and yet it is claimed that vice and crime are alarmingly prevalent and actually on the increase. But would it be fair to saddle upon the churches and Sunday schools the responsibility of that increase? Then why the effort to connect the public schools in any manner with the alleged increase of criminal action among the people. Evidently the thought in that direction is born of a desire to dominate the public school with more of an ecclesiastical control.

If a more careful analysis of the statistics of crime and their connection with the present conditions of the human family, in comparison with past conditions were made, perhaps the conclusions in regard to the extent and away of the criminal classes would be modified. Certain it is that the allusions to criminality and its connection with the public school as it is now being made is both unfortunate and unwise.

APPLY THE SURPLUS.

Senator Plumb, of Kansas, has created considerable interest by enunciating a plan to appropriate the surplus in the treasury towards liquidating the public debt. Probably he will take out a patent on the idea, claiming it to be wholly original on his part, but he certainly deserves credit for bringing it out prominently and causing its discussion. His bill provides that the money required to be deposited for the redemption of national bank circulation be covered into the treasury and treated as funds available for the reduction of the public debt and for current expenses of the government; that all funds held for payment of the matured debt and interest due and unpaid be similarly treated, and that hereafter no funds available above the sum of $10,000,000 be retained in the treasury, but this not to be construed as permanently diminishing the fund of $100,000,000 now held for the redemption of treasury notes.

The Chronicle summarizes the position of the treasury figures as follows: On the 31st day of March the total amount of cash in the treasury was $628,764,793.54. Of this amount the box or compartment labeled "Silver held for silver certificates" contained in round numbers $280,600,000; the gold certificate box contained $135,000,000; the reserve fund for redemption of United States notes contained $100,000,000; the fractional silver coin box contained $23,000,000, and so on. Now what is the use of holding $628,000,000 in reserve, when it is absolutely certain that at no time will there be a call for one-twentieth or even one fiftieth part of it? Were the nation bankrupt, with its credit reduced to zero, there might be danger of something analogous to a run on a bank; but with bonds at a premium and an ability to borrow, were it necessary, all the spare money of the world, it is surely unnecessary to hoard all this money, as old women tie up their money in a stocking.

A NEW YORK young husband puts in a plea for a divorce on the grounds that his wife would have a black and tan terrier, taking it to bed with her and allowing it to nibble at her hubby's legs, and washing it in his basin and drying it on his towel. That was where he drew the line, and who could blame him.

Have you heard what Mr. G. L. Weast, of Cambridge City, Ind., says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy? If not, here it is: "During last summer I was troubled very much with severe pains in the stomach and bowels, and was induced by a friend to try this Remedy. I took one dose, as per directions, and it gave me almost instant relief. I cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Foshay & Mason.

Mr. F. J. Smith, Editor of the Ft Abercrombie, Dakota, Herald, says: "The most wonderful medicine, I have ever met with, is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. In case of cholic is gives speedy relief. On hunting trips I have found it indispensible. Put in alkali water, it imparts a pleasant taste and prevents the painful diarrhœa, which alkali water produces. Take Simmons Liver Regulator One Dose

WORTH

100 Dollars!

DEAR S. L. R: I consider one dose of Simmons Liver Regulator worth $100. I was constipated, had Headache, could eat nothing with satisfaction or appetite had the blues, and felt altogether out of sorts. I resorted to Blue Mass, Calomel, Quinine, and every remedy suggested, but only obtained temporary relief. One dose of S. L. R did me more good than $100 worth of doctors and doctoring. Resp'y, J C MARTIN.

I have been a teacher for twenty years, and during that time have had repeated attacks of headache, produced by torpid Liver, and have been entirely cured by Simmons Liver Regulator. I found it to be of so mild a character in its action as not to interfere, in the least with my duties in the school room. To those similarly situated and subject to the same, I cannot too highly recommend Simmons Liver Regulator.
